A Guide to Practicum and Internship for School

Counselors-in-Training Joel F. Diambra, 2011-01-19 School counseling is a rather specialized field yet students entering it do not have a single comprehensive resource to guide them through the process This text covers all aspects of the practicum and internship experience from the initial contact with your supervisor to detailed descriptions of each of the different roles you will have and will help you gain an understanding of the school culture and how to begin thinking about and developing your own philosophy of school counseling Specific topics covered include popular counseling theories used by school counselors working with special populations of students application of the ASCA ethical standards the administration of day to day tasks such as arranging an office space and managing your time and elements of the guidance curriculum including individual student planning responsive services and systemic support Each chapter contains activities case studies hypothetical situations and worksheets designed to facilitate your understanding of and role in the profession All material presented is consistent with both the CACREP accreditation standards and the American School Counseling Association's National Model

Evidence-Based School Counseling Greg Brigman, Elizabeth Villares, Linda Webb, 2017-10-05 Evidence Based School Counseling presents a unique method for training graduate students to become effective school counselors that is presented in a Tell Show Do Coach approach to instruction and reflective of ASCA CACREP and CAEP standards This method is based on three interrelated components a the ASCA National Model especially its Mindsets Behaviors for Student Success and its related student competencies b the extensive research base associated with social emotional learning SEL non cognitive factors and college career readiness and c evidence based programs tied to this research base and suited to school counselor implementation The text highlights how the new ASCA Mindsets Behaviors for Student Success have been modeled after this research base and provides resources for school counselors to find evidence based programs and interventions connected to this research Evidence Based School Counseling provides extensive practice and coaching so students can arrive at practicum and internship feeling confident and they can hit the ground running as they start their careers
