Rabbi, Tell Me... Peter Ferraro,2016-02-24 This work is a dialog between Jesus and his disciples But herein lies the twist First the Jesus of the Gospel of John answers then the Jesus of the Gospel of Thomas In the Gospel of John Jesus is proclaimed to be the only begotten Son of God the Savior and more than that God Himself And if you believe Jesus is who he says he is the Son of God who has come to judge the living and the dead and you love and obey him then you will be granted eternal life If not the wrath of God will remain on you In the Gospel of Thomas Jesus does not proclaim to be the only son of God nor does he claim to be the savior of Mankind In fact he teaches that when we come to know ourselves we will understand we are all children of God and saviors from the tyranny of our self will In this gospel Jesus is depicted as a spiritual master whose wisdom sayings delineate a path to peace in one's life and ultimately to eternal life itself In Thomas eternal life is achieved through knowledge and wisdom and not through obeying and believing in Jesus Jesus said Whoever discovers the interpretation of these sayings will not taste death Thomas Logion 1 Moreover in Thomas unlike in John it is not a question of if you will obtain eternal life but only a matter of when

Dying to Tell You Michael Hunter,2021-11-19 Jesus tells us that if one desires to be his disciple they must deny himself and take up his cross and follow me Mark 8 34 But what does it mean to take up your cross and how can we do this The apostle Paul said that he desired to know nothing except Jesus Christ and him crucified 1 Corinthians 2 2 and elsewhere even claimed to have been crucified with Christ Galatians 2 20 How can one join Paul and know Jesus in his Crucifixion The answer is to take Jesus at his word From the cross Jesus spoke seven times These sayings summarize the gospel and explain how we can know him in his Crucifixion On the cross Jesus was literally Dying to Tell You how his death fulfilled God's eternal plan for our redemption Unlike other studies of the last sayings of Jesus from the cross Dying to Tell You takes a new approach and views the sayings together as a whole revealing how together they form the foundation to understanding the gospel of Jesus Originally motivated to seek a resolution to the dilemma of which saying is the last both Luke and John appear to report the last saying Dying to Tell You establishes a new order for the sayings based on a detailed examination and integration of the four Crucifixion narratives contained in the Gospels While each saying is individually examined rather than handling them as isolated statements Dying to Tell You demonstrates how these sayings comprise the final message of Jesus his sermon on the cross Along the way Dying to Tell You also provides assurance that the Bible can be trusted and is a historically accurate resource demonstrates that the cross is the centerpiece of redemptive history and illustrates how Jesus and the Crucifixion serve to fulfill the scriptures and provide for the salvation of mankind Dying to Tell You is nothing less than one disciple s spiritual awakening and quest to know Jesus Christ and him crucified through the sayings he made from the cross and gospel they proclaim Things I Will Never Tell You Todd Andrew Rohrer,2009-07 A man had an accident He lost his sense of time and emotional capacity This is his sixth attempt to communicate since the accident The World's Work ,1919 A history of our time The Development Dimension Trade-Related Assistance What Do Recent Evaluations Tell Us? OECD,2007-05-09 This report draws on key findings and recommendations emerging from available donor evaluation reports assesses factors that have contributed to the success or failure of past programmes and provides guidance for enhancing the effectiveness and impact of future trade related assistance
