Sorting Metaphors:

Understanding Patients' Voices Marta Antón, Elizabeth M. Goering, 2015-04-15 This volume illustrates the process of conducting interdisciplinary multi cultural research into the relationship between patient language use and chronic disease management The ten chapters in this book provide a model for interdisciplinary research in health discourse from start to finish Part I describes in detail the conceptualization and design of a multi year research project exploring language use among people living with diabetes Part II offers a sampler of a variety of qualitative quantitative and contrastive methodologies that have considerable potential in the study of health discourse Part III brings the research process full circle by discussing issues related to adapting research protocols to diverse cultural contexts translating results into practice and working in interdisciplinary teams

Metaphors of Mind Brad Pasanek, 2015-07-01 A pathbreaking introduction to eighteenth century metaphors of the mind that recasts the grand narrative of the Enlightenment in terms of its tropes and figures An encyclopedic dictionary along the lines of Voltaire's classic Dictionnaire Philosophique Metaphors of Mind provides an in depth look at the myriad ways in which Enlightenment writers used figures of speech to characterize the mind Drawn from Brad Pasanek's massive online archive <http://metaphorized.net> this volume constitutes a veritable treasury of mental metaphors Dividing the book into eleven broad metaphorical categories Animals Coinage Court Empire Fetters Impressions Inhabitants Metal Mirror Rooms and Writing Pasanek maps out constellations of metaphors He frames his collection of literary excerpts in each section with a more descriptive and theoretical discussion of what he calls desultory reading a form of unsystematic perusal of writing frequently employed by Enlightenment thinkers By surveying the printed past alongside the digital present the book treats eighteenth century writing as its topic while essentially exemplifying its rhetorical approach More than an exercise in quotation this intellectual history offers illuminating readings of fragmentary literary works and confrontations with neoclassical and contemporary theories of metaphor The book's entries complicate received ideas about Locke's blank slate question M H Abrams' claims about mirrors and lamps and chart changing frequencies of metal metaphors in a moment of industrial revolution The book also responds to current anxieties about reading and the mass digitization of literature touching on recent discussions of distant reading shallow reading and surface reading Promoting critical and creative anachronism Metaphors of Mind redefines the notion of an archive in the age of Amazon and Google Books

Metaphors in the Mind Jeannette Littlemore, 2019-08-15 Explores the physical psychological and social factors that shape the way in which people engage with embodied metaphor including for example the shape of one's body age gender physical or linguistic impairments ideology and religious beliefs It will appeal to students and researchers in cognitive linguistics and cognitive psychology

Explaining Algorithms Using Metaphors Michal Forišek, Monika Steinová, 2013-04-09 There is a significant difference between designing a new algorithm proving its correctness and teaching it to an audience When teaching algorithms the teacher's main goal should be to convey the underlying ideas and to help the students form correct mental models related to the algorithm This process can often be facilitated by using suitable metaphors This work provides a set of novel metaphors identified and developed as suitable tools for teaching many of the classic textbook algorithms taught in undergraduate courses worldwide Each chapter provides exercises and didactic notes for teachers based on the authors experiences when using the metaphor in a classroom setting

The Routledge Handbook of Metaphor and Language Elena Semino,Zsófia Demjén,2016-11-03 The Routledge Handbook of Language and Metaphor provides a comprehensive overview of state of the art interdisciplinary research on metaphor and language and maps out future directions of research and practice in a variety of contexts in this field Metaphor II

