meaningful relationships The Thinking Space Leona Rittner, W. Scott Haine, 2016-03-03 The cafe is not only a place to enjoy a cup of coffee it is also a space distinct from its urban environment in which to reflect and take part in intellectual debate Since the eighteenth century in Europe intellectuals and artists have gathered in cafes to exchange ideas inspirations and information that has driven the cultural agenda for Europe and the world Without the caf would there have been a Karl Marx or a Jean Paul Sartre The caf as an institutional site has been the subject of renewed interest amongst scholars in the past decade and its role in the development of art ideas and culture has been explored in some detail However few have investigated the ways in which caf s create a cultural and intellectual space which brings together multiple influences and intellectual practices and shapes the urban settings of which they are a part This volume presents an international group of scholars who consider caf s as sites of intellectual discourse from across Europe during the long modern period Drawing on literary theory history cultural studies and urban studies the contributors explore the ways in which cafes have functioned and evolved at crucial moments in the histories of important cities and countries notably Paris Vienna and Italy Choosing these sites allows readers to understand both the local particularities of each caf while also seeing the larger cultural connections between these places By revealing how the caf operated as a unique cultural context within the urban setting this volume demonstrates how space and ideas are connected As our global society becomes more focused on creativity and mobility the intellectual caf s of past generations can also serve as inspiration for contemporary and future knowledge workers who will expand and develop this tradition of using and thinking in space New Perspectives on Sartre Adrian van den Hoven, Adrian Mirvish, 2010-05-11 This volume deals with a number of topics that have not previously been specifically addressed before in a single text A chapter on Sartre and religion talks about his thought in relation to Christianity Judaism and Buddhism while one on Sartre and children discusses his work in relation to the issues of freedom pregnancy and autism Beyond this there are an additional seven chapters covering a wide variety of topics by leading scholars in the fields of philosophy literature psychology history and political thought While prior publications on Sartre have generally divided his work into two periods pre and post Marxist this volume deliberately stresses a middle and final period as well As representative of the middle period there is an emphasis on Notebooks for an Ethics while Sartre s last work Hope Now is also treated as being philosophically significant in its own right This approach helps to cast a new light on what Sartre has to say about authenticity childhood and consciousness as embodied among other subjects The volume also addresses many and diverse issues of current interest including those of freedom Marxism and Sartre s relation to ethics There are sections of the book that deal with history and the historical situations that helped to shape Sartre s thought as well as articles that deal with Sartre as a specifically French thinker A chapter deals with Sartre s relation to women and here the issues of maternity as problematic plus authentic adult relationships are discussed Finally in addition to authors in philosophy and literature there are articles by a child psychiatrist and a clinical psychologist to help to provide new insights on Sartre's work. Even as an academic philosopher, Sartre always remained an iconoclast and the aim of this book is at least partially to capture and provide the reader with insight into this spirit. By The Book: A reader's guide to life Ramona Koval, 2012-10-24. By the Book is Ramona Koval's love letter to books and writing. What is it about reading that we love so much? Why do books make our lives so much richer? By the Book is about reading and living and about the authors that have written themselves into her life from Oliver Sacks to Oscar Wilde, Christina Stead to Grace Paley. It is about learning to read and asking her mother to buy her a copy of the Kama Sutra about love and science and her childhood ambition to be Marie Curie about arctic exploration and her ruminations on what part of a husky she would eat if she had to about poetry and travel and falling in love. In our book-devouring nation, this is a book for every avid reader and every avid listener who has been spellbound by Ramona's interviews over the years. By the Book is quintessentially Ramona: warm, bright, erudite, unmissable. Ramona Koval is a writer, journalist, and broadcaster. She is the editor of Best Australian Essays and was the presenter of ABC Radio National's The Book Show for many years. She now interviews writers for The Monthly's online book club textpublishing.com.au. After 16 years as the host of Australian Broadcasting Corporation's The Book Show, Koval has a knack for conveying the essence of a book without spoiling it. She also recounts key exchanges with interviewees as diverse as Grace Paley, Oliver Sacks, and Paul Theroux starred review. Shelf Awareness: By the Book takes us on intriguing journeys through books. The excitement with which Koval still approaches each new book, plunging in head first, heart deep, furnishes the last words of this urbane and enlightening work of her own. Weekend Australian: By the Book is a reminder of the role books can play in our lives. If you celebrate their contribution and appreciate their influence and artistry, then this is a story you will want to treasure. I certainly do. Weekly Review: A love letter to the act of reading, an ideal read for any bibliophile. Her tone is warm and inviting, just a touch short of wry, genuine and infectious. Readings Monthly: She's a shining presence in the world of literature here in Australia and right across the globe. The book reads smoothly; it flows along from mood to mood, full of wit and beauty and grace. Her voice is always recognisable, invigorating, familiar to us and greatly loved: the voice of a highly literate woman. Helen Garner: As keen readers know, a book is more than an ordered pile of paper and cardboard; or these days, a collection of e-reader pixels. A companion, a refuge, a happy distraction, a gift to share, it can be all or any of these things plus a bookmark of important times of one's life. The wise and warm Ramona Koval has written a literary memoir which focuses on this last quality: the books that marked and made her from childhood through teens, student years to adulthood. Australian Women's Weekly: An irresistible study of the symbiotic relationship for the bookish between life and books. The voice is easily recognisable as the one we know from Koval's decades in radio: generous, warm, and fearless. Kerryn Goldsworthy Australian Book Review: The last chapters of By the Book reveal the quality of mind that made Ramona Koval such a brilliant interviewer as much at home with scientists and travel writers as with novelists and poets. Brenda Niall Age: Koval's enthusiasm bubbles from the page. It confirms the erudite and talented Koval is a treasure whose voice is sorely

Jealousy: A Forbidden Passion Giulia Sissa,2017-11-10 Amorous jealousy is not a monster as Shakespeare s venomous Iago claims It is neither prickly and bitter fancy nor a cruel and mean passion nor yet a symptom of feeble self esteem All those who have experienced its wounds are well aware that it is not callous nasty delusional and ridiculous It is just painful Yet for centuries moralists have poured scorn and contempt on a feeling that in their view we should fight in every possible way It is allegedly a disease to be treated a moral vice to be eradicated an ugly pre modern illiberal proprietary emotion to be overcome Above all no one should ever admit to being jealous So should we silence this embarrassing sentiment Or should we like the heroines of Greek tragedy see it as a fundamental human demand for reciprocity in love By examining its cultural history from the ancient Greeks to La Rochefoucauld Hobbes Kant Stendhal Freud Beauvoir Sartre and Lacan this book demonstrates how jealousy far from being a green eyed fiend reveals the intense and apprehensive nature of all erotic love which is the desire to be desired We should never be ashamed to love
