Coy,Henry Burnside Smith,William Barnard Mooney,1896   Work, Sleep, Repeat Felix Stein,2020-07-12 Work Sleep Repeat is a fascinating account of the work regime of German management consultants Examining one of the most sought after and secretive graduate professions the book provides a first hand account of the boardroom culture of Europe s strongest economy Analyzing how knowledge and power operate in this sector Felix Stein explores a number of paradoxes For example while it is the job of management consultants to analyse the activities of other employees they actually spend most of their time in luxurious seclusion away from them In addition despite having a strong sense of the importance of their work consultants often find it difficult to explain to outsiders what it is they do The book addresses these and other paradoxes by arguing that consultants are engaged in abstract labour Anthropologists have long struggled with the question of how to describe contemporary work regimes which do not produce anything tangible Stein demonstrates that elite work is predominantly abstract in the fourfold sense that it is epistemically removed from the object of analysis emotionally detached from it several steps away from the assumed sources of economic value creation and increasingly hard to grasp In doing so he offers new ways to think about white collar work and elites in the 21st century and establishes the notion of abstract labour as a key category in social anthropology   Insights and Interpretations Colum Hourihane,2002 Established in 1917 the Index of Christian Art located at Princeton University is now the largest archive of medieval art in existence and the most specialized resource for the iconographer Throughout its eighty five years it has justly been recognized as one of the most learned institutions for the study of the art and culture of the medieval world The essays in this book all by staff or scholars of the archive highlight some of the current research in the archive and the scholarship for which it has been widely renowned The studies cover art from the Late Antique period to the end of the fifteenth century and include most of the media represented in the archive from manuscripts to sculpture to glass From reinterpreting previous scholarship to making new insights into the medieval mind they explore such themes as Jephtha s Daughter Mary Magdalene Saints Blaise Paul Joseph and Elisabeth of Hungary and
