Home, History and Possession in Israel-Palestine Tovi Fenster, 2024-09-05 Taking a micro geographical approach to Israeli Palestinian relations this book analyses the history of space and place in West Jerusalem and Jaffa in the context of specific addresses Based on the unique and innovative archaeology of addresses methodology the book provides an in depth analysis of 11 specific sites This micro perspective paying particular attention to the history and past ownership of an individual property allows the author to draw new insights into the process of population exchange that took place in 1948 when Jewish people began to populate Palestinian deserted homes after the Nakba By looking at archival planning documents the histories of addresses as contact zones between previous and current owners are revealed Moreover the research on each address highlights new theoretical understandings encompassing the micro politics of the contact zone mediated agonism ruinations and beginnings creative destruction in urban planning the right to the city and the right to return the violence of property and fragmented settler colonialism The book concludes by proposing practical applications of the research in teaching and planning practice The book will prove important reading for students and researchers interested in urban planning Middle Eastern geography and the history of the Israeli Palestinian conflict The Challenge of

Change: Dealing with the Legacy of the Modern Movement D. van den Heuvel, M. Mesman, W. Quist, 2008-09-11 Conservation of architecture and the conversation of Modern architecture in particular has assumed new challenges Rather than attempting to return a Modern building to its resumed original state the challenge of these proceedings is to revalue the essence of the manifold manifestations of Modern architecture and redefine its meanings in a rapidly changing world of digital revolution worldwide mobility and environmental awareness This volume aims to provide a variety of platforms for the exchange of ideas and experience A large international group of architects historians scholars preservationists and other parties involved in the processes of preserving renovating and transforming Modern buildings has been invited to investigate the paradox of the Modern monument and to reflect on the manifold dilemmas of change and continuity The general theme is elaborated through five sub themes The sub theme Change and Continuity addresses the tensions between change and continuity from a historical theoretical perspective Restructuring Cities and Landscapes focuses on the larger scale of city and landscape while Shifts in Programme and Flexibility draws attention to the scale of the building or building complex and questions limits of re use and flexibility The fourth sub theme deals with education and the fifth sub theme Progress Technology and Sustainability considers specific issues of techniques and materials

Homeland Yael Allweil, 2016-09-19 As Yael Allweil reveals in her fascinating book housing has played a pivotal role in the history of nationalism and nation building in Israel Palestine She adopts the concept of homeland to highlight how land and housing are central to both Zionism and Palestinian nationalism and how the history of Zionist and Palestinian national housing have been inseparably intertwined from the introduction of the Ottoman Land Code in 1858 to the present day

Tel Aviv Maoz Azaryahu, 2020-03-10 Founded in 1909 as a garden suburb of the Mediterranean port of Jaffa Tel Aviv soon became a model of Jewish self rule and was celebrated as a jewel in the crown of Hebrew revival Over time the city has transformed into a lively metropolis renowned for its architecture and culture openness and vitality A young city Tel Aviv continues to represent a fundamental idea that transcends the physical texture of the city and the everyday experiences of its residents Combining historical research and cultural analysis Maoz Azaryahu explores the different myths that have been part of the vernacular and perception of the city He relates Tel Aviv's mythology to its physicality through buildings streets personal experiences and municipal policies With critical insight he evaluates specific myths and their propagation in the spheres of both official and popular culture Azaryahu explores three distinct stages in the history of the mythic Tel Aviv The First Hebrew City assesses Tel Aviv as Zionist vision and seed of the actual city Non Stop City depicts trendy global post Zionist Tel Aviv and The White City describes Tel Aviv's architectural landscape created in the 1930s and imbued with nostalgia and local prestige Tel Aviv Mythography of a City will appeal to urban geographers cultural historians scholars of myth and students of Israeli society and culture

The ^AGreat Sea David Abulafia, 2011-06-01 The Mediterranean Sea has been a crucial site of cross cultural exchange since the beginning of human history This book is certain to become the definitive work on the