Jean-Pierre Noppen,Edith Hols,1990-01-01 Metaphor though not now the scholarly mania it once was remains a topic of great interest in many disciplines albeit with interesting shifts in emphasis Warren Shibbes Metaphor An Annotated Bibliography and History Bloomington Ind 1971 recorded the initial interest Then Metaphor A Bibliography of Post 1970 Publications published by John Benjamins continued the record through the mania years up to 1985 when writings proliferated as metaphor was seen to be a fundamental category in human thought and language Five years later there is a need for a report on the newest thinking and tendencies in the field This need is fulfilled by Metaphor II which offers a comprehensive view of information which would otherwise remain scattered throughout a numbing plethora of resources including many sometimes hard to find publications from Eastern Europe Metaphor II systematically collects references of books articles and papers published between 1985 and May 1990 and includes for completeness corrections and additions to the earlier bibliographies Abstracts are given for many of the titles while four indices disciplines semantic fields metaphor theory and names multiply the number of access points to the information On Metaphoring Wu,2022-05-20 On Metaphoring engages in a metaphor way to communicate and inter learn among cultures Bundle A describes how metaphor bundles things similar into a group called a notion a category etc How does metaphor bundle things It familiarizes strange things with things that are familiar to enrich old familiar things with new things newly made familiar Such metaphoric bundling creates a new family of knowledge In this order Bundle B characterizes metaphor as the origin of thinking fit as a highway of intercultural communication where there is no shared way of thinking for each culture is a specific way of thinking Bundle C shows how effective metaphor is in interculturally handling various problems of life and thinking How metaphor works to interculture exhibits in fact what metaphor is Such is how cultures understand one another a cultural hermetic Rhetorical Criticism Sonja K. Foss,2025-07-28 This transformative text has taught the lively art of rhetorical criticism to thousands of readers becoming a revered standard With an unparalleled talent for distilling sophisticated rhetorical concepts and processes Sonja Foss provides an engagingly written practical guide delineating ten methods of doing rhetorical criticism Clear instructions describe the process for systematic investigation of symbolic acts and artifacts and the necessary ingredients for well reasoned explanations and analysis Accessible sample essays illustrate each method and the same artifact is analyzed for nine of the methods to reveal the nuances and applicability of different approaches A deep understanding of rhetorical criticism equips readers to be engaged and active participants in shaping the nature of the world in which they live A chapter on feminist criticism features the disruption of conventional ideologies and practices The chapter on narrative criticism highlights storytelling in the digital world The emphasis on inquiry is invaluable for filtering meaning out of the communication encountered daily for example questions to ask processes to employ for interpretation assumptions to identify Understanding rhetoric helps readers judge the effectiveness accuracy and impact of symbols

Training Readers and Writers for a Multimodal and Multimedia Society: Cognitive Aspects Ester Trigo-Ibanez, Inmaculada Clotilde Santos Diaz, Marcela Jarpa, 2024-02-07 Contemporary societies have been advancing gradually towards the construction of a model of a literate population Significant efforts have been made so that most citizens can access various sources today using their reading and writing abilities but are we really prepared to face the information age Is information literacy being promoted from schools Are individual capabilities being considered Do we have a true critical literacy This article collection aims to show an overview of the most recent research ranging from the individual to the collective from the subject's competencies and their beliefs to the way to develop them from school There is room in this Research Topic for investigations belonging to the linguistic psychological and didactic field This Research Topic aims to address a pressing problem in contemporary world societies It is proposed to offer various contributions related to critical literacy in general and reading and writing In this sense research that addresses analog and digital reading writing processes academic literacy and the use of resources such as non fiction illustrated books to develop critical thinking will be welcome But also and in a very important way the cognitive processes of the subject will be considered not only to deal with access to information but also in the construction of their mental lexicon an issue that offers the vision of the world of those who are immersed in literacy and in the post truth era

Metaphors: Figures of the Mind Z. Radman, 1996-12-31 This book deals with various aspects of metaphors and yet it is not only or perhaps not even primarily about metaphor itself Rather it is concerned with the argument from metaphor In other words it is about what I think we can learn from metaphor and the possible consequences of this lesson for a more adequate understanding for instance of our mental processes the possibilities and limitations of our reasoning the strictures of propositionality the cognitive effect of fictional projections and so on In this sense it is not strictly speaking a contribution to metaphorology instead it is an attempt to define the place of metaphor in the world of overall human intellectual activity exemplary thematized here in the span that ranges from problems relating to the articulation of meanings up to general issues of creativity Most of the aspects discussed therefore are examined not so much for the sake of gaining some new knowledge about metaphor work conducted in the science of metaphor is presently so huge that an extra attempt to spell out another theory of metaphor may have an inflationary effect the basic strategy of this book is to view metaphor within the complex of language usage and language competence in human thought and action and finally to see in what philosophically relevant way it improves our knowledge of ourselves Certainly by adopting this basic strategy we also simultaneously increase our knowledge of metaphors of their functions and importance
