Terror In Paradise:

Terror in Paradise Jim Kent, 1971 Cinematic Terror Tony Shaw, 2014-11-20 Cinematic Terror takes a uniquely long view of filmmakers depiction of terrorism examining how cinema has been a site of intense conflict between paramilitaries state authorities and censors for well over a century In the process it takes us on a journey from the first Age of Terror that helped trigger World War One to the Global War on Terror that divides countries and families today Tony Shaw looks beyond Hollywood to pinpoint important trends in the ways that film industries across Europe North and South America Asia Africa and the Middle East have defined terrorism down the decades Drawing on a vast array of studio archives government documentation personal interviews and box office records Shaw examines the mechanics of cinematic terrorism and challenges assumptions about the links between political violence and propaganda The End of the World Ezekiel George Love, 2001-04-02 The End of the World is about the end It tells and develops a trail of two children growing up before and after the Civil war The struggle agony death and non sensitivity which they experienced as children shook the lives of the entire Beaver Creek South Carolina community One of the children lived in a slave shack and worked in the field The other lived in the mansion and performed work for the slave master However they realized that they both were slaves Through these experiences the meaning of the end of the world enters their thoughts These experiences and the continued life and death ordeals puzzled little Anne and Raymond Before you have completed the very first chapter your mind will never be the same This book touches the inner feelings of all mankind It ignites that strong feeling of not giving up and having faith through courage So seek think judge and ponder The End of the World To all mankind remains a substance out front in the wild blue yonder The Globalization of Terror Yoram Schweitzer, Shaul Shay, 2009-06-01 The terrorist destruction of the World Trade Center on September 11 2001 was the climax of a course plotted by Osama Bin Laden to bring about his apocalyptic vision of a decisive clash between the Western and Moslem worlds This timely volume details the the organizational workings and belief system of Bin Laden s brutal campaign The authors explore the background and objectives of the attacks the elaborate planning that went into them and the process of their practical execution In addition to its factual account The Globalization of Terror makes a significant contribution to scholarly and theoretical research dealing with international terror The book offers a unique analysis of the Afghan alumni who had previously fought the Soviets in the 1980s within the overall tapestry related to modern international terror The authors detail how their activities evolved from a movement of national self defense to the militant worldview identified with radical Islam The book reveals as well the organizational structure so carefully erected by Bin Laden and his associates in order to realize the vision of a worldwide Islamic Caliphate in practical terms The book is intended to work as a set of guidelines for newcomers to the world of international terrorism including anti terror task forces heads of security companies as well as professionals in the field The importance of The Globalization of Terror lies in its clear presentation and precise analysis regarding the dimensions of the danger international terror poses to the free world and in its recommendations for the necessary strategy to prevent the recurrence of acts of large scale terror

Warrant for Terror Shmuel Bar, 2008-06-13 Since September 11 2001 much has been written about Islamist terrorism arguing that it is a perversion that has hijacked Islam in the service of social political and economic grievances However such accounts cannot explain why other people that can lay claim to similar or more serious grievances have not developed such devastating religious terrorist ideologies Moreover many of the terrorists themselves have attested to their own religious motivation and their belief that they acted in accordance with the precepts of Islam In Warrant for Terror Shmuel Bar examines fatwas legal opinions declaring whether a given act under Islam is obligatory permitted or forbidden Fatwas serve as a major instrument by which religious leaders impel believers to engage in acts of jihad Bar argues that fatwas particularly those that come from the Arab world should not be dismissed as a cynical use of religious terminology in political propaganda Many terrorists testify that they were motivated to act by them Indeed this book shows that Islamic law plays a central role in determining for believers the practical meaning of the duty to jihad Bar examines the underlying religious legal and moral logic of fatwas and the depth of their influence particularly in contrast to alternative moderate Islamic interpretations He explores the wide scope of issues that fatwas deal with covering almost all facets of Islamic law of war the justification for declaring jihad the territory in which the jihad should be fought whether women and children may participate in jihad the legality of killing women children and other non combatants the justification for killing hostages and mutilating their bodies and the permissibility of diverse tactics and weapons including suicide attacks and even nuclear weapons and other weapons of mass destruction Warrant for Terror also delves into the contradictions between the radical and the mainstream narratives and the sources of the weakness of the latter in the face of the former In the conclusion the author raises a number of provocative questions relating to the religious policy of the West in the face of the threat of Islamic extremism This book is published in cooperation with the Hoover Institution

