The Eucharistic Words of Jesus Joachim Jeremias,1966 The Eucharistic Words of Jesus Joachim Jeremias,1955

The Eucharistic Words of Jesus Joachim Jeremias,1977 Eucharistic Words of Jesus Joachim Jeremias,1964 The Eucharist in the New Testament Jerome Kodell,1991 This short study of the eucharist in the New Testament has two parts The first seeks to uncover the origins of the Eucharist and to trace developments in the earliest Eucharistic practice and understanding The second part investigates the Eucharistic theology of the individual New Testament writers from back cover "The Son of Man" as the Son of God Seyoon Kim,2011-07-20 Die Abendmahlsworte Jesu. The Eucharistic Words of Jesus ... Translated ... by Arnold Ehrhardt. With Special Reference to the Gospels. Joachim Jeremias,Arnold Anthony Traugott EHRHARDT,1955 The Eucharist in the New Testament Norman Hook,2009-05-26 This book demands a new look at Eucharistic doctrine and is offered as a serious contribution to ecumenical discussion Two motives lie behind this study 1 the fact that the explanation of the Dominical words either causes offense to educated people or is so watered down that the explanation ceases to arise naturally from the language and 2 the tragedy of a situation where the one sacrament which should unite us all is one of the major causes of our divisions The thesis is concerned to establish that in the field of the New Testament itself there is good ground for believing that there is a single Eucharistic doctrine It proceeds on the lines following 1 The Last Supper was a Passover albeit an unorthodox one and the Passover background was an eminently suitable instrument for our Lord's purposes 2 It concludes that the Pauline-Lukan tradition of the cup saying is original and then considers the meaning of the Dominical language with reference both to the Greek and to the possible Aramaic originals What is yielded by this examination is a doctrine which is in line with the historical background intelligible spirituality satisfying and most important free of the metaphysical subtlety which has divided the Church 3 Examination of the Corinthian Eucharist and the Breaking of the Bread in Acts discloses an attempt to reproduce the Last Supper and therefore an identical doctrine 4 A study of the Fourth Gospel inquires how far its supposedly realist doctrine conflicts with this identical doctrine and reasons are given which suggest that any difference in doctrine between the Synoptists and the Fourth Gospel is unlikely 5 The two concluding sections of the book examine the doctrinal implications of the thesis established with special reference to the doctrine of the Presence and the doctrine of the Eucharistic sacrifice Because the Reformers claimed to reestablish a Scriptural doctrine reference is made to the work of Cranmer its weakness illustrating the strength of the case for the exegesis herein propounded 6 In the sealing ordinances of the Church of Scotland and in the Covenant Service of the Methodists the author sees genuine insights which belong to a true Eucharistic doctrine and which should be preserved
