The Essential Joseph Beuys:

The Essential Joseph Beuys Alain Borer, Lothar Schirmer, 1996 Celebrates the forty year oeuvre of one of the most important and influential visual artists of the postwar era Werkübersicht 1945-1985 Joseph Beuys, 2015-10 To Life! Linda Weintraub, 2012-09-01 To Life Eco Art in Pursuit of a Sustainable Planet documents the burgeoning eco art movement from A to Z presenting a panorama of artistic responses to environmental concerns from Ant Farm's anti consumer antics in the 1970s to Marina Zurkow's 2007 animation that anticipates the havoc wreaked upon the planet by global warming This text is the first international survey of twentieth and twenty first century artists who are transforming the global challenges facing humanity and the Earth's diverse living systems Their pioneering explorations are situated at today's cultural scientific economic spiritual and ethical frontiers The text guides students of art design environmental studies and interdisciplinary studies to integrate environmental awareness responsibility and activism into their professional and personal lives

Encyclopedia of Twentieth-Century Photography, 3-Volume Set Lynne Warren, 2005-11-15 The Encyclopedia of Twentieth Century Photography explores the vast international scope of twentieth century photography and explains that history with a wide ranging interdisciplinary manner This unique approach covers the aesthetic history of photography as an evolving art and documentary form while also recognizing it as a developing technology and cultural force This Encyclopedia presents the important developments movements photographers photographic institutions and theoretical aspects of the field along with information about equipment techniques and practical applications of photography To bring this history alive for the reader the set is illustrated in black and white throughout and each volume contains a color plate section A useful glossary of terms is also included Terror and the Sublime in Art and Critical Theory G. Ray, 2005-09-02 The eleven interconnected essays of this book penetrate the dense historical knots binding terror power and the aesthetic sublime and bring the results to bear on the trauma of September 11 and the subsequent War on Terror Through rigorous critical studies of major works of post 1945 and contemporary culture the book traces transformations in art and critical theory in the aftermath of Auschwitz and Hiroshima Critically engaging with the work of continental philosophers Theodor W Adorno Jacques Derrida and Jean Francois Lyotard and of contemporary artists Joseph Beuys Damien Hirst and Boaz Arad the book confronts the shared cultural conditions that made Auschwitz and Hiroshima possible and offers searching meditations on the structure and meaning of the traumatic historical event Ray argues that globalization cannot be separated from the collective tasks of working through historical genocide He provocatively concludes that the current US led War on Terror must be grasped as a globalized inability to mourn Visual Culture in Twentieth-century Germany Gail Finney, 2006 Visual Culture in Twentieth Century Germany explores a wide spectrum of visual media in 20th century Germany in their critical and social contexts Contributors examine film photography cabaret performances advertising architecture painting dance television and cartography The Utopian Globalists Jonathan Harris, 2013-02-25 THE UTOPIAN GLOBALISTS

Crossing continents historical periods and cultural genres Jonathan Harris skilfully traces the evolution of utopian ideals from early modernism to the spectacularised and biennialised or banalised as some would say contemporary art world of today Michael Asbury University of the Arts London

The Utopian Globalists is the second in a trilogy of books by Jonathan Harris examining the contours forces materials and meanings of the global art world along with its contexts of emergence since the early twentieth century The first of the three studies Globalization and Contemporary Art Wiley Blackwell 2011 anatomized the global art system through an extensive anthology of over 30 essays contextualized through multiple thematic introductions The final book in the series Contemporary Art in a Globalized World forthcoming Wiley Blackwell combines the historical and contemporary perspectives of the first and second books in an account focused on the mediatizations shaping and representing contemporary art and its circuits of global production dissemination and consumption This innovative and revealing history examines artists whose work embodies notions of revolution and human social transformation The clearly structured historical narrative takes the reader on a cultural odyssey that begins with Vladimir Tatlin s constructivist model for a Monument to the Third International 1919 a statement of utopian globalist intent via Picasso s 1940s commitment to Soviet communism and John and Yoko s Montreal Bedin to what the author calls the late globalism of the Unilever Series at London s Tate Modern The book maps the ways artists and their work engaged with and offered commentary on modern spectacle in both capitalist and socialist modernism throughout the eras of the Russian Revolution the Cold War and the increasingly globalized world of the past 20 years In doing so Harris explores the idea that the utopian globalist lineage in art remains torn between its yearning for freedom and a deepening identification with spectacle as a media commodity to be traded and consumed

The Great Parade Pierre Théberge, Galeries Nationales du Grand Palais (Parijs), National Gallery of Canada, 2004-01-01 A beautiful book that showcases how circus figures and artifacts have been portrayed in art over the past two centuries The circus is a dazzling world filled with acrobats and harlequins tumblers and riders monsters and celestial creatures Now this engaging book sets that world in a new light examining how painters sculptors and photographers from the eighteenth century to the present have used the circus as a springboard for their imaginative expression and have envisioned the clown as a metaphor for the modern artist The book presents more than 175 works by such artists as Degas Toulouse Lautrec Rouault Picasso Chagall and L ger Some of these are masterful works shown for the first time these range from the 18 meter stage curtain Picasso designed in 1917 for Erik Satie s ballet Parade to more intimate works such as Nadar and Tournachon s photographs of Pierrot as played by celebrated mime Charles Debureau

The Twentieth Century Performance Reader Teresa Brayshaw, Noel Witts, 2013-10-01 The Twentieth Century Performance Reader has been the key introductory text to all types of performance for over fifteen years Extracts from over fifty practitioners critics and theorists from the fields of dance drama music theatre and live art form an essential sourcebook for students researchers and practitioners This carefully revised third edition offers focus on contributions from the world of music and also privileges the voices of practitioners themselves ahead of more theoretical writing A bestseller since its original publication in 1996 this new edition has been expanded to include contributions from Bobby Baker Joseph Beuys Rustom Bharucha Anne Teresa de Keersmaecker Hanns Eisler Karen Finley Philip Glass Guillermo Gomez-Peña Matthew Goulish Martha Graham Wassily Kandinsky Jacques Lecoq Hans Thies Lehmann George Maciunas Ariane Mnouchkine Meredith Monk Lloyd Newson Carolee Schneemann Gertrude Stein Bill Viola Each extract is fully supplemented by a contextual summary a biography of the writer and suggestions for further reading The volume's alphabetical structure invites the reader to compare and cross reference major writings on all types of performance outside of the constraints and simplifications of genre encouraging cross disciplinary understandings All who engage with live innovative performance and the interplay of radical ideas will find this collection invaluable

Natural Materials of the Holy Land and the Visual Translation of Place, 500-1500 Renana Bartal, Neta Bodner, Bianca Kuhnel, 2017-04-21

Natural Materials of the Holy Land and the Visual Translation of Place 500-1500 focuses on the unique ways that natural materials carry the spirit of place Since early Christianity wood earth water and stone were taken from loca sancta to signify them elsewhere Academic discourse has indiscriminately grouped material tokens from holy places and their containers with architectural and topographical emulations two dimensional images and bodily relics However unlike textual or visual representations natural materials do not describe or interpret the Holy Land they are part of it Tangible and timeless they realize the meaning of their place of origin in new locations What makes earth stones or bottled water transported from holy sites sacred How do they become pars pro toto signifying the whole from which they were taken This book will examine natural media used for translating loca sancta the processes of their sanctification and how although inherently abstract they become charged with meaning It will address their metamorphosis natural or induced how they change the environment to which they are transported their capacity to translate a static and distant site elsewhere the effect of their relocation on users viewers and how their containers and staging are used to communicate their substance