Sacred Terror Daniel E. Price, 2012-07-19 This book places the current wave of religion based terrorism in a historical perspective explaining why religion is associated with terrorism comparing religion based terrorism to other forms of terrorism and documenting how religion based terrorism is a product of powerful political socioeconomic and psychological forces Religion based terrorism is perceived as one of the most significant threats to U S homeland security in the 21st century Sacred Terror How Faith Becomes Lethal makes the central argument that religion based violence and terrorism is primarily a result of political socioeconomic and psychological forces thereby demystifying religion based terrorism and revealing its inherent similarity to other forms of terrorism and war Daniel Price examines religious texts and traditions in Judaism Christianity and Islam looks at the history of religion based terrorism and explores why religion facilitates violence He builds upon this foundation to explain how religion as an ideological force that motivates violence is not as powerful as commonly believed and that religious fervor is not unlike other non religious ideologies such as Marxism nationalism and anarchism The work also presents in depth analysis of the political socioeconomic and psychological forces that are behind religion based violence and discusses case studies from multiple religions that illustrate the author s argument Utopia and Terror in Contemporary American Fiction Judie Newman,2014-07-17 This book examines the quest for failure of Utopia across a range of contemporary American transnational fictions in relation to terror and globalization through authors such as Susan Choi Andr Dubus Dalia Sofer and John Updike While recent critical thinkers have reengaged with Utopia the possibility of terror whether state or non state external or homegrown shadows Utopian imaginings Terror and Utopia are linked in fiction through the exploration of the commodification of affect a phenomenon of a globalized world in which feelings are managed homogenized across cultures exaggerated or expunged according to a dominant model Narrative approaches to the terrorist offer a means to investigate the ways in which fiction can resist commodification of affect and maintain a reasoned but imaginative vision of possibilities for human community Newman explores topics such as the first American bestseller with a Muslim protagonist the links between writer and terrorist the work of Iranian Jewish Americans and the relation of race and religion to Utopian thought Life John Ames Mitchell,1886 Everybody for Everybody: Truth, Oneness, Good and and Beauty for Everyone's Life, Liberty and Pursuit of Happiness Volume 1 Samuel A. Lee Morrissey,2022-08-25 Upending conventional scholarship on Milton and modernity Lee Morrissey recasts Paradise Lost Paradise Regained and Samson Agonistes as narrating three alternative responses to a world in upheaval adjustment avoidance and antagonism Through incisive engagement with narrative form and genre Morrissey shows how each work considered specifically as a fiction grapples with the vicissitudes of a modern world characterised more by paradoxes ambiguities subversions and shifting temporalities than by any rigid historical periodization The interpretations made possible by this book are as invaluable as they are counterintuitive opening new definitions and stimulating avenues of research for Milton students and specialists as well as for those working in the broader field of early modern studies Morrissey invites us to rethink where Milton stands in relation to the greatest products of modernity and in particular to that most modern of genres the novel Forbidden Aesthetics, Ethical Justice, and Terror in Modern Western Culture

