MABUSE (1963). , The Testament of Dr. Mabuse (Klingler, 1962). , The Voice in Cinema Michel Chion, 1999 Chion analyzes imaginative uses of the human voice by directors like Lang Hitchcock Ophüls Duras and de Palma , German Film Deutsche Kinemathek - Museum für Film und Fernsehen, 2024-10-23 Comprehensive German film history German Film From the Archives of the Deutsche Kinemathek offers a captivating journey through the history of German cinema from the earliest moving images of 1895 to the present day This richly illustrated volume opens the Deutsche Kinemathek's archives illuminating the artistic technical political and social developments that have shaped German film In twelve chapters over 420 essays tell the stories of both celebrated and lesser known films paying tribute to the creativity of the many personalities who continue to shape German cinema Featuring more than 2 700 items from unpublished photographs to historic film posters the book provides a unique look into a vital cultural heritage The Deutsche Kinemathek one of the world's leading institutions for preserving audiovisual history safeguards this piece of German film legacy for future generations A must have for film enthusiasts history buffs and fans of German cinema From the archives of the Deutsche Kinemathek A thoughtfully edited and beautifully produced heavyweight The standard reference on German film history The DEUTSCHE KINEMATHEK is one of the world's leading institutions for the collection preservation and presentation of audio visual heritage Hundreds of thousands of objects are permanently preserved in its archives and are available for research into film and television history In addition to scripts photos posters costumes and designs the collection also includes film equipment The Kinemathek curates film series and exhibitions and restores and digitizes films Its diverse activities including installations publications educational formats and conferences encourage visitors to discover the world of moving images The Magic Hour J. Hoberman, 2003 The magic hour is the name film makers give the pre dusk late afternoon when anything photographed can be bathed in a melancholy golden light This work anthologizes J Hoberman's movie reviews cultural criticism and political essays published in The Village Voice Artforum and elsewhere during the period bracketed by the fall of the Berlin Wall and the collapse of the World Trade Towers The Secrets of Law Austin Sarat, Lawrence Douglas, Martha Merrill Umphrey, 2012-10-31 The Secrets of Law explores the ways law both traffics in and regulates secrecy Taking a close look at the opacity built into legal and governance processes it explores the ways law produces zones of secrecy the relation between secrecy and justice and how we understand the inscrutability of law's processes The first half of the work examines the role of secrecy in contemporary political and legal practices including the question of transparency in democratic processes during the Bush Administration the principle of public justice in England's response to the war on terror and the evidentiary law of spousal privilege The second half of the book explores legal literary and filmic representations of secrets in law focusing on how knowledge about particular cases and crimes is often rendered opaque to those attempting to access and decode the information Those invested in transparency must ultimately cultivate a capacity to read between the lines decode the illegible and acknowledge both the virtues and dangers of the unknowable

The Bipolar Express David Coleman, 2014-07-08 In the past few decades awareness of bipolar disorder has significantly increased but understanding of the condition remains vague for most of the general public Though the term itself is relatively recent the condition has affected individuals for centuries and no more profoundly than in the arts The historical connections among manic depression and such fields as literature music and painting have been previously documented However the impact of bipolar disorder on movie makers and its depiction on the screen has yet to be thoroughly examined In The Bipolar Express Manic Depression and the Movies David Coleman provides an in depth examination of the entwined natures of mood disorders and moviemaking In this volume Coleman looks at the writers directors and actors who have faced the mood swings and behavior that are hallmarks of this condition from Greta Garbo and Orson Welles to Marilyn Monroe and Jonathan Winters In addition to recognizing the cinematic contributions of manic depressive filmmakers the author also looks at movies that have portrayed bipolar disorder with varying degrees of accuracy including Citizen Kane Rebel without a Cause Breakfast at Tiffany's Hannah and Her Sisters The Aviator and Silver Linings Playbook From early silents of the twentieth century through critically acclaimed films of today this book compares depictions of mood swings on screen with clinical examples of actual manic depression carefully distinguishing real from stereotypical portrayals This fascinating study is augmented by a concise filmography of more than 400 feature length films from around the world with themes or characters relating to manic depressive illness Though aimed at film fans and anyone interested in manic depression mental illness or related medical studies this book will also prove valuable to medical and mental health professionals
