Southern Africa In Crisis Regional And International Responses:

Southern Africa in Crisis: Regional and International Responses International Peace Academy, 2024-12-09 Southern Africa in Crisis ,1988-01-01 Regional Organizations and Their Responses to Coups Franziska Hohlstein, 2022-09-30 Coups d tat continue to present one of the most extreme risks to democracy and stable governance worldwide This book examines the unique role played by regional organizations ROs following the occurrence of a coup d tat The book analyses the factors that influence the strength of reactions demonstrated by ROs and explores the different post coup solutions ROs pursue It argues that when confronted with a coup ROs take both basic democratic standards and regional stability into account before forming their responses Using a mixed methods approach the book concludes that ROs response to a coup depends on how detrimental it will be for the state of democracy in a country and how far it risks destabilizing the region Zimbabwe's Military: Examining its Veto Power in the Transition to Democracy, 2008-2013 Rupiya, Martin R., 2013-10-14 Political transition and democratisation challenges have been noted in African countries including Angola Burkina Faso Kenya Mali and the Democratic Republic of the Congo resulting in the African Union AU intervening on behalf of citizens using tried and tested mechanisms of imposing a power sharing agreement to preside over a transitional period during which there are key changes to the constitution and the political conduct of the incumbency and partisan institutions are weaned from seeking to perpetuate the status quo This book focuses on Zimbabwe s military and its perceived veto power in the transition to democratisation from 2008 until 2013 The objective was to analyse monitor and comment on the unique democratic transformational challenges faced by Zimbabwe s Government of National Unity One of the book s key findings is that every time partisan forces carry out an operation in the name of a political party there is a direct correlation in which the same loses its national character This is the context of the challenge facing Zimbabwean forces when used for partisan gain and why the Southern African Development Community SADC in its last communique in Maputo on 15 June 2013 sought to compel a written undertaking from the generals that they would desist from playing a direct role in the politics of the country The AU had earlier expressed its deep regret when faced with the results of serious human rights abuses that were committed with impunity How Sanctions Work N. Crawford, A. Klotz, 1999-01-28 How Sanctions Work surveys theories of international sanctions and offers detailed analyses of the effect of sanctions on apartheid South Africa Chapters by respected international experts cover cultural isolation oil and military embargoes trade boycotts financial sanctions and divestment consequences for black South Africans and regional effects The book shows how sanctions both directly and indirectly hurt the apartheid regime while in some cases offering succour to the anti apartheid movement Disengagement from Southwest Africa Owen Kahn, 2020-02-13 Gorbachev s new thinking on superpower relations assumes that struggle between two opposing world systems no longer characterizes the present era This second volume in the East South Relations series explores the implications of Gorbachev s new thinking for regional conflicts Because these conflicts jeopardize tranquil relations between the United States and the Soviet Union they are perceived as contrary to the new spirit of global cooperation This volume suggests that the accords on Southwest Africa may illustrate how the superpowers will resolve conflict and shows how smaller powers may now have new roles cast for them by the superpowers In 1975 Soviet Cuban assistance to the Leninist oriented Movement for the Popular Liberation of Angola MPLA was the first extensive Soviet allied military intervention in the Third World While the Soviet backed Cubans propped up the MPLA the South Africans intervened on a smaller scale in support of the National Union for the Total Independence of Angola UNITA under Jonas Savimbi After 1985 UNITA began receiving United States support and a military stalemate ensued The contributors to this volume analyse how the Soviet Union and the United States used this stalemate to move the MPLA Cuba and South Africa to settle not only their differences but also the vexing question of the Independence of Namibia Central issues explored are how and why South Africa and Cuba got into the Angolan arena why they stayed so long and why they saw fit to get out While the authors differ on the forces at work their debate is itself enlightening and offers valuable insights into the policy options of regional powers The contributors also review further steps beyond military disengagement needed to finally resolve the Angolan civil war and ensure regional stability They assess the potential for breakdown of the accords and the likely consequences should this occur Disengagement from Southwest Africa will interest policymakers and researchers concerned with developments in southern Africa and Cuba and with relations between the superpowers