Mediterranean Sea for generations Studies in Law, Politics, and Society Austin Sarat, 2009-11-06 Trials are well known as paradigmatic legal events Some attract wide attention others mostly escape notice This title brings together the work of some of the leading scholars to think about the nature utility and limits of trials Young Tel Aviv Anat Helman, 2010-12-14 Fascinating revisionist history of Jewish life in Tel Aviv in the Mandate era Global City Typologies Nigel C. Lewis, 2025-07-31 Global City Typologies explores the historical cultural and socio economic transactional forces in the development of existing cities through to newly planned and emerging cities Individual chapters address different sets and typologies of global cities to analyse their comparative evolution and standing today The separate parts and individual chapters have been grouped around 125 different established planned and emerging cities and analysed according to different typologies and thematic categories that comprise historic cities early trading cities planned cities emerging global cities mega cities and megalopolitan agglomerations These span five continents including the industrial cities of Chicago and Manchester new capitals such as Brasilia and New Delhi innovative cities such as Singapore and Tel Aviv and mega cities such as Mexico City The book is fully illustrated throughout with modern and historical maps which enables visualisation of the forces that have shaped ongoing development of these major global cities This is an essential book for students and professionals in urban design and planning administrators economists designers and developers Studies in Contemporary Jewry: Volume XV: People of the City Ezra Mendelsohn, 1999 This collection of articles is devoted to the theme of Jews in the modern city including topics such as Jewish Christian relations klezmer music and urbanization Studies in Contemporary Jewry Ezra Mendelsohn, 2000-02-03 The Jews have been an urban people par excellence and their influence on the urban landscape is unmistakable Who can imagine modern Vienna Berlin Warsaw or New York to name just a few examples without their large vibrant and creative Jewish populations Conversely the urban experience has been a decisive factor in modern Jewish history This new volume in the acclaimed Studies in Contemporary Jewry series is devoted to the theme of Jews and the modern city It features essays on Orthodox Jewry in the city Jewish Christian relations klezmer music the impact of urbanization on German Jewry the Jewish communities in New York and St Petersburg and the emergence of the first Hebrew City Tel Aviv It also includes a discussion of the new prayer book of the Conservative movement in Israel Like others in the series this book presents current scholarship in the form of a symposium essays and book reviews by distinguished experts in Jewish studies from around the world Published annually by the Avraham Harman Institute of Contemporary Jewry at The Hebrew University of Jerusalem Studies in Contemporary Jewry continues to be an invaluable resource for scholars of modern history and culture The Making of Eretz Israel in the Modern Era Yehoshua Ben-Arieh, 2020-03-09 Napoleon's invasion of the Middle East marks the beginning of the modern era in the region This book traces the developments that led to the making of a new and separate geographical political entity in the Middle East known as Eretz Israel and the establishment of the State of Israel within its bounds Thus its time frame runs from Napoleon's invasion of Eretz Israel Palestine in 1799 to the establishment of Israel in 1948 1949 Eretz Israel as the formal name of a separate entity in the modern era first appeared in the early translations into Hebrew of the Balfour Declaration while in the original document the country was referred to as Palestine During the period of Ottoman rule the territory that would in time be called Eretz Israel Palestine was not a separate political unit Among Jews use of Eretz Israel increased only after the beginning of Zionist aliyot Had the Zionist movement not arisen it is doubtful whether the development to which this study is devoted would have occurred The motivating force behind that process is without doubt the Zionist element That is why Jews are the major protagonists in this book Interwar Crossroads Leon Julius Biela, Anna Bundt, 2022-11-07 Studying the entangled histories of the areas conceptualized as Middle Eastern and North Atlantic World in the interwar years is crucial to understanding the two areas respective and common histories until today However many of the manifold connections exchanges and entanglements between the areas have not received thorough scholarly attention yet The contributors to this volume address this by bringing together various innovative and interdisciplinary approaches to the topic They thereby further the understanding of the two areas entangled histories and diversify prevailing concepts and narratives Through this the volume also offers enriching insights into the global history of the early 20th century An Ideological Death Rachel S. Harris, 2014-08-15 An Ideological Death Suicide in Israeli Literature examines literary challenges to Israel's national narratives The centrality of the army the mythology of the new Jew the vision of the first Israeli city Tel Aviv and the very process by which a nation's history is constructed are confronted in fiction by many prominent Israeli writers Using the image of suicide A B Yehoshua Amos Oz Etgar Keret Yehudit Katzir Alon Hilu Yaakov Shabtai Benjamin Tammuz and Yehoshua Kenaz each engage in a critical and rhetorical process that examines the nation's formation and reconsiders myths at the heart of the Zionist project In Israeli literature suicide represents a society's compulsion to create impossible ideals that leave its populace disappointed and deluded Yet as Rachel S Harris shows even at their harshest these writers also represent the idealism that helped build Israel as a modern nation state Tel-Aviv, the First Century Maoz Azaryahu, S. Ilan Troen, 2020-03-04 A learned and engaging collection of essays on Israel's diverse modern metropolis established in 1909 Religious Studies Review Tel Aviv the First Century brings together a broad range of scholars and cutting edge research to trace the development and paradoxes of Tel Aviv as an urban center and a national symbol Through the lenses of history literature urban planning gender studies architecture art and other fields these essays reveal the place of Tel Aviv in the life and imagination of its diverse inhabitants The careful and insightful tracing of the development of the city's landscape the relationship of its varied architecture to its competing social cultures and its evolving place in Israel's literary imagination come together to offer a vivid and complex picture of Tel Aviv as a microcosm of Israeli life and a vibrant modern global city Israel's main metropolis is scrutinized through the lens of history geography architecture art literature and gender studies presenting the many facets that have come to constitute the elaborate personality of a very complicated city and society H

