Soviet Defence Industry:

The Soviet Defence Industry Complex from Stalin to Krushchev J. Barber, M. Harrison, 1999-12-08 The huge complex of Soviet institutions and enterprises specialised in military production powerfully influenced the course of the twentieth century through resistance to imperial Japan the defeat of Nazi Germany and nuclear stalemate with America in the Cold War Based on collaborative research by Russian and British scholars in the hitherto secret archives of the Soviet government party and armed forces this book is a pioneering investigation of the economic dynamics and social and political significance of Soviet defence Soviet Defense Industry Julian Cooper, 1991 The Soviet Defence Industry Julian Cooper, 1991

The Soviet Defence Industry and Conversion Julian Cooper, 1989 The Soviet Defence-industry Complex from Stalin to Khrushchev University of Birmingham. Centre for Russian and East European Studies, 2000 The huge complex of Soviet institutions and enterprises specializing in military production powerfully influenced the course of the 20th century through resistance to imperial Japan the defeat of Nazi Germany and nuclear stalemate with America in the Cold War Based on collaborative research by Russian and British scholars in the hitherto secret archives of the Soviet government party and armed forces this book is a pioneering investigation of the economic dynamics and social and political significance of Soviet defense Guns and Rubles Mark Harrison, 2008-10-01 Previously unknown details about Stalin's command system come to light in this book as do fascinating insights into the relations between Soviet public and private sectors Focusing on various aspects of the defence industry this volume uncovers information on the inner workings of Stalin's dictatorship Red Forge Peter Almquist, 1990 Examines the Soviet defense industry since 1965 especially the views of certain specialists the weapons designers and scientists and ministry officials Soviet Defence Industry Planning Lennart Samuelson, 1996

The Economics of the Global Defence Industry Keith Hartley, Jean Belin, 2019-11-08 This book makes an original contribution to our knowledge of the world's major defence industries Experts from a wide range of different countries from the major economies of North America and Western Europe to developing economies and some unique cases such as China India Singapore South Africa and North Korea describe and analyse the structure conduct and performance of the defence industry in that country Each chapter opens with statistics on a key nation's defence spending its spending on defence R D and on procurement over the period 1980 to 2017 allowing for an analysis of industry changes following the end of the Cold War After the facts of each industry the authors describe and analyse the structure conduct and performance of the industry The analysis of structure includes discussions of entry conditions domestic monopoly oligopoly structures and opportunities for competition The section on conduct analyses price non price competition including private and state funded R D and performance incorporates profitability imports and exports together with spin offs and technical progress The conclusion explores the future prospects for each nation's defence industry Do defence industries have a future What might the future defence firm and industry look like in 50 years time This volume is a vital resource and reference for anyone interested in defence economics industrial economics international relations strategic studies and public procurement The Structure of the Defense Industry Nicole Ball, Milton Leitenberg, 2021-05-30 Proponents of arms control and disarmament are often confronted with the argument that reductions in defense expenditure lead to cutbacks in military industries and thus to economic hardship While a reduction in defense production would cause some economic dislocation this would be mitigated by the ability of the economy to adapt to changing patterns of production This book first published in 1983 assesses the likely effects of reductions in defense industries by an examination of the roles these industries play in national economies Each chapter discusses industry employment output research and development capital value profitability concentration and competition internal organization and regional employment concentration Other questions considered include the economic importance of weapons exports the defense industry as a leading edge in maintaining national technological capabilities and the reliance of individual firms on defense contracting Conversion of the Defense Industry in the Former Soviet Union Thierry Malleret, 1992 The Defence Industry in East-Central Europe Judit Kiss, 1997 In 1989 90 the collapse of state socialism and the end of the Cold War brought dramatic changes for the defence industries of East Central Europe Initially it seemed that the resources devoted to the Cold War confrontation might become available for investment in non military economic and social progress However by 1994 this optimism had given way to recognition that the transformation would involve significant costs and could not be accomplished quickly The Defence Industry in East Central Europe charts the development of the industries of the Visegrad countries Czechoslovakia and its successor states the Czech Republic and Slovakia Poland and Hungary In the first part national case studies underline the different approaches to reform adopted in the individual countries The second part uses unique information derived from extensive interviews at enterprises in each of the four countries to examine the transformation of industry from a producer perspective The Soviet Weapons Industry, 1986 The Soviet Defence Industry, 1991 Defence Expenditure, Industrial Conversion, and Local Employment Liba Paukert, Peter J. Richards, 1991 Russian Military Industry Valeriy Khroustshiy, Sergej Aleksandrovič Kulik, 1993

The Future of the Defence Industries in Central and Eastern Europe Ian Anthony, 1994 This report examines the defence industries in Central and Eastern Europe as they attempt to restructure in the wake of changes brought about by the end of the cold war and downward trends in both military expenditure and arms exports Issues addressed include the developing military doctrines in Central and Eastern Europe the trend in military expenditure the nature of defence industry restructuring the international dimensions of industrial restructuring and the role of arms exports The Conversion of the Former Soviet Defence Industry Julian Cooper, 1993 The Numbered Factories and Other Establishments of the Soviet Defence Industry, 1927-67 Julian Cooper, 1999 The Economics of World War II Mark Harrison, 2000-06-26 This book provides a new quantitative view of the wartime economic experiences of six great powers the UK the USA Germany Italy Japan and the USSR What contribution did economics make to war preparedness and to winning or losing the war What was the effect of wartime experiences on postwar fortunes and did those who won the war lose the peace A chapter is devoted to each country reviewing its economic war potential military economic policies and performance war expenditures and development while the introductory chapter presents a comparative overview The result of an international collaborative project the volume aims to provide a text of statistical reference for students and researchers interested in international and comparative economic history the history of World War II the history of economic policy and comparative economic systems It embodies the latest in economic analysis and historical research