Current Bibliographical Information Dag Hammarskjöld Library, 1993 Foreign Policy in Post-Apartheid South Africa Adekeye Adebajo, Kudrat Virk, 2017-12-18 South Africa is the most industrialized power in Africa It was rated the continent's largest economy in 2016 and is the only African member of the G20 It is also the only strategic partner of the EU in Africa Yet despite being so strategically and economically significant there is little scholarship that focuses on South Africa as a regional hegemon This book provides the first comprehensive assessment of South Africa's post Apartheid foreign policy Over its 23 chapters and with contributions from established Africa Western Asian and American scholars as well as diplomats and analysts the book examines the current pattern of the country's foreign relations in impressive detail The geographic and thematic coverage is extensive including chapters on the domestic imperatives of South Africa's foreign policy peace making defence and security bilateral relations in Southern Central West Eastern and North Africa bilateral relations with the US China Britain France and Japan the country's key external multilateral relations with the UN the BRICS economic grouping the African Caribbean and Pacific Group ACP as well as the EU and the World Trade Organization WTO An essential resource for researchers the book will be relevant to the fields of area studies foreign policy history international relations international law security studies political economy and development studies Nurturing Peace Fen Osler Hampson, 1996 Although the book explores the roles that other factors such as regional and systemic power relationships the terms of the settlement itself and the role of ripeness play in the success or failure of these peace settlements it concludes that success hinges more on what third parties do and do not do Violence in Southern Africa William Gutteridge,J.E. Spence,2013-07-23 Violence in southern Africa has occurred in a variety of modes including ethnic confrontation liberation struggles and cross border aggression and crime This volume examines the degree to which violence however defined has influenced political change across the region The contributions include analyses of the ramifications of violent disorder in Angola and Mozambique the impact on the political economy of both states and the prospects for lasting peace following the end of civil war Global Change, Regional Response Barbara Stallings,1995-09-29 This book offers a new perspective in studying development in the post cold war world Mercenaries Abdel-Fatau Musah,Kayode Fayemi,J. 'Kayode Fayemi,2000 Second volume of Deutscher prize winning trilogy on the future of IR tracing the defining characteristics of foreign encounters over time Annual Report on China's Response to Climate Change (2017) Weiguang Wang,Yaming Liu,2019-11-01 This book is written by experts from Institute of Urban and Environmental Studies of the Chinese Academy of Social Sciences and National Climate Center this book provides an overview of China s effort to implement the Paris Agreement In addition to measures put in place to reduce runoff in cities improve flood risk management promote decarbonization and combat desertification the book also addresses issues such as scientific assessment in relation to climate change the implications of US domestic climate politics for China US relations and China s emerging leadership role in the post Paris age The volume is a must read for anybody who wants to understand how China s aggressive climate adaptation policies help shape the country s growing weight in global climate governance The Political Economy of Global Responses to COVID-19 Alan W. Cafruny,Leila Simona Talani,2023-03-25 This book seeks to identify the reasons why some countries were more efficient and effective than others in responding to the COVID 19 pandemic and why the global community failed to coalesce What are the political determinants of the different state responses to the pandemic Why was scientific advice rejected or ignored in many countries What has been the role respectively of neoliberalism populism and authoritarianism in the making of Covid 19 policy What role have each of these factors played in the uneven and clearly inadequate global response to the pandemic In an effort to understand why some states failed to handle the pandemic properly some of the literature suggests that populism is at the root of the current failure of international co operation The global financial crisis of 2008 10 triggered significant cooperation within the G 20 led by the combined efforts of the United States and China These forms of cooperation have clearly disappeared in the context of the pandemic not only with respect to economic policy but also in public health and management The authors of this volume link the different state responses to the pandemic from its inception to the start of the vaccination campaign and to the political regimes prevailing in each In particular the present volume focuses on a distinction between the responses of neo liberal regimes populist regimes and authoritarian ones Governance and Food Security in an Age of Globalization Robert L. Paarlberg,2002-01-01 Commissioned by the International Food Policy Research Institute this discussion paper asks who is responsible for assuring food security in an age of globalization Paarlberg political science Wellesley College argues that significant hunger persists in some regions largely because of governance deficits and failures at the national rather than the global level He then suggests options for improving the performance of national governments in countries increasingly affected by hunger particularly those in Africa Annotation c Book News Inc Portland OR booknews com Southern African Update ,1987
