Tell Freedom:

Tell Freedom Peter Abrahams, 1954 Selvbiografisk roman om forfatterens barndom og ungdom som farvet i Sydafrika indtil han emigrerer til England som fyrb der p et skib The Cost of Freedom , Foundational African Writers Bhekizizwe Peterson, Jill Bradbury, Hugo Canham, Innocentia J Mhlambi, Victoria J Collis-Buthelezi, Sikhumbuzo Mngadi, Simon Gikandi, Thando Njovane, Anne-Maria Makhulu, Obi Nwakanma, Athambile Masola, James Ogude, Christopher EW Ouma, Stéphane Robolin, Crain Soudien, Tina Steiner, Thuto Thipe, Andrea Thorpe, 2022-06 The essays in this collection were crafted in celebration of the centenaries in 2019 of Peter Abrahams Noni Jabavu Sibusiso Cyril Lincoln Nyembezi and Es kia Mphahlele all of whom were born in 1919 All four centenarians lived rich and diverse lives across several continents In the years following the Second World War they produced more than half a century of foundational creative writing and literary criticism and made stellar contributions to institutions and repertoires of African and black arts and letters in South Africa and internationally The range of the centenarians imaginations critical analyses and social interventions spanned disciplinary divides This volume in the same spirit draws on approaches that are equally transdisciplinary Two aims thread through the contributors reflections on the complexities of black existence and of intellectual and cultural life in the twentieth century The first is the exploration of some of the centenarians key texts and cultural projects that shaped their legacies In doing so the volume contributors trace a number of divergent intellectual and aesthetic lineages in their works and organisational activities The second aim is a consideration of the ways in which these foundational writers legacies continue to resonate today confirming their status as crucial contributors to modern African and diasporic black arts and letters Life Writing as World Literature Helga Lenart-Cheng, Ioana Luca, 2025-05-01 A global array of contributors explore the interplay between translation and circulation mediums and materialities and aesthetics and politics in how life writing is shaped by and becomes world literature We live in the age of popular self representation in that most people around the globe either produce or consume autobiographical material memoirs selfies blogs etc The current volume investigates this global phenomenon and examines how life writing and world literature converge Why do some personal stories get picked up translated circulated and taught in classrooms while others remain moored in local waters Do autobiographical stories that travel widely have something in common about them Or is it the other way around is it our notion of world literature that imposes uniform expectations on these diverse texts And what can we gain from studying these two fields in conjunction Life Writing as World Literature brings together experts who map regional and local autobiographical traditions from six continents These scholars explore the dynamic interplay between local and global aesthetics and sociopolitical concerns presenting case studies that include prison narratives from communist regimes Japanese diaries multilingual Caribbean memoirs Indian auto biographical comics and stories by Taiwanese domestic workers To understand how and why some personal stories enter global dissemination contributors inquire into translation market mechanisms and circulation patterns

while also exploring the affordances of new media and materialities when recording contemporary lives Life Writing as World Literature brings a fresh perspective to both fields world literature and life writing opening up exciting avenues of research

The South African Short Story in English, 1920-2010 Marta Fossati, 2024-09-05 Through detailed close readings alongside investigations into the history of print culture Marta Fossati traces the development of the South African short story in English from the late 1920s to the first decade of the twenty first century She examines a selection of short stories by important Black South African writers Rolfes and Herbert Dhlomo Peter Abrahams Can Themba Alex La Guma Mtutuzeli Matshoba Ahmed Essop and Zo Wicomb with an alertness to the dialogue between ethics and aesthetics performed by these texts This new history of Black short fiction problematises and interrogates the often polarised readings of Black literature in South Africa that can be torn between notions of literariness protest and journalism Due to material constraints short fiction in South Africa circulated first and foremost through local print media which Fossati analyses in detail to show the cross fertilisation between journalism and the short story While rooted in the South African context the short stories considered also hold a translocal dimension allowing us to explore the ethical and aesthetic practice of intertextuality These are writings that complicate the aesthetics ethics binary generic classifications and the categories of the literary and the political Theoretically eclectic in its approach although largely underpinned by a narratological analysis The South African Short Story in English 1920 2010 When Aesthetics Meets Ethics offers a fresh perspective on the South African short story in English spotlighting several hitherto marginalised figures in South African literary studies Hope Lives Trudie-Pearl Sturgess, 2012-05 Dr Josh O kelly is a handsome former OHL player who lives on the edge and never gives a damn about the consequences of his actions Josh was sentenced to five months in jail for drinking and driving with a suspended license The authorities tried to charge him with crimes against humanity during the civil war in Liberia and failed With help from Lock Washington Tia Carter will make a powerful movie loosely based on Josh s experiences during the Liberian civil war portraying good men witnessing violence becoming the kinds of persons capable of horrible acts of violence How is Josh going to charm his way out of this mess Transnationalism in Southern African Literature Stefan

Helgesson, 2008-08-18 Considering the growing interest in South African Literature at the moment this study looks at both the Anglophone literature of South Africa and the lusophone literature of Angola and Mozambique Stefan Helgesson suggests that the prevalence of colonial languages such as English and Portuguese in anticolonial or postcolonial African Literature is primarily an effect of the print network Helgesson aims to demystify the authority of English and Portuguese by stressing the materiality of the print medium and emphasising the strong transnational and transcontinental vectors of southern African literature after the Second World War Trapped in History Nicholas Rankin, 2023-11-14 Trapped in History tells how the British colonised Kenya and how African nationalism arose under Jomo Kenyatta It describes the terrifying first attacks by the guerrilla freedom fighters known as Mau Mau Though defeated the Mau Mau hastened the end of British rule in Kenya

Trapped in History explores the effect the uprising on the author who grew up as a child in the Kenya colony The book is both a history as well as a memoir of the end of Empire Finding Philosophers in Global Fiction Anway

Mukhopadhyay, Saptarshi Mallick, Debashree Dattaray, 2024-09-05 A cross cultural study that explores and redefines what philosophy philosophizing and philosophers are through the lens of literature The academic discipline of philosophy may tell us too rigidly what a philosopher is or should be but fictional narration often upholds the core conundrums of humankind in which philosophy germinates This collection of essays explores whether a study of philosophers at a planetary scale or at least on a broad cross cultural spectrum can decouple philosophy from its academic aspect and lend it a more inclusive domain Contributors to this volume play with three conceptual poles making them interact with each other and get modified through this interaction fiction narrative and philosopher How do these three terms get semantically modified and broadened in scope when we speak of the figures of philosophers in imaginative writing How do these terms assume different connotations in different cultural contexts interacting with the multiplicity of not just thought but also the media and tools of thought Do we always think only rationally Or do we also think with and through emotively powerful images symbols and tropes In the end Finding Philosophers in Global Fiction insists on the need to de elitize and democratize the concept of a philosopher by reflecting on the possibility of seeing a philosopher as one who sees things clearly from any vantage point
