Comaroff, Jean Comaroff, 1999 The essays in this important new collection explore the diverse unexpected and controversial ways in which the idea of civil society has recently entered into populist politics and public debate throughout Africa In a substantial introduction anthropologists Jean and John Comaroff offer a critical theoretical analysis of the nature and deployment of the concept and the current debates surrounding it Building on this framework the contributors investigate the problem of civil society across their regions of expertise which cover the continent Drawing creatively on one another's work they examine the impact of colonial ideology postcoloniality and development practice on discourses of civility the workings of everyday politics the construction of new modes of selfhood and the pursuit of moral community Incisive and original the book shows how struggles over civil society in Africa reveal much about larger historical forces in the post Cold War era It also makes a strong case for the contribution of historical anthropology to contemporary discourses on the rise of a new world order Jung and the Jungians on Myth Steven Walker, 2014-04-08 First Published in 2002 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Hunting Justice Maria Sapignoli, 2018-02-15 This book presents a long term study of the activist campaign that contested the Botswana government's much publicized removal of the San and Bakgalagadi people from the Central Kalahari Game Reserve Sapignoli's multiple points of observation and analysis range from rural Botswana to the nation's High Court and a variety of United Nations agencies in their Headquarters focusing on rights claimants and officials from NGOs states and the United Nations as they acted on the grievances of those who had been displaced In offering a comprehensive discussion of the San people and their claims making through formal institutions this book maintains a consistent focus on the increased recourse to law and the everyday experience of those who are asserting their rights in response to the encroachments of the state and the opportunities inherent in new indigenous advocacy networks Where Global Contradictions are Sharpest Keyan G. Tomaselli, 2005 The iconographic people The Bushmen or San of the Kalahari have been the subject of abundant social research over the years Keyan Tomaselli and his research team from the University of KwaZulu Natal reflect critically on the way the San have been represented He uncompromisingly and aptly illustrates the many ethical contradictions in doing fieldwork among the San

Beautiful Country Alan McGlashan, 1988 Alan McGlashan presents a sensitive view of the modern world and of time of our memories and forgetfulness joys and sorrows He takes the reader on a safari into regions that are strange and yet familiar into the savage and beautiful country of the mind No cures are offered but we are provoked to reflect on our roles and attitudes in the contemporary world jungle Namibia's Red Line G. Miescher, 2012-06-18 Based on archival sources and oral history this book reconstructs a border building process in Namibia that spanned more than sixty years The process commenced with the establishment of a temporary veterinary defence line against rinderpest by the German colonial authorities in the late nineteenth century and ended with the construction of a continuous two metre high fence by the South African colonial government sixty years later This 1250 kilometre fence divides northern from central Namibia even today The book combines a macro and a micro perspective and differentiates between cartographic and physical reality The analysis explores both the colonial state's agency with regard to veterinary and settlement policies and the strategies of Africans and Europeans living close to the border The analysis also includes the varying perceptions of individuals and populations who lived further north and south of the border and describes their experiences crossing the border as migrant workers African traders European settlers and colonial officials The Red Line's history is understood as a gradual process of segregating livestock and people and of constructing dichotomies of modern and traditional healthy and sick European and African

The Spiritual Consciousness of Carmen Martin Gaité Anne-Marie Storrs, 2023 An exploration of Spanish writer Carmen Mart n Gaité's religious outlook through the inner journeys of five female characters For Mart n Gaité a truly religious or spiritual perspective requires conscious attention to the products of the unconscious dreams images memories premonitions followed by reflection and action as well as a similar attentiveness and responsiveness to external events both large and small This reconnection of the supernatural and day to day worlds also involves descent to the unconscious the way to wholeness as depicted in so many myths and fairy tales including those which Mart n Gaité used to retell or enhance the works analysed in this book Sleeping Beauty The Little Mermaid Amor and Psyche Demeter and Persephone and the Descent of the Goddess Inanna Looking at the extent to which these female characters attend to reflect on and respond to their dreams images memories and events the analysis suggests that Mart n Gait e uses her stories to try to communicate both the road to her own enlightenment and warnings about paths that lead away from this Human Rights and Religion Liam Gearon,2002-09-01 Religion manifests itself as a force for social and political conflict and repression Yet religions also promote ideals of harmonious living with traditions that enrich contemporary understandings of international human rights This work examines the relationship between religion and human rights Jung and the Jungians on Myth Steven F. Walker,2002 In this book Steven Walker carefully leads the reader through the fundamentals of the psychology that underlies Jung s theory of myth He defines key terms and distinguishes dream from fantasy in psychological experience He then traces the lineage of Jungian theory from Jung through such disciples as Van Franz and Neumann to contemporary archetypal psychology By applying Jungian psychology to an array of myths to illustrate core concepts of this theoretical tradition Walker fills a conspicuous gap in the current literature on Jung from back cover Encyclopedia of Post-Colonial Literatures in English Eugene Benson,L.W. Conolly,2004-11-30 Post Colonial Literatures in English together with English Literature and American Literature form one of the three major groupings of literature in English and as such are widely studied around the world Their significance derives from the richness and variety of experience which they reflect In three volumes this Encyclopedia documents the history and development of this body of work and includes original research relating to the literatures of some 50 countries and territories In more than 1 600 entries written by more than 600 internationally recognized scholars it explores the effect of the colonial and post colonial experience on literatures in English worldwide Cross-cultural Behaviour in Tourism Yvette Reisinger,Lindsay W. Turner,2003 Reisinger and Turner illustrate the importance of cultural background in the tourist experience in this in depth study The authors cover the concepts definitions and measures of these cultural components and the tools used to analyse them They Shimmer Within: Cognitive-Evolutionary Perspectives on Visionary Beings Bruce Rimell,2018-01-19 The use of psychedelic drugs plants is rising and with it the number of reports narrating encounters with otherworldly visionary beings Approaches to these experiences have often been literal archetypal or dismissive Evolutionary psychology and the cognitive science of religion suggest innate and non imagistic mental foundations for these phenomena arising from easily triggered evolutionary functions during emotive periods of high cognitive demand Such functions include agent detection social intelligence faculties and metacognition This wide ranging book explores how our deepest mental processes predispose us as humans to believe in supernatural agents and presents a new hypothesis of how these same cognitions facilitate the emergence of those agents to become present when psychedelic drugs and plants are ingested Bruce concludes that visionary beings shimmer within as awe inspiring products of the mind an experience which rests at the heart of what it is to be human Tourism and Politics Peter M.
