Broadcast News Writing, Reporting, and Producing Ted White, 2005-02-25 First Published in 2005 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company UPI Style Book & Guide to Newswriting Harold Martin, Bruce Cook, 2004 From the editors and reporters of United Press International an authoritative easy to use and comprehensive guide to print and broadcast writing Writing News for Broadcast Edward Bliss, James L. Hoyt, 1994 The authoritative guide to writing for the broadcast medium American Television News Steve Michael Barkin, 2003 Television Journalism Stephen Cushion, 2011-11-10 Amidst the glut of studies on new media and the news the enduring medium of television finally gets the attention it deserves Cushion brings television news back into perfect focus in a book that offers historical depth geographical breadth empirical analysis and above all political significance Through an interrogation of the dynamics of and relations between regulation ownership the working practices of journalism and the news audience Cushion makes a clear case for why and how television news should be firmly positioned in the public interest It should be required reading for anyone concerned with news and journalism Natalie Fenton Goldsmiths University of London An admirably ambitious synthesis of journalism scholarship and journalism practice providing a comprehensive resource of historical analysis contemporary trends and key data Stewart Purvis City University and former CEO of ITN Despite the democratic promise of new media television journalism remains the most viewed valued and trusted source of information in many countries around the world Comparing patterns of ownership policy and regulation this book explores how different environments have historically shaped contemporary trends in television journalism internationally Informed by original research Television Journalism lays bare the implications of market forces public service interventions and regulatory shifts in television journalism s changing production practices news values and audience expectations Accessibly written and packed with topical references this authoritative account offers fresh insights into the past present and future of journalism making it a necessary point of reference for upper level undergraduates researchers and academics in broadcasting journalism mass communication and media studies TV News Anchors and Journalistic Tradition Kimberly Meltzer, 2010 Through the lens of TV news anchors this book examines the impact that television news has had on traditional journalistic standards and practices It provides a historical overview of the impact they have had on American journalism uncovering the changing values codes of behavior and boundaries of the journalistic community book cover Terrestrial TV News in Britain Jackie Harrison, 2000-09-02 Harrison s work is timely given the assaults on public broadcasting and the challenges confronting terrestrial television news production and output in the late 20th century Broadcast and Online Journalism Mr. Rohit Manglik, 2022-12-22 Practices and standards for producing content in radio TV and digital platforms The Rise and Fall of Television Journalism Steven Barnett, 2011-11-08 This book traces the history of television journalism in Britain from its austere roots in the BBC s post war monopoly to the present day plethora of 24 hour channels and celebrity presenters It asks why a medium whose thirst for pictures personalities and drama makes it some believe intrinsically unsuitable for serious journalism should remain in the internet age the most influential purveyor of news Barnett compares the two very different trajectories of television journalism in Britain and the US arguing that from the outset a rigorous statutory and regulatory framework rooted in a belief about the democratic value of the medium created and sustained a culture of serious responsible accurate and interrogative journalism in British television The book s overarching thesis is that despite a very different set of historical regulatory and institutional practices there is a very real danger that Britain is now heading down the same road as America

Broadcast News Producing Brad Schultz, 2004-08-03 Having worked closely with Brad Schultz I know he has important insights to pass along to students in the area of broadcast news production This seems to be a fairly comprehensive effort that covers many of the aspects of news production that other texts have ignored I think it will be a tremendous help to those who are interested in this part of the broadcast journalism industry Dr Joe Foote Arizona State University and Past President of the Association for Education in Journalism and Mass Communication Brad Schultz has brought his solid professional experience to bear in putting together a highly readable how to for students aspiring to take their place behind the camera Broadcast News Producing is full of useful tips as well as providing important grounding in the fundamentals of producing a successful newscast Beth E Barnes University of Kentucky Broadcast News Producing is one of the first comprehensive texts in its field While until now most broadcast journalism textbooks have been geared toward students who want careers on camera Broadcast News Producing goes behind the camera to teach students the hows and whys of putting together compelling news programs for television radio and the Internet This text lays the groundwork for good producing giving the reader an insider s perspective on newsroom structure and the producer's role. It takes students step by step through the producing process providing a guide to putting together a successful newscast. The book also addresses critical issues that face today's producers including ethics, newsroom leadership, staff management, resource management, newsroom relationships and career planning. Key Features: Combines the practical skills and techniques needed in today's broadcast news production with timely theoretical and ethical issues facing producers. Serves as a guide to running campus radio and television programs complete with step by step instructions and examples on how to run a news program from start to finish. Reinforces teaching points through graphics, tables, charts and photos. Gives readers an insider's view of broadcast production through question and answer interviews with current and former broadcast news producers. Focuses separate sections on producing news programs for television, radio and the Internet and on producing specialized broadcast news segments such as sports, weather, live reports, debates, roundtable discussions and call in shows. Broadcast News Producing is an ideal textbook for undergraduate journalism courses in broadcast news and mass communications. It is also recommended as a reference for secondary school and college newsrooms where it can be used as a guide to running a campus news program.
