Pandas to Penguins Melissa Gaskill,2018-09-12 Perhaps nothing about nature calls to us as deeply as wild animals To see an enormous whale leaping out of the water the eerily human eyes of a gorilla or the comical waddle of a penguin to hear the ethereal howl of a wolf or majestic roar of a lion these experiences change us Around the world animal populations are threatened by loss of habitat pollution climate change overhunting and poaching and yet wildlife based tourism is growing rapidly and makes up as much as forty percent of the worldwide tourism industry today In Pandas to Penguins nature journalist Melissa Gaskill profiles twenty five species and one endangered ecosystem highlighting local ecofriendly travel outfitters operating in the area for those seeking out their own enriching personal experience with wildlife She provides basic information about each animal s behavior and biology descriptions of the threats they face and maps photographs and first person accounts of wildlife watching Each species meets three basic criteria 1 some level of risk to its survival 2 a reasonably accessible habitat where travelers have a chance to view the animal in the wild in its natural setting and 3 responsible tourism that directly benefits the animal or its habitat More than a wildlife bucket list or an exhortation to see them before they re gone this guide is intended to identify wildlife experiences that can be life changing for people as well as animals Extinction is tragic but not inevitable We can all do something to make a difference and Pandas to Penguins is an important resource for adventurers and armchair travelers alike full of the warmth sharp insights and vivid colour of his 14 year career Guardian Known thanks to his racing style and attitude for being one of road cycling s last romantics Dan has always shied away from revealing too much about himself and his story Now having retired at the end of the 2021 season aged 35 and no longer bound by the constraints of the racing circuit Dan feels the time is right to tell his story in the same forthright and honest manner that he rode his bike This book reflects Dan s generous and outspoken spirit his resilience to pain crashes bad luck and finally his acceptance of destiny Each chapter s title has a sub title based on a typical cyclist s fear the fear of losing a race the fear of retiring from the sport the fear of mountains or downhills the fear of doping and ultimately the fear of death Dan also discusses every aspect of the professional cyclist s life food discipline money dreams friendship and betrayal Dan is unashamed when it comes to exposing these dark feelings his weaknesses and how he tried to deal with them his attitude exemplifying Mark Twain s quote Courage is resistance to fear mastery of fear not absence of fear Written with his long time friend and best selling author Pierre Carrey this is the story of a rider who never sought to conform to modern cycling s norms and someone who in many ways embodies an age in cycling which has long since disappeared This is the celebration of a true cyclist s career which will appeal to anyone who s embraced the weekend ride whilst dreaming of the mountains Chased by Pandas is not a conventional study of wins losses and conquering mountains but overcoming the mental challenges of a sport into which he was seemingly born The Times Records the brave and tough journey of one of road cycling s last romantics Irish Independent Chronicles the former Irish road champion s journey through the ranks of professional cycling Cycling Weekly

British Cinema Amy Sargeant,2019-07-25 Although new writing and research on British cinema has burgeoned over the last fifteen years there has been a continued lack of single authored books providing a coherent overview to this fascinating and elusive national cinema Amy Sargeant's personal and entertaining history of British cinema aims to fill this gap With its insightful decade by decade analysis British Cinema is brought alive for a new generation of British cinema students and the general reader alike Sargeant challenges Rachel Low's premise that few of the films made in England during the twenties were any good by covering subjects as diverse as the art of intertinting the narrative complexities of Shooting Stars and Brunel's burlesques Sargeant goes on to examine among other things the differing acting styles of Dietrich and Donat in the seminal Knight Without Armour to early promotional campaigns in the 1930s whereas subjects ranging from product endorsement by stars to the character of the suburban wife are covered in the 1940s The 1950s includes topics such as the effect of post war government intervention to Free Cinema and Lindsay Anderson's infuriating lapses of rigour together with a much needed overview of Michael Balcon's contribution to British cinema For Sargeant the 1960s provides an overview of the tentative relationship between film and advertising and the rise of young Turks such as Tony Richardson Ken Loach Donald Cammell and Nicolas Roeg
