Text and Context Claire J. Kramsch, Sally McConnell-Ginet, 1992 The papers in this volume stemming from the Fourth Annual conference of the Consortium for Language Teaching and Learning explore the relationships between form and meaning in language use Text and Context Claire Kramsch, Sally McConnell-Ginet, 1992 Fossilization in Adult Second Language Acquisition ZhaoHong Han, 2004-03-16 This book is a systematic attempt to address the issue of fossilization in relation to a fundamental question in second language acquisition research which is why are learners adults in particular unable to develop the level of competence they have aspired to in spite of continuous and sustained exposure to the target language adequate motivation to learn and sufficient opportunity to practice Cross-Cultural Interaction: Concepts, Methodologies, Tools, and Applications Management Association, Information Resources, 2014-01-31 In a globalized society individuals in business government and a variety of other fields must frequently communicate and work with individuals of different cultures and backgrounds Effectively bridging the culture gap is critical to success in such scenarios Cross Cultural Interaction Concepts Methodologies Tools and Applications explores contemporary research and historical perspectives on intercultural competencies and transnational organizations This three volume compilation will present a compendium of knowledge on cultural diversity and the impact this has on modern interpersonal interactions Within these pages a variety of researchers scholars professionals and leaders who interact regularly with the global society will find useful insight and fresh perspectives on the field of cross cultural interaction Applied Language Learning, 1994

Learner Contributions to Language Learning Michael Breen, 2014-09-15 Since it was first established in the 1970s the Applied Linguistics and Language Study series has become a major force in the study of practical problems in human communication and language education Drawing extensively on empirical research and theoretical work in linguistics sociology psychology and education the series explores key issues in language acquisition and language use What the learner contributes is central to the language learning process Learner Contributions to Language Learning provides a uniquely comprehensive account of learners personal attributes their thinking their feelings and their actions that have been shown to have an impact upon language learning Containing specific chapters from leading names in the field this book provides both a review of what has been discovered from previous research and identifies important future directions for research on learner contributions It is a landmark volume setting the agenda for language learning research in the 21st century and it provides invaluable information for all those engaged in language teaching The contributors to the volume are Michael P Breen Bonny Norton Anna Chamot Rebecca Oxford Rod Ellis Anna Pavlenko James P Lantolf Anita Wenden Diane Larsen Freeman Collaborative Writing in L2 Classrooms Neomy Storch, 2013-07-04 In this first book length treatment of collaborative writing in second language L2 classrooms Neomy Storch provides a theoretical pedagogical and empirical rationale for the use of collaborative writing activities in L2 classes as well as some guidelines about how to best implement such activities in both face to face and online mode The book discusses factors that may impact on the nature and outcomes of collaborative writing and examines the beliefs about language learning that underpin learners and teachers attitudes towards pair and group work The book critically reviews the available body of research on collaborative writing and identifies future research directions thereby encouraging researchers to continue investigating collaborative writing activities

Educating Immigrant Children Charles L. Glenn, Ester J. De Jong, 1996-08-01 This study is concerned with the ways in which a dozen knowledge based societies of Western Europe and the English speaking world respond to unprecedented cultural and linguistic diversity resulting from the flow of immigrants and refugees since World War II It asks how public policy has sought to use schooling to minimize the potentially divisive and inequitable effects of this diversity and to provide opportunities to the children of immigrants It asks also how the nature of each of these societies affects the meaning of integration into each of them

Content and Language Integrated Learning María Luisa Carrió-Pastor, 2009 The adoption of Content and Language Integrated Learning CLIL in Higher Education teaching has been widespread This learning strategy has developed the need to learn foreign languages and to communicate with people with different cultural backgrounds Culture learning should be part of language and content teaching as Higher Education involves language skills topic comprehension and sociological capabilities Teachers explore new teaching strategies which imply diverse goals and focus on different cultural backgrounds The contributions of this book comment the multicultural awareness of the students involved in learning another language and the facts implied in teaching in a multicultural environment

Ecology of Language Acquisition J.H. Leather, Jet van Dam, 2013-03-09 While most research on language acquisition continues to consider the individual primarily in closed system terms Ecology of Language Acquisition emphasizes the emergence of linguistic development through children s and learners interactions with their environment spatial social cultural educational and so on bringing to light commonalities between primary language development child and adult second language learning and language acquisition by robots Such a situated context responsive perspective on acquisition is able to interrelate insights from a variety of paradigms and disciplines while avoiding unjustifiable appeals to normativity The theoretical and empirical studies presented here challenge a number of dominant ideas in language acquisition theory and mark an important new research orientation This work should be of interest to language acquisition researchers and professionals in a wide range of specialisms

Second Language Acquisition Susan M. Gass, Jennifer Behney, Luke Plonsky, 2020-05-28 Now in a fifth edition this bestselling introductory textbook remains the cornerstone volume for the study of second language acquisition SLA Its chapters have been fully updated and reorganized where appropriate to provide a comprehensive yet accessible overview of the field and its related disciplines In order to reflect current developments new sections and expanded discussions have been added The fifth edition of Second Language Acquisition retains the features that students found useful in previous editions This edition provides pedagogical tools that encourage students to reflect upon the experiences of second language learners As with previous editions discussion questions and problems at the end of each chapter help students apply their knowledge and a glossary defines and reinforces must know terminology This clearly written comprehensive and current textbook by Susan Gass Jennifer Behney and Luke Plonsky is the ideal textbook for an introductory SLA course in second language studies applied linguistics linguistics TESOL and or language education programs This textbook is supported with a Companion Website containing instructor and student resources including PowerPoint slides exercises stroop tests flashcards audio and video links <https://routledge.textbooks.com/textbooks/9781138743427> Studies in Immersion Education Elaine Mellen Day, Stan Shapson, 1996 This book presents a unique collection of research studies on French Immersion conducted from the authors base as a research team in British Columbia Canada It serves as an important resource for educators and policymakers interested in the impact of immersion on educational policy student outcomes second language curriculum and teacher education Section I documents the authors experiences in developing a systematic approach to evaluation and assessment of French immersion programs Section II includes studies on important curricular and instructional considerations for immersion education and Section III addresses teacher education and professional development including in depth case studies of immersion teacher education programs and immersion teachers perspectives on their role and needs for support and improvement A final chapter contains concluding comments and future directions for immersion programs Immersion has grown significantly not only in Canada but also worldwide This collection of research studies will be informative to those involved in intensive second language education internationally BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved
