

that he did not do anything of that nature for him because he was always with him and all that he had was his. But the younger son had gone away for a while and he had returned. That is why there was the necessity to celebrate (Gellman & Hartman, 2011).

This portion of scripture is marked by a series of literary features which Jesus uses to deliver or convey his concerns to the people of Israel and in this case, it is Joshua. This portion of scripture begins with the reminder of the fact that the sons of Israel had sinned. Owing to the sin, they became cursed. Through this, the writer uses some literary features which give a lot of insight into what he wishes to convey. Dialogue is a literary feature which captures the communication between persons with the intention of bringing out a given idea or meaning. Essentially, writers use this approach when their goal is to bring to light a character of the persons in the literature to the interest of the readers. As a consequence of this feature, Jesus is depicted as a man who seeks purity and firm in matters of principle.

This is most evident when he is told of the cause of the defeat being a result of sin which has been committed by one of the Israelites he quickly embarks of finding out who the culprit is and eventually the culprit is killed. This is a classic example which confirms of his authority and astute behavior when it comes to issues of principle. Second, there is a conflict in this scripture.

Conflict is a struggle between two or more forces or parties which oppose each or one another as a result of sharp differences. These differences might be internal or external which at times hinder the achievement or the realization of challenges which are imposed. These struggles might be internal or external depending on the state of affairs which might be prevailing at a given point in time outside the character.

These different forces which are antagonistic may be out of customs, values, traditions or even principles. In this case, the conflicts that arise in this scripture where the Christians are fail because of their sinful character. What is portrayed in this scripture is the nature if God's holiness whereby He does not want anything to do with impurity. Thirdly, there is the aspect of foreshadowing. This is an aspect which is used by writers to give the reader a clue about the events which are about to happen, in this case, prodigal son.

Fourthly, there is the aspect of what is known as the point of view. In this case, the writer portrays the plot of the story from a point of view in which it is seen. This can be done or achieved through three main aspects which include being omniscient, which is
