Soviet Army:

The Soviet Army Albert Seaton, Joan Seaton, 1987 Handbook on the Soviet Army United States. Department of the Army, 1959 Inside the Soviet Army Viktor Suvorov, 1984 The Soviet Army's High Commands in War and Peace, 1941-1992 Richard W. Harrison, 2022-07-28 The first full treatment of the unique phenomenon of High Commands in the Soviet Army during World War II and the Cold War The war on the Eastern Front during 1941 45 was an immense struggle running from the Barents Sea to the Caucasus Mountains The vast distances involved forced the Soviet political military leadership to resort to new organizational expedients in order to control operations along the extended front These were the high commands of the directions which were responsible for two or more fronts army groups and along maritime axes one or more fleets In all five high commands were created along the northwestern western southwestern and North Caucasus strategic directions during 1941 42 However the highly unfavorable strategic situation during the first year of the war as well as interference in day to day operations by Stalin severely limited the high commands effectiveness As a consequence the high commands were abolished in mid 1942 and replaced by the more flexible system of supreme command representatives at the front A High Command of Soviet Forces in the Far East was established in 1945 and oversaw the Red Army s highly effective campaign against Japanese forces in Manchuria The Far Eastern High Command was briefly resurrected in 1947 as a response to the tense situation along the Korean peninsula and the ongoing civil war in China but was abolished in 1953 soon after Stalin s death Growing tensions with China brought about the recreation of the Far Eastern High Command in 1979 followed a few years later by the appearance of new high commands in Europe and South Asia However these new high commands did not long survive the collapse of the Soviet Union in 1991 and were abolished a year later The book relies almost exclusively on Soviet and post communist archival and other sources and is the first unclassified treatment of this subject in any country East or West The Red Army: the Red Army, 1918 to 1945 Sir Basil Henry Liddell Hart, 1956 The Soviet Military Experience Roger R. Reese, 2002-01-04 The Soviet Military Experience is the first general work to place the Soviet army into its true social political and international contexts It focuses on the Bolshevik Party s intention to create an army of a new type whose aim was both to defend the people and propagate Marxist ideals to the rest of the world It includes discussion of the origins of the Workers and Peasant s Red Army effects of the Civil War Bolshevik regime s use of the military as a school of socialism effects of collectivization and rapid industrialisation of the 1920s and 1930s Second World War and its profound repercussions ethnic tensions within the army effect of Gorbachev s policies of Glasnost and Perestroika A History of the Soviet Army Michel Garder, 1966 Soviet Life , 1972 The Military History of the Soviet Union F. Kagan, R. Higham, 2016-04-30 The Military History of the Soviet Union and The Military History of Tsarist Russia treat Russian military history from the rise of the Muscovite state to the present even peeking briefly into the future The two volumes will cover Russia s land forces extensively but will also cover the development of the

Russian Navy and the creation and development of the Russian Air Force parts of the Russian military machine which are frequently neglected in general writings The historical analysis will address the development and function of the Russian military whether in peace or in war as well as the impact of war and changes in the military upon Russian society and politics

The Withdrawal of Soviet Troops from East Central Europe Christoph Meißner, Jörg Morré, 2021-10-11 The withdrawal of Soviet troops is a so far largely unresearched process of international political and military reorganization after 1989 90 which was accompanied by political economic social and geopolitical factors that had different effects in different nations The anthology contains national studies that examine the withdrawal from a scientific perspective But it also analyses the international conditions that led to the geopolitical reorganization and reduction of weapons In addition to the country studies the reforms and the collapse of the Soviet empire are examined from a military political perspective in order to make the conditions for returning home understandable Finally the legacy of the retreat is also considered in the light of current policies and the current threats to the countries of East Central Europe from the increasing aggression in this geopolitical space Mao, Stalin and the Korean War Shen Zhihua, 2012-06-25 This book examines relations between China and the Soviet Union during the 1950s and provides an insight into Chinese thinking about the Korean War This volume is based on a translation of Shen Zihua s best selling Chinese language book which broke the mainland Chinese taboo on publishing non heroic accounts of the Korean War The author combined information detailed in Soviet era diplomatic documents released after the collapse of the Soviet Union with Chinese memoirs official document collections and scholarly monographs in order to present a non ideological realpolitik account of the relations motivations and actions among three Communist actors Stalin Mao Zedong and Kim Il sung This new translation represents a revisionist perspective on trilateral Communist alliance relations during the Korean War shedding new light on the origins of the Sino Soviet split and the rather distant relations between China and North Korea It features a critical introduction to Shen s work and the text is based on original archival research not found in earlier books in English This book will be of much interest to students of Communist China Stalinist Russia the Korean War Cold War Studies and International History in general Air University Review
