Excavating the Medieval Image David S. Areford,2017-11-30 Medieval images especially manuscript illuminations have long been treated independently of the contexts in which they were created These beautiful miniature paintings frequently valued as keepers of documentary evidence or as curious artistic commodities have only recently become the focus of art historians concerned with new questions related to artistic working methods audience and the status of the visual in the Middle Ages and the modern era Excavating the Medieval Image argues that the illuminated image is best understood as thoroughly integrated in the material context of the manuscript and thus integrated in a cultural context of production and reception Seen in this way the illuminated manuscript becomes a kind of archaeological site which must be carefully unearthed layer by layer The fourteen essays gathered here are written by scholars of both medieval and Renaissance art history and demonstrate varied methodological approaches that combine the pursuits of traditional connoisseurship and iconography with those of critical theory and historiography In addition the authors contribute more broadly to important interdisciplinary issues such as the study of gender text and image and the history of literacy and the book The Grove Encyclopedia of Medieval Art and Architecture Colum Hourihane,2012 This volume offers unparalleled coverage of all aspects of art and architecture from medieval Western Europe from the 6th century to the early 16th century Drawing upon the expansive scholarship in the celebrated Grove Dictionary of Art and adding hundreds of new entries it offers students researchers and the general public a reliable up to date and convenient resource covering this field of major importance in the development of Western history and international art and architecture The New Cambridge History of the Bible: Volume 2, From 600 to 1450 Richard Marsden,E. Ann Matter,2012-04-26 This volume examines the development and use of the Bible from late Antiquity to the Reformation tracing both its geographical and its intellectual journeys from its homelands throughout the Middle East and Mediterranean and into northern Europe Richard Marsden and E Ann Matter s volume provides a balanced treatment of eastern and western biblical traditions highlighting processes of transmission and modes of exegesis among Roman and Orthodox Christians Jews and Muslims and illuminating the role of the Bible in medieval inter religious dialogue Translations into Ethiopic Slavic Armenian and Georgian vernaculars as well as Romance and Germanic are treated in detail along with the theme of allegorized spirituality and established forms of glossing The chapters take the study of Bible history beyond the cloisters of medieval monasteries and ecclesiastical schools to consider the influence of biblical texts on vernacular poetry prose drama law and the visual arts of East and West The Brussels Horloge de Sapience: Iconography and Text of Brussels, Bibliothèque Royale, MS. IV 111 Peter Rolfe Monks,2023-10-16 The book discusses principally the iconography and text of a mid 15th century copy of the mystical treatise Horloge de Sapience in the most sumptuously illuminated ms known of the text Each of the 36 illuminations is discussed in turn with reference to their pictorial traditions to the French textual matter and to a unique contemporary commentary called the Dclaration des hystoires The Dclaration is one of the earliest essays in the history of art criticism to survive The study is rendered useful for teachers and scholars by an English translation of the text of the Dclaration which enables the reader to see the illustrations through the eyes of a 15th century critic

Medieval Iconography John B. Friedman, Jessica M. Wegmann, 2021-11-18

First published in 1998 the present volume aims to help the researcher locate visual motifs whether in medieval art or in literature and to understand how they function in yet other medieval literary or artistic works

The Image of the Black in Western Art David Bindman, Henry Louis Gates (Jr.), Karen C. C. Dalton, 2010 A pioneering work in the field of art history The Image of the Black in Western Art is a comprehensive series of ten books which offers a lavishly illustrated history of the representations of people of African descent from antiquity to the present Each book includes a series of essays by some of the most distinguished names in art history Ranging from images of Pharaohs created by unknown hands almost 3 500 years ago to the works of the great masters of European and American art such as Bosch D rer Mantegna Rembrandt Rubens Watteau Hogarth Copley and Goya to stunning new media creations by contemporary black artists these books are generously illustrated with beautiful moving and often little known images of black people Black figures queens and slaves saints and soldiers priests and prisoners dancers and athletes children and gods are central to the visual imagination of Western civilization Written in accessible language the extensive and insightful commentaries on the illustrations by distinguished art historians make this series invaluable for the general reader and the specialist alike

Sealed in Parchment Sandra Hindman, 1994-10-17 Chretien de Troyes was France s great medieval poet inventor of the genre of courtly romance and popularizer of the Arthurian legend The forty four surviving manuscripts of his work ten of them illuminated pose a number of questions about who used these books and in what way In Sealed in Parchment Sandra Hindman scrutinizes both text and images to reveal what the manuscripts can tell us about medieval society and politics

