The Expanded Mission Of Old First Churches:

The Expanded Mission of "old First" Churches Raymond J. Bakke, Samuel K. Roberts, 1986 Church Planting at the End of the Twentieth Century Charles L. Chaney, 2013-01-01 More than 80 million Americans claim no church affiliation Only six other nations have a total population of more than 80 million Another 90 million who claim membership or affiliation don't attend church It is obvious that this many people will not be reached by existing congregations The answer More churches are needed Here is a book written by one of the nation's authoritative voices on church planting with both biblical and practical help for those who share his vision that the task of church planting rests not with denominational leaders but with the people and pastors of local churches Transforming Mission Theology Charles Van Engen, 2017-10-01 Missiology Permeated with Theological Reflection This volume is the culmination of Van Engen's teachings but takes us to an even deeper level Since mission is first and foremost God's mission theological reflection must be permeated by missiological understanding and our missiology must be permeated with theological reflection Mission theology is an activity of the Church of Jesus Christ seeking to understand more deeply why how when where and wherefore the followers of Jesus may participate in God's mission in God's world When God Changes A Church Michael W. Wesley, 2010-09 When God changes a church He begins with the leader He changes him from the inside out That person is known to us as the pastor This role is pivotal to any real redemptive work that God will ultimately do in the life of a particular congregation In this book we will see how God changed a particular African American Church in Birmingham Alabama The pastor chronicles how God inspired a vision that changed a traditional church with traditional values into an outward focused ministry with real worldwide reaching possibilities River of God Douglas D. Priest, Stephen E. Burris, 2012-04-19 River of God is an introduction to world missions aimed at undergraduate students However the readers will soon discover that the book is rich in its content far beyond the editors original plan It serves as a reader for people with various levels of missiological interest and competence and deals with cutting edge issues in missions This book introduces a new paradigm Kingdom Missiology which builds on shalom in the Old Testament and as Jesus applied to the Kingdom of God in the New Testament The first half of the book looks at Kingdom Missiology from the biblical historical and cultural dimensions The second half of the book describes helpful strategies in the implementation of this paradigm The importance of urban ministry is woven throughout the book Contributors Ashley Barker Gina Bellofatto Kendi Howells Douglas Robert Douglas Todd Johnson Robert Kurka Janice Lemke Paul McAlister Mark Moore Doug Priest Greg Pruett Mike Sweeney Bill Weber Donovan Weber Linda Whitmer and Tetsunao Yamamori Reconnecting the Church J. Timothy Kauffman, 2010-07-23 Reconnecting the Church is offered as a practical guide to assist pastors and laypeople in understanding the city engaging and serving the local community in which the church is located The book's purpose is to come along side the local church that wishes to reconnect to its local community and offer practical ways to accomplish that task There are 25 chapters each of which describes briefly an aspect of life in the city At the end of each chapter are practical action reflection projects These projects are designed to give the reader first hand experience of their church s immediate neighborhood They are specific tasks most of which will be done outside the church Each action is described and guidance is given for reflection after each project
