

Discipleship Foundations

L-1 Essentials for Growth

Instructions: Ask the Holy Spirit to reveal insights and application. Read as a group, underline, and then share what stood out to you and why.

"Hope deferred makes the heart sick, but desire fulfilled is a tree of life." Proverbs 13:12 (NASB).

If you were preparing for a three-day backpacking trip, what essential equipment would you put in your backpack? What items would be necessary if the trip were a vacation or a shopping spree?

As we begin this journey into personal and spiritual growth, there are three essential things needed to get the most out of this discipleship material. If even one of these is lacking, our growth will be substantially limited.

Desire is the first essential element needed for spiritual growth. Without some level of desire, it is doubtful any of us would put in the effort needed to reach a goal or see a longing come to fulfillment. Proverbs 13:12 gives us a clear indication of the power of desire: "Hope deferred makes the heart sick, but desire fulfilled is a tree of life." (NASB).

Desire can be a longing, wish, expectation, or passion for something. Human desires can be good or bad. Desires compel us to act, so it is wise to evaluate and carefully choose what we desire."

Most of our desires are focused on the things of this world. Homes, careers, cars, food, and so many other distractions draw our attention. Not all of these are bad, but we must have the right priorities. Jesus knew we had needs and desires, and He also knew keeping them in the right order would be difficult for us. He gives us guidance in Matthew 6:33, "But seek first His kingdom and His righteousness; and all these things shall be added to you." (NASB) A desire to develop a closer walk with God and a desire to grow spiritually should be our first priorities. Are a deeper walk with the Lord and spiritual growth truly the desires of your heart?

I pray they are. However, there are times when all of us would have to admit the answer is no. Maybe your interest is in business, relationships, or other things besides spiritual growth and personal development. It could be that you are participating out of necessity rather than a true desire. If you are at that place today, don't be discouraged or check out; ask the Holy Spirit for the desire to seek Him and then let it develop in you.

One of the benefits of seeking the Lord first is the discovery of our meaning and purpose, which comes from our Creator not the world. Genesis 1:28 says, "And God blessed them; and God said to them, 'Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the earth, and subdue it; and rule over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the sky, and over every living thing that moves on the earth'" (NASB). God gave Adam and Eve multiple huge purposes in this verse. In Genesis 2:15 we see another more specific purpose, "Then the Lord God took the man and put him into the Garden of Eden to cultivate it and keep it." (NASB).

There is more than a singular purpose in life. Adam and Eve were given a plan, which they did not fully complete. They were also given more specific duty to cultivate and keep the Garden of Eden.

True purpose, the kind that gives our lives meaning, comes only from our Creator. If we seek fulfillment from another source, we may find it interesting to do but it will not fulfill our deepest need for purpose. Consider Jeremiah 29:11-13, "...For I know the plans that I have for you," declares the Lord, "plans for welfare and not for calamity to give you a future and a hope. Then you will call upon Me and come and pray to Me, and I will listen to you. You will seek Me and find Me when you search for Me with all your heart.'" (NASB)

Humility is the second essential element needed for spiritual growth. Humility comes from honest self-evaluation, where we understand and accept our complete dependence on and need to receive from God. True humility focuses more on our state as created beings than on our sinful condition. Even if we were sinless, we would still be 100% dependent upon God."

Do not confuse low self-worth or self-abasement with humility. Humility gives us a correct perspective of our need, position, and relationship with God. This, in turn, works to correct self-worth issues. It also moves us toward right relationships with other people. "Do nothing from selfishness or empty conceit, but with humility of mind let each of you regard one another as more important than himself." Philippians 2:3 (NASB).

We are interdependent with other people. We add to their lives, and they contribute to ours. Humility helps us receive, value, and respect the contributions of others. It also moves us to have the right motives when serving people.
