Judd E. Hollander

Territory The Classic Saga Of Australia's Far North:

The Territory Ernestine Hill, 1995 Timeless because it is history timelessly popular because it is so full of life colour and adventure This is the story of the first 100 years of white exploration pioneering and settlement in Australian tropic north

Intimacies of Violence in the Settler Colony Penelope Edmonds, Amanda Nettelbeck, 2018-05-25 Violence and intimacy were critically intertwined at all stages of the settler colonial encounter and yet we know surprisingly little of how they were connected in the shaping of colonial economies Extending a reading of economies as labour relations into new arenas this innovative collection of essays examines new understandings of the nexus between violence and intimacy in settler colonial economies of the British Pacific Rim The sites it explores include cross cultural exchange in sealing and maritime communities labour relations on the frontier inside the pastoral station and in the colonial home and the material and emotional economies of exploration Following the curious mobility of texts objects and frameworks of knowledge this volume teases out the diversity of ways in which violence and intimacy were expressed in the economies of everyday encounters on the ground In doing so it broadens the horizon of debate about the nature of colonial economies and the intercultural encounters that were enmeshed within them

The New A-Z of Empire C. Brad Faight, 2011-05-30 The British Empire especially in its late Victorian heyday spanned the world and linked a quarter of world's population to Britain through a shared official allegiance to the Crown In the long history of empires the British imperial state was among the most powerful ever and a major global player A New A Z of Empire catches the current burgeoning interest in empires and covers over 400 years of British imperial history from the founding of the East India Company in 1600 to the First and Second British Empires the time of High Empire following the War of American Independence the unprecedented expansion of the Scramble for Africa the development of Dominion Status and the history often turbulent of decolonization and the growth of Commonwealth The 400 plus entries include a rich panoply of individuals territories treaties politics the law diplomacy war and peace administration business and commerce exploration literature art literature and scholarship Readers will find a mine of fascinating factual information in concise form with expert historical assessment cross referencing between entries and suggestions for further reading The valuable time line is essential to pick through the long period of complex history and links to key web resources are provided A New A Z of Empire is an indispensable tool for the scholar and student and for the general reader interested in the rich history of the British Empire a story of obscure foundation leading to dominance over a huge swathe of the globe now represented by mere pinpricks on the world map

Damned if I do Philip Nitschke, Peter Corris, 2013-09-01 This is the revealing personal story of the man behind the controversial pro euthanasia movement told in his own words Medical doctor humanist author and founder director of Exit International Philip Nitschke's life has always been in the spotlight The book spans Philip's early days from his curious activist student days in Adelaide to working with Aboriginal land rights groups in Australia's Far North to his successful campaign to have euthanasia legalised in Australia and his assistance in four people ending their lives before the law was overturned It covers the controversy surrounding Philip's work including the banning in Australia of his international bestselling book The Peaceful Pill and disturbing reports that many young people overdosed on Nembutal the drug that Exit International recommends for suicide Ultimately Philip believes that the right to one's own death is as fundamental as the right to control one's own life It seems we demand humans to live with indignity pain and anguish whereas we are kinder to our pets when their suffering becomes too much

Writing Home Glenn Morrison, 2017-01-30 Writing Home explores the literary representation of Australian places by those who have walked them In particular it examines how Aboriginal and settler narratives of walking have shaped portrayals of Australia's Red Centre and consequently ideas of nation and belonging Central Australia has long been characterised as a frontier the supposed divide between black and white ancient and modern But persistently representing it in this way is preventing Australians from reimagining this internationally significant region as home Writing Home argues that the frontier no longer adequately describes Central Australia and that the Aboriginal songlines make a significant but under acknowledged contribution to Australian discourses of hybridity belonging and home Drawing on anthropology cultural theory journalism politics and philosophy the book traces shifting perceptions of Australian place and space since precolonial times through six recounted walking journeys of the Red Centre

The Evolution of Darwin, 1869-1911 Kathy De La Rue, 2004 This book traces the development of Darwin's social and physical history over the forty two years of South Australia's administration of the region Each chapter covers the term of office of the senior government officer in Darwin starting from Surveyor General George Woodroffe Goyder whose team of men surveyed the town site and the surrounding country in 1869 through all the Government Residents to Samuel James Mitchell who orchestrated the ceremony which marked the takeover of the Territory by the Commonwealth Government book cover

Waramingo's Boys and Other Stories Judith Lewis,2007-08 A BOLD WALKABOUT ACROSS THE LAND OF VISION IMAGINATION AND REALITY The stories in this book are a combination of my imagination vision and experiences and contacts writes storyteller Judith A Lewis about this compelling collection of 65 stories about the Australian Outback the Pacific India and traveling They came to me in vivid detail and I felt compelled to share these insights into a richer way of looking at our relationship to the Earth Her theme is the journey across landscapes through cultures or into the vivid realms of visionary experience Lewis writes evocatively about traveling in spirit and body across Aboriginal and cultural terrains from meeting kangaroo spirits to long lost fathers But she writes with equal insight and warmth about the enigmas of the heart its secrets joys aspirations and epiphanies A twelve year old girl survives an illness by communing with the waratah in bloom A traveler in Bombay is arrested by beauty amidst the frenetic urban haze Two twins separated in early childhood journey towards each other A homeless man constantly walks the highways to bury his past An Aboriginal medicine man named Waramingo meets the Dreamtime ancestors A lot of the visionary stories pertain to the land and its secrets and those who visit it from afar Lewis says I believe that the Earth is alive and awaiting our recognition as are the other dimensions that we all could inhabit I hope my stories help you remember what you already know that there is no separation that everything from stones to stars is part of us on this lovely planet Alaska Walter R. Borneman,2004-01-20 The history of Alaska is filled with stories of new land and new riches and ever present are new people with competing views over how the valuable resources should be used Russians exploiting a fur empire explorers checking rival advances prospectors stampeding to the clarion call of Gold soldiers battling out a decisive chapter in world war oil wildcatters looking for a different kind of mineral wealth and always at the core of these disputes is the question of how the land is to be used and by whom While some want Alaska to remain static others are in the vanguard of change Alaska Saga of a Bold Land shows that there are no easy answers on either side and that Alaska will always be crossing the next frontier
