The Ethnic History Of Transylvania:

The Ethnic History of Transylvania Endre Haraszti, 1971 Conflict Areas in the Balkans Pinar Yürür, Arda Özkan, 2020-10-27 The situation in the Balkans such as the solution to the status of Kosovo is currently the largest international political problem in Europe with the potential to burst into a world crisis regarding the Eastern Western relations On the other hand a successful solution to the problem in the Balkans could serve as a model for solving the Muslim Christian tensions elsewhere in the world It is the intention of this book to contribute proposals for solutions to the problems of Balkans The starting principle for the solutions to be effective is that they should come in a natural way from the people below and should not be enforced by the political elites from above Based on self determination of nations as a starting principle they should encourage intra regional cooperation among the regional entities economic cultural sport as a basis for political social understanding and cooperation secondly accelerate their economic political and social development and thirdly as a final step enable the inclusion of the Balkan countries into the European Union Witchcraft in Romania Ioan Pop-Curşeu, Ştefana Pop-Curşeu, 2022-11-30 This book provides a history of witchcraft in the territories that compose contemporary Romania with a focus on the sixteenth to nineteenth centuries The first part presents aspects of earthly justice religious and secular analysing the codes of law trials and verdicts and underlining the differences between Transylvania on one hand and Moldavia and Wallachia on the other The second part is concerned with divine justice describing apocalyptic texts that talk about the pains of witches in hell but also the ensembles of religious painting where in vast compositions of the Last Judgment various punishments for the sin of witchcraft are imagined The History of Transylvania: Until 1541 Mihai Bărbulescu, 2005 Nationalist Politics and Everyday Ethnicity in a Transylvanian Town Rogers Brubaker, Margit Feischmidt, Jon Fox, Liana Grancea, 2018-06-05 Situated on the geographic margins of two nations yet imagined as central to each Transylvania has long been a site of nationalist struggles Since the fall of communism these struggles have been particularly intense in Cluj Transylvania s cultural and political center Yet heated nationalist rhetoric has evoked only muted popular response The citizens of Cluj the Romanian speaking majority and the Hungarian speaking minority have been largely indifferent to the nationalist claims made in their names Based on seven years of field research this book examines not only the sharply polarized fields of nationalist politics in Cluj Transylvania and the wider region but also the more fluid terrain on which ethnicity and nationhood are experienced enacted and understood in everyday life In doing so the book addresses fundamental questions about ethnicity where it is when it matters and how it works Bridging conventional divisions of academic labor Rogers Brubaker and his collaborators employ perspectives seldom found together historical and ethnographic institutional and interactional political and experiential Further developing the argument of Brubaker s groundbreaking Ethnicity without Groups the book demonstrates that it is ultimately in and through everyday experience as much as in political contestation or cultural articulation that ethnicity and nationhood are produced and reproduced as basic categories of social and political life Jesuits and the Politics of Religious Pluralism in Eighteenth-Century Transylvania Paul Shore, 2017-03-02 This book tells the story of the Jesuit mission to Cluj Transylvania now Romania from 1693 when the Jesuits were allowed to return after almost a century of restricted activity in the region until 1773 when the order was suppressed During these eight decades the Jesuits created a complex multi faceted community whose impact reached throughout Transylvania and beyond into neighbouring regions In addition to an ongoing missionary program in this predominantly non Catholic region the Jesuits established a cluster of schools and a university that trained the elite introduced Baroque architecture music and literature and became the masters of extensive properties The Jesuits schools staged dramas in several languages their printing press produced a wide range of publications including a Hungarian ABC for Girls and a catechism in Ukrainian and Jesuit scientists including Miksa Hell later Court Astronomer in Vienna conducted experiments and observations Among the unique features of this study are the accounts of how Jesuits sought to impose social conformity on the ethnically and religiously diverse community the Jesuits project to develop a Uniate Church that would retain the Eastern Rite while acknowledging the authority of Rome and the story of the long forgotten Jesuit brothers who contributed their talents as craftsmen and artists to the Jesuit enterprise A chapter is devoted to the ill fated 1743 mission to Moldavia in which Transylvanian Jesuits hoped to establish a missionary and educational outpost in this Ottoman dominated principality Special attention is given to Jesuit interactions with the many minority groups present in Cluj Armenians Jews Roma Gypsies and German speaking Saxons as well as encounters with ethnic Romanians who made up the majority of the population of Transylvania and among whom the Uniate Church was promoted Cluj a city where the cultures of Eastern and Western Europe meet represented the furthestmost penetration into Orthodox Europe of the Baroque aesthetic and of the domination of the Habsburgs supported and glorified by the Jesuits The successes and failures of this religious order helped shape the history of the region for the next two centuries Statehood Before and Beyond Ethnicity Linas Eriksonas, Leos Müller, 2005 Today s world is a world of nation states few have survived since the early modern period some have existed for three hundred years most came into being during the second part of the last century Yet the equation between the state and the nation does not go back far in history despite the prevailing tendency to view the state as closely linked to ethnicity To challenge the latter this book attempts to examine statehood separately from the concept of ethnicity it asks what is non ethnic about statehood by looking at statehood before and beyond ethnicity A non ethnic statehood is analysed in two forms as a historical phenomenon at the time of the emergence of the early modern state Part One and as a historical tradition which had been pursued by the nation builders in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Part Two Instead of looking at great powers as traditional models of statehood individual chapters focus on minor and less familiar states in Northern and Eastern Europe from the period c 1600 2000 including Belgium Bohemia Greece the Netherlands Romania Poland Lithuania Serbia and Montenegro Sweden Scotland and Transylvania Handbook on the History and

History of the Literary Cultures of East-Central Europe Marcel Cornis-Pope, John Neubauer, 2006-09-13 Continuing the work undertaken in Vol 1 of the History of the Literary Cultures of East Central Europe Vol 2 considers various topographic sites multicultural cities border areas cross cultural corridors multiethnic regions that cut across national boundaries rendering them permeable to the flow of hybrid cultural messages By focusing on the literary cultures of specific geographical locations this volume intends to put into practice a new type of comparative study Traditional comparative literary studies establish transnational comparisons and contrasts but thereby reconfirm however inadvertently the very national borders they play down This volume inverts the expansive momentum of comparative studies towards ever broader regional European and world literary histories While the theater of this volume is still the literary culture of East Central Europe the contributors focus on pinpointed local traditions and geographic nodal points Their histories of Riga Plovdiv Timi oara or Budapest of Transylvania or the Danube corridor to take a few examples reveal how each of these sites was during the last two hundred years a home for a variety of foreign or ethnic literary traditions next to the one now dominant within the national borders By foregrounding such non national or hybrid traditions this volume pleads for a diversification and pluralization of local and national histories A genuine comparatist revival of literary history should involve the recognition that treading on native grounds means actually treading on grounds cultivated by diverse people