Emmanouil Aretoulakis,2016-05-19 Forbidden Aesthetics Ethical Justice and Terror in Modern Western Culture explores the potential links between terror and aesthetics in modern Western society specifically the affinity between terrorism and the possibility of an aesthetic appreciation of terrorist phenomena or events But can we actually have an aesthetic appreciation of terror or terrorism And if we can is it ethical or legitimate Emmanouil Aretoulakis proposes that Western spectators and subjects from the eighteenth century onwards have always felt unconsciously or not a certain kind of fascination or even exhilaration before scenes of tragedy and natural or manmade disaster Owing to their immorality such forbidden feelings go unacknowledged It would definitely be callous as well as politically incorrect to acknowledge the existence of aesthetics in witnessing or representing human misery Still as Aretoulakis insists our aesthetic faculties or even our appreciation of the beautiful are already inherent in how we view appraise and pass judgment upon phenomena of terrorism and disaster Paradoxically such a forbidden aesthetics is ethical despite its utter immorality

Bridging Sonic Borders Sharina Maíllo-Pozo, 2025 In Bridging Sonic Borders Sharina Maíllo Pozo focuses on the intersections between Dominican Caribbean Afro diasporic and U S American popular music genres hip hop African American jazz blues pop and rock different types of merengue and literature by authors from different generations who write within the Dominican Republic and the many diasporic spaces of New York in Spanish English and Dominicanish a mixture of English and Dominican Spanish She dubs novels such as La guaracha del Macho Camacho by Luis Rafael Sánchez 1976 as the beginning of a subgenre of sonic literary texts that broke away from a long literary tradition in the Dominican Republic under the dictatorship of Rafael Trujillo that valorized Hispanophilia heteronormativity and nation building In this study she examines how migrations and these cultural interactions re imagine identity with music as a space to think about sound and the uses and absence at times of it The use and description of music in literature of the Spanish speaking Caribbean and the Dominican Republic in particular from the 1970s onwards deeply shaped new aesthetics and self expression and it developed a new interest in publishing Caribbean authors in the U S For Maíllo Pozo music in these texts becomes a way of exploring memory and nostalgia and a way of situating people in specific spaces while also drawing on a longing for home after immigration These novels and memoirs were also a place to re center people who are often invisible the working class those of African descent rural and queer people She moves on to consider literary work in the 1990s and early 2000s that focused on figures such as the iconic rock musician Luis Tena life and music as a way of thinking about the in between identity of being both Dominican and a New Yorker Memoir and fictional writing by Afro Dominican New York Latinas are also a way to explore how the early foundational years of hip hop in New York were a place of freedom and invention while not ignoring the fact that it could also be a place of racialized disenfranchisement for people from many different parts of the Dominican diaspora in the city

Terror's Aftermath Daniel McEnnis, 2015-09-16 Terror's Aftermath describes the United States post Bush administration as over a dozen power groups vie for control and influence woven through a memoir of the author The only given is that no one is really in control Terror's Aftermath Silicon Valley Gracenote starts with the author starting at Gracenote with help from the Traditional Military Faction in California in June 2011 escaping the Men in Black faction in Ohio The author disillusioned after the past two years is in a truce with the Neoconservative Military Faction but the Men in Black Faction are ignoring it The intrigue intensifies when the Neoconservative Military escalate the conflict in June 2012 to fire the author breaking the truce leading to heightened espionage and faction warfare for another 11 months when the author is finally fired from

Gracenote Walled Life Jenny Stümer, 2022-02-24 Going beyond a discussion of political architecture Walled Life investigates the mediation of material and imagined border walls through cinema and art practices The book reads political walls as more than physical obstruction instead treating the wall as an affective screen capable of negotiating the messy feelings personal conflicts and haunting legacies that make up walled life as an evolving signpost in the current global border regime By exploring the wall as an emotional and visceral presence the book shows that if we read political walls as forms of affective media they become legible not simply as shields impositions or monuments but as projective surfaces that negotiate the interaction of psychological barriers with political structures through cinema art and of course the wall itself Drawing on the Berlin Wall the West Bank Separation barrier and the U S Mexico border Walled Life discovers each wall through the films and artworks it has inspired examining a wide array of graffiti murals art installations movies photography and paintings Remediating the silent barriers we erect between and often within ourselves these interventions tell us about the political fantasies and traumatic histories that undergird the politics of walls as they rework the affective settings of political boundaries