One Palestine, Complete Tom Segev,2013-05-10 A panoramic and provocative history of life in Palestine during the three strife torn but romantic decades when Britain ruled and the seeds of today s conflicts were sown Tom Segev s acclaimed works 1949 and The Seventh Million overturned accepted views of the history of Israel Now Segev explores the dramatic period before the creation of the state when Britain ruled over one Palestine complete as noted in the receipt signed by the High Commissioner and when its promise to both Jews and Arabs that they would inherit the land set in motion the conflict that haunts the region to this day Drawing on a wealth of untapped archival materials Segev reconstructs a tumultuous era 1917 to 1948 of limitless possibilities and tragic missteps He introduces the legendary figures General Allenby Lawrence of Arabia David Ben Gurion as well as an array of pioneers secret agents diplomats and fanatics He tracks the steady advance of Jews and Arabs toward confrontation and with his hallmark originality puts forward a radical new argument that the British far from being pro Arab as commonly thought consistently favored the Zionist position and did so out of the mistaken and anti Semitic belief that Jews turned the wheels of history Rich in unforgettable characters sensitive to all perspectives One Palestine Complete brilliantly depicts the decline of an empire the birth of one nation and the tragedy of another

Losing Site Dr Shelley Hornstein,2013-06-28 As Ruskin suggests in his Seven Lamps of Architecture We may live without architecture and worship without her but we cannot remember without her We remember best when we experience an event in a place But what happens when we leave that place or that place no longer exists This book addresses the relationship between memory and place and asks how architecture captures and triggers memory It explores how architecture exists as a material object and how it registers as a place that we come to remember beyond the physical site itself It questions what architecture is in the broadest sense assuming that it is not simply buildings Rather architecture is considered to be the mapping of physical mental or emotional space The idea that we are all architects in some measure as we actively organize and select pathways and markers within space is central to this book s premise Each chapter provides a different example of the manifold ways in which the physical place of architecture is curated by the architecture in our mental space our imaginary toolbox when we think of a place and look at a photograph or visit a site and describe it later or send a postcard By connecting architecture with other disciplines such as geography visual culture sociology and urban studies as well as the fine and performing arts this book puts forward the idea that a conversation about architecture is not exclusively about formal isolated buildings but instead must be deepened and broadened as spatialized visualizations and experiences of place
