Televisuality Style Crisis And Authority In American Television:

Televisuality John Thornton Caldwell,1995 The collision of auteurism and rap couched by primetime producers in the Northern Exposure script was actually rather commonplace by the early 1990s Series and even news broadcasts regularly engineered their narratives around highly coded aesthetic and cultural fragments with a kind of ensemble iconography Televisuality interrogates the nature of such performances as an historical phenomenon an aesthetic and industrial practice and as a socially symbolic act Televisuality John Thornton Caldwell,1994 Televisuality John Thornton Caldwell,1995 Caldwell calls for a desegregation of theory and practice in media scholarship and for an end to the willful blindness of high theory

Cop Shows Roger Sabin,Ronald Wilson,Linda Speidel,2015-03-23 From cops who are paragons of virtue to cops who are as bad as the bad guys from surly loners to upbeat partners from detectives who pursue painstaking investigation to loose cannons who just want to kick down the door the heroes and anti heroes of TV police dramas are part of who we are They enter our living rooms and tell us tall tales about the social contract that exists between the citizen and the police Love them or loathe them according to the ratings we love them they serve a function They've entertained informed and sometimes infuriated audiences for more than 60 years This book examines Dragnet Highway Patrol Naked City The Untouchables The F B I Columbo Hawaii Five O Kojak Starsky Hutch Hill Street Blues Cagney Lacey Miami Vice Law Order Homicide Life on the Street NYPD Blue CSI The Shield The Wire and Justified It's time to take another look at the perps the vics and the boys and girls in blue and ask how their representation intersects with questions of class gender sexuality and race What is their socio cultural agenda What is their relation to genre and televisuality And why is it that when a TV cop gives a witness his card and says call me that witness always ends up on a slab

The Stuff of Spectatorship Caetlin Benson-Allott,2021-04-06 Film and television create worlds but they are also of a world a world that is made up of stuff to which humans attach meaning Think of the last time you watched a movie the chair you sat in the snacks you ate the people around you maybe the beer or joint you consumed to help you unwind all this stuff shaped your experience of media and its influence on you The material culture around film and television changes how we make sense of their content not to mention the very concepts of the mediums Focusing on material cultures of film and television reception The Stuff of Spectatorship argues that the things we share space with and consume as we consume television and film influence the meaning we gather from them This book examines the roles that six different material cultures have played in film and television culture since the 1970s including video marketing branded merchandise drugs and alcohol and even gun violence and shows how objects considered peripheral to film and television culture are in fact central to its past and future
