

Lesson 3 - Why did the Anglo Saxons settle in Britain?

Wanted My name is Eadgar. I am making my way to Britain to help. The Romans have left, apparently, and the Britons feel vulnerable to attack.

Hello, my name is Hilda. I have a large family to look after. There isn't much opportunity to improve our lives here at home. We all have different skills and could have a much better life in Britain. We could build a better house and use our skills to earn more.

Why did the Anglo-Saxons leave their homelands and travel to Britain?

Flooded homelands

It was sometimes difficult to grow crops in their homelands as it was often flooded. They came in search of better land to farm.

New homes

Whole families set out across the sea to live in Britain and build new homes. They brought tools, weapons and farm animals and built villages.

They were invited!

Some sources say that the Saxon warriors were invited to the area known as England to keep out invaders from Scotland and Ireland.

To fight!

Some Anglo-Saxon warriors enjoyed fighting! They thought the Britons would be easy to defeat without the Romans.

Others were aren't entirely sure why the Anglo-Saxons came to Britain, but here are some possible reasons.
