Southern Pacific Review, 1978-1979 Joseph A. Strapac,1979-08 Marine Fisheries Review ,1983 Culture and History in the Pacific Jukka Siikala,2021-09-29 Culture and History in the Pacific is a collection of essays originally published in 1990 The texts explore from different perspectives the question of culture as a repository of historical information They also address broader questions of anthropological writing at the time such as the relationship between anthropologists representations and local conceptions This republication aims to make the book accessible to a wider audience and in the region it discusses Oceania A new introductory essay has been included to contextualize the volume in relation to its historical setting the end of the Cold War era and to the present study of the Pacific and indigenous scholarship The authors of Culture and History in the Pacific include prominent anthropologists of the Pacific some of whom Roger Keesing and Marilyn Strathern to name but two have also been influential in the anthropology of the late 20th and early 21st century in general Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.),1980 Includes subject section name section and 1968 1970 technical reports Australia's Foreign Aid Dilemma Jack Corbett,2017-03-16 The Australian aid program faces a fundamental dilemma how in the absence of deep popular support should it generate the political legitimacy required to safeguard its budget and administering institution Australia s Foreign Aid Dilemma tells the story of the actors who have grappled with this question over 40 years It draws on extensive interviews and archival material to uncover how court politics shapes both aid policy and administration The lesson for scholars and practitioners is that any holistic understanding of the development enterprise must account for the complex relationship between the aid program of individual governments and the domestic political and bureaucratic contexts in which it is embedded If the way funding is administered shapes development outcomes then understanding the court politics of aid matters This comprehensive text will be of considerable interest to scholars and students of politics and foreign policy as well as development professionals in Australia and across the world Plant Breeding Reviews, Volume 2 Jules Janick,2011-01-11 Plant Breeding Reviews is an ongoing series presenting state of the art review articles on research in plant genetics especially the breeding of commercially important crops Articles perform the valuable function of collecting comparing and contrasting the primary journal literature in order to form an overview of the topic This detailed analysis bridges the gap between the specialized researcher and the broader community of plant scientists Infant Care and Feeding in the South Pacific Leslie B. Marshall,2022-02-16 First Published in 1985 This is Volume 3 of a series on Food and Nutrition in History and Anthropology In the aftermath of the controversial marketing of infant formula in the Third World this volume describes infant care and feeding practices within their social cultural and physical context among fourteen different Melanesian and Polynesian societies The contributors address such issues as health and nutritional status women s roles and social support early socialization symbolism and meaning of foods and feeding and intracultural variability The material is valuable to health professionals nutritionists and social scientists in