The Bible for Children Ruth B. Bottigheimer, 1996-01-01 For more than five centuries parents teachers and preachers in Europe and America have written and illustrated Bibles especially for children These children s Bibles vary widely featuring different stories various interpretations and markedly divergent illustrations despite their common source How children s Bibles differ and why is the subject of this ground breaking book the first to recognize children s Bibles as a distinct genre with its own literary historical and cultural significance Historical Dictionary of the Netherlands Joop W. Koopmans, 2015-11-05 The Kingdom of the Netherlands is a small but heavily populated country with almost 17 million inhabitants It is one of the last kingdoms in Europe and in 2015 it celebrated its 200 years anniversary The Netherlands became a kingdom after the Napoleonic era During this period it was transformed into a centralized state Before those years it had been one of few republics in Europe for about two centuries That state was a confederacy which emerged in the 1580s during its independence struggle against the Spanish Habsburgs Although the present state is still monarchical the Netherlands functions as a modern constitutional democracy in which the king s position is almost comparable with a ceremonial presidency The majority of the Dutch population however appreciates the hereditary political presence of the House of Orange Nassau regarding this dynasty as a symbol of national unity and connection with the country s past This third edition of Historical Dictionary of the Netherlands contains a chronology an introduction appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 900 cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about the Netherlands

Breaching Boundaries Paul Maurice Clogan, 1994 Medievalia et Humanistica has won worldwide recognition as the first scholarly publication in America to devote itself exclusively to Medieval and Renaissance studies

Studies in the Reception of the Historia Scholastica of Peter Comestor Maria Sherwood-Smith, 2000 The Historia Scholastica circa 1170 mingles biblical narrative Jewish legends and commentary and was a popular source of biblical material for authors until the Reformation Maria Sherwood Smith gives an introduction to the sources and transmission of the Latin work before investigating its reception in detail in two thirteenth century German works the Schwarzw lder Predigten and the Weltchronik of Rudolf von Ems Briefer analyses of Jacob van Maerlant s Scholastica and the Historiebijbel van 1360 provide further context Looking in this way at the different functions the work fulfils for later authors one discerns a growing awareness of the distinction between it and the text of the Bible It is suggested that this enhances the Historia Scholastica s reputation as a safeguard of orthodoxy

Disaster, Death and the Emotions in the Shadow of the Apocalypse, 1400-1700 Jennifer Spinks, Charles Zika, 2016-09-23 In late medieval and early modern Europe textual and visual records of disaster and mass death allow us to encounter the intense emotions generated through the religious providential and apocalyptic frameworks that provided these events with meaning This collection brings together historians art historians and literary specialists in a cross disciplinary collection shaped by new developments in the history of emotions It offers a rich range of analytical frameworks and case studies from the emotional language of divine providence to individual and communal experiences of disaster Geographically wide ranging the collection also analyses many different sorts of media from letters and diaries to broadsheets and paintings Through these and other historical records the contributors examine how communities and individuals experienced responded to recorded and managed the emotional dynamics and trauma created by dramatic events like massacres floods fires earthquakes and plagues

A Gust for Paradise Diane Kelsey McColley, 1993 This beautifully illustrated multidisciplinary study addresses interpretations of the Genesis creation story in Paradise Lost and other seventeenth century English poems and in the visual arts from the Middle Ages through the Reformation It considers poems visual images and music concerned with divine and human creativity and interprets these works as salutary examples for the creation of the arts and the preservation of the earth The central topic is the daily work of body or mind of Adam and Eve in Paradise Lost as primal artists and caretakers of nature before the Fall developing the arts of language music liturgy and government discovering the rudiments of a technology harmless to the biosphere and dressing and keeping a garden that is an epitome of the whole earth These unfallen arts promote awareness of the complex harmonies of creation and potentially of civilization an awareness that is not only linear or binary but radiant and multiple not only monodic but also choral McColley argues that northern European visual artists and seventeenth century English poets reimagined Eden in order to re Edenize the imagination as a source of ethical and ecological healing The best known depictions of Adam and Eve in the visual arts which focus on the drama of the all depart from a widespread but undervalued tradition that more celebratory and regenerative and less susceptible to misogynous interpretation This tradition includes the neglected topos of original righteousness and contributes to what we would now call ecological awareness Poets allied to this view foster Edenic consciousness by creating a Paradisal language that weaves form sound image metaphor concept and experience as closely as nature weaves life and so exercises our sense of connections

The Medieval Popular Bible Brian Murdoch, 2003 The presentation the use and the possible reception of the book of Genesis to lay audience largely unable to read the original texts What was meant by the medieval popular Bible what was presented as biblical narrative to an audience largely unable to read the original biblical texts Presentations in the vernacular languages of Europe of supposedly biblicalepisodes were more often than not expanded and interpreted sometimes very considerably This book looks at the presentation the use and the possible lay reception of the book of Genesis using as wide a range of medieval genres and vernaculars as possible on a comparative basis down to the Reformation

Literatures taken into consideration include Irish Cornish English French High and Low German Spanish Italian and others Genesis was an important book and the focus is on those narrative high points which lend themselves most particularly it is never exclusive to literal expansion even though allegory can also work backwards into the literal narrative Starting with the devil in paradise who is not biblical the book examines what Adam and Eve did afterwards who killed Cain what happened in the flood or at the tower of Babel and ends with a consideration of the careers of Jacob and Joseph The book is based on the Speaker's Lectures given in 2002 in the University of Oxford BRIAN MURDOCH is Professor of German at the University of Stirling
