

Standard English is what people in other countries study when they are trying to learn English as a foreign language. Standard English has a higher status than non-Standard English, so young people are encouraged to practise using Standard English in school so that they can use it in later life, if they need to (e.g. at a formal interview).

The sentences below are all in non-Standard English. Re-write them in Standard English.

1. They've took me lunchbox.

.....

2. It weren't me.

.....

3. I was there, but I never saw nothing.
