Gedney, Lisa Noeli, 2005 The ballroom is the perfect setting for romance as seductively handsome rogues dance away with women's hearts in this delightful trio of Regency novellas Original American Magazine, 1924 American Illustrated Magazine, 1927 An Anthropology of War Alisse Waterston, 2009 The contributors reflect on their ethnographic work at the frontlines and recount not only what they have seen and heard in war zones but also what is being read, studied, analyzed and remembered in such diverse locations as Colombia and Guatemala, Israel and Palestine, Iraq, Afghanistan and Haiti. They reflect on the important issue of accountability and offer explanations to discern causes, patterns and practices of war. Black Man in the Netherlands Francio Guadeloupe, 2022-01-04 Francio Guadeloupe has lived in both the Dutch Antilles and the Netherlands. An anthropologist by vocation, he is a keen observer by honed habit. In his new book, he wields both personal and anthropological observations. Simultaneously memoir and astute exploration, Black Man in the Netherlands charts Guadeloupe's coming of age and adulthood in a Dutch world and movingly makes a global contribution to the understanding of anti-Black racism. Guadeloupe identifies the intersections among urban popular culture, racism and multiculturalism in youth culture in the Netherlands and the wider Dutch Kingdom. He probes the degrees to which traditional ethnic division collapses before a rising Dutch polyethnicity. What comes to light given the ethnic multiplicity that Afro-Antilleans live is their extraordinarily successful work in forging an anti-racist Dutch identity via urban popular culture. This alternative way of being Dutch welcomes the Black experience as global and increasingly local. Black artists find fame and even idolization. Black Man in the Netherlands is a vivid extension of renowned critical race studies by such Marxist theorists as Achille Mbembe, Paul Gilroy, Stuart Hall and C. L. R. James, and it bears a palpable connection to such Black Atlantic artists as Peter Tosh, Juan Luis Guerra and KRS-One. Guadeloupe explores the complexities of Black life in the Netherlands and shows that within their means Afro-Antilleans often effectively contest Dutch racism in civic and work life.

Confirmation Hearings for the Department of Justice United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on the Judiciary, 1995

How Did I Get Here? Michele Greene, 2012-05 A young girl growing up between two households that of her grandmother and her stepfather. She experiences sexual abuse at one and witnesses domestic abuse at the other. As she becomes a young woman branching out on her own, she searches for a better life. Freeing herself of the sexual abuse and hoping to find love. Her path is filled with heartbreak, betrayal, danger and disappointments. Ordering the City Nicole Stelle Garnett, 2010-01-01 This work highlights the multiple, often overlooked and frequently misunderstood connections between land use and development policies and policing practices. In order to do so, the book draws upon multiple literatures as well as concrete case studies to better explore how these policy arenas intersect and conflict. The Great Neighborhood Book Jay Walljasper, Project for Public Spaces (PPS), 2007-06-01 Abandoned lots and litter strewn pathways or rows of green beans and pockets of wildflowers. Graffiti marked walls and desolate bus stops or shady refuges and comfortable seating. What transforms a dingy inhospitable area into a dynamic gathering place? How do individuals take back their neighborhood?

Neighborhoods decline when the people who live there lose their connection and no longer feel part of their community. Recapturing that sense of belonging and pride of place can be as simple as planting a civic garden or placing some benches in a park. The Great Neighborhood Book explains how most struggling communities can be revived not by vast infusions of cash not by government but by the people who live there. The author addresses such challenges as traffic control, crime, comfort and safety, and developing economic vitality. Using a technique called placemaking, the process of transforming public space, this exciting guide offers inspiring real life examples that show the magic that happens when individuals take small steps and motivate others to make change. This book will motivate not only neighborhood activists and concerned citizens but also urban planners, developers, and policy makers. Four Flags, The Odyssey of a Professional Soldier Dave Barr, 2015-12-19

Dave Barr had had a penchant for trouble since day one, born in the back of a car shooting by the time he was five, riding a motorbike at seven. Dave regularly got into fights at school. The only reading Dave would do growing up involved motorbikes, shooting westerns, and the military. After reading Battle Cry by Leon Uris, aged 12, he knew he wanted to be a Marine. Following a series of menial jobs working at a barbers and in service stations, at 17 he joined the Marines before shipping out to Vietnam. This was his dream come true. Flying as a helicopter gunner, he ended the war with an impressive 57 Air Medals. After leaving the Marines, like many veterans, Dave found it hard to hold down a good job and stay out of trouble. It was then that he read about Israel. Always looking for a rush, Dave learnt to skydive before he decided to take his chances, emigrating illegally to Israel. He was inducted into the Israeli Army and then the Paratroops where the training was difficult, involving long, tough marches and learning Hebrew. After serving his time, he left Israel back in the USA. Dave was stuck in a rut and ready for his next adventure. This is the first volume in the gripping and action-packed memoirs of Dave Barr, providing a rich and colorful account of one man's odyssey as a professional soldier seeing war at the sharp end.