Freudianism Valentin Voloshinov, 2014-07-08 Freudianism is a major icon in the history of ideas independently rich and suggestive today both for psychoanalysis and for theories of language It offers critical insights whose recognition demands a change in the manner in which the fundamental principles of both psychoanalysis and linguistic theory are understood Voloshinov went to the root of Freud's theory and method arguing that what is for him the central concept of psychoanalysis the unconscious was a fiction He argued that the phenomena that were taken by Freud as evidence for the unconscious constituted instead an aspect of the conscious albeit one with a person's official conscious For Voloshinov the conscious was a monologue a use of language inner speech as he called it As such the conscious participated in all of the properties of language particularly for Voloshinov its social essence This type of argumentation stood behind Voloshinov's charge that Freudianism presented humans in an inherently false individualistic asocial and ahistorical setting

Shooting Terror Meenakshi Bharat, 2020-02-20 Shooting Terror highlights the disturbing immediacy of acts of terror and how cinema responds to them It follows the changing representations of terrorism in Hindi cinema by fielding in depth textual analyses of films such as Roja Maachis Black Friday Tere Bin Laden Uri The Surgical Strike among others It traces how terror and the terrorist have come to be viewed in the Indian cultural space and lays the grounds for a multivalent perspectival reading of cinema and terrorism Moving from the threat of terror condensed in the Mogambo-esque villain in Mr India to the showcasing of terror and the terrorist in their lived-in realities in Haider and Shahid the book explores the fraught connections between terror and the themes of devastation and trauma between terror and the urban cityscape It also seeks to highlight the place of humour and satire in films on terrorism and the presence of the reactionary far right in these films One of the first books to present a composite picture of terrorism in contemporary Hindi cinema this volume will be of interest to researchers and academics of cultural studies media and film studies and the study of sociopsychological violence in media and culture Videhound's Golden Movie Retriever Jim Craddock,2006 Describes and rates more than twenty thousand videos and provides indexes by theme awards actors actresses and directors

Sacred Suicide Carole M. Cusack,2016-04-08 The label Suicide Cults has been applied to a wide variety of different alternative religions from Jonestown to the Solar Temple to Heaven s Gate Additionally observers have asked if such group suicides are in any way comparable to Islamist suicide terrorism or to historical incidents of mass suicide such as the mass suicide of the ancient community of Masada Organizationally and ideologically diverse it turns out that the primary shared trait of these various groups is a common stereotype of religion as an irrational force that pushes fanatics to undertake acts of suicidal violence Offering a valuable perspective on New Religious Movements and on religion and violence Sacred Suicide brings together contributions from a diverse range of international scholars of sociology religious studies and criminology

Atlantic Circulations Edward Holberton,2025-04-02 Atlantic Circulations investigates literary conversations about empire in the British Atlantic world c 1650 1750 Reading texts by Anne Bradstreet John Milton Daniel Defoe and Benjamin Franklin as well as writing by overlooked authors who deserve more attention such as the Quaker anti slavery activist Benjamin Lay and the Black classicist Francis Williams it asks how literary culture interacted with transatlantic debates about law enslavement economics and religious freedom This study explores the relationship between literature and empire by joining up disciplinary areas Early Modern English Literature and Early American Literature which are often considered apart It develops insights and analytical frameworks from recent British and Atlantic World history to argue that the transatlantic reception of literary texts was often shaped by archipelagic dynamics political and religious tensions between and within England and Wales and Scotland and Ireland Atlantic Circulations examines several previously unknown manuscripts and archives which throw new light on the circulation of literary texts in colonial culture and reconstructs key Anglophone transatlantic cultural debates during a crucial phase of European expansion in the Atlantic world This book will appeal to advanced students and academic researchers of early modern and eighteenth century English literature and British cultural history especially readers with an interest in literature s relationships with empire colonialism and travel and scholars of early American literature and history
