Telling Lies in Modern American Autobiography Timothy Dow Adams, 1990-01-01 This collection of twelve essays discusses the principles and practices of women's autobiographical writing in America, England, and France from the eighteenth to the twentieth centuries

Telling Lies in Modern American Autobiography Timothy Dow Adams, 2017-10-10 All autobiographers are unreliable narrators. Yet what a writer chooses to misrepresent is as telling, perhaps even more so, as what really happened. Timothy Adams believes that autobiography is an attempt to reconcile one's life with one's self, and he argues in this book that autobiography should not be taken as historically accurate but as metaphorically authentic. Adams focuses on five modern American writers whose autobiographies are particularly complex because of apparent lies that permeate them. In examining their stories, Adams shows that lying in autobiography, especially literary autobiography, is not simply inevitable. Rather, it is often a deliberate, highly strategic decision on the author's part. Throughout his analysis, Adams's standard is not literal accuracy but personal authenticity. He attempts to resolve some of the paradoxes of recent autobiographical theory by looking at the classic question of design and truth in autobiography from the underside, with a focus on lying rather than truth. Originally published in 1990, A UNC Press Enduring Edition. UNC Press Enduring Editions use the latest in digital technology to make available again books from our distinguished backlist that were previously out of print. These editions are published unaltered from the original and are presented in affordable paperback formats, bringing readers both historical and cultural value.

American Autobiography Paul John Eakin, 1991 The first four essays review the major historical periods of American autobiography, placing the classic texts of American autobiographical literature from Captain John Smith to Malcolm X in the illuminating context of lesser-known contemporary narratives. Daniel B. Shea writes on colonial America, Lawrence Buell on the American Renaissance, Susanna Egan on the years after the Civil War, and Albert E. Stone on the twentieth century. The second part of American Autobiography shows the diversity of voices, forms, audiences, and modes of identity in the literature of American autobiography. Provocative essays by William Boelhower and Sau Ling Cynthia Wong on immigrant autobiography discuss the changes in the sense of self that occur when strangers come to a strange land. Arnold Krupat writes about how American Indians conceptualize the self and about the relationship between oral and written discourse. William L. Andrews evaluates the strong body of critical theory that has grown up around African American autobiography, showing how both the genre and its criticism have responded to contemporary historical pressures. Carol Holly explores the model of personal identity that underlies nineteenth-century women's autobiographies, and Blanche Gelfant examines the narrative and political strategies of Emma Goldman's autobiography, especially her use of popular romance and melodrama. The last essay offers a more personal perspective on contemporary autobiography, a dialogue between Robert and Jane Coles about how they developed their method of eliciting first-person oral narratives for their famous Children of Crisis and Women of Crisis series. These essays raise theoretical issues that are examined in Paul

John Eakin's incisive introduction How do we define a literary genre of protean shape and perplexing cultural multiplicity How do we approach the special problems created by documents that are both historical and literary texts ones that pose difficult questions about truth and representation Most important how is the canon of American autobiography to be constructed and how is its history to be written Tracing that critical history Eakin explains how changing ideas about the mainstream and the marginal have revitalized our retrospective view of American autobiography and opened up new and exciting prospects for today's reader American Autobiography Rachael McLennan, 2012-11-26 The first student guide to American Autobiography Reading Autobiography Sidonie Smith, Julia Watson, 2010 projects and an extensive bibliography Book Jacket Poetry and Truth Jerry Schuchalter, 2009 German Life and Civilization provides contributions to a critical understanding of Central European cultural history from medieval times to the present Culture is here defined in the broadest sense comprising expressions of high culture in such areas as literature music pictorial arts and intellectual trends as well as political and sociohistorical developments and the texture of everyday life Maintaining Segregation LeeAnn G. Reynolds, 2017-05-08 In Maintaining Segregation LeeAnn G Reynolds explores how black and white children in the early twentieth century South learned about segregation in their homes schools and churches As public lynchings and other displays of racial violence declined in the 1920s a culture of silence developed around segregation serving to forestall absorb and deflect individual challenges to the racial hierarchy The cumulative effect of the racial instruction southern children received prior to highly publicized news such as the Brown v Board of Education decision and the Montgomery bus boycott perpetuated segregation by discouraging discussion or critical examination As the system of segregation evolved throughout the early twentieth century generations of southerners came of age having little or no knowledge of life without institutionalized segregation Reynolds examines the motives and approaches of white and black parents to racial instruction in the home and how their methods reinforced the status quo Whereas white families sought to preserve the legal system of segregation and their place within it black families faced the more complicated task of ensuring the safety of their children in a racist society without sacrificing their sense of self worth Schools and churches functioned as secondary sites for racial conditioning and Reynolds traces the ways in which these institutions alternately challenged and encouraged the marginalization of black Americans both within society and the historical narrative In order for subsequent generations to imagine and embrace the sort of racial equality championed by the civil rights movement they had to overcome preconceived notions of race instilled since childhood Ultimately Reynolds's work reveals that the social change that occurred due to the civil rights movement can only be fully understood within the context of the segregation imposed upon children by southern institutions throughout much of the early twentieth century Artful Truths Helena de Bres, 2021-09-10 Offers a philosophical perspective on the nature and value of writing a memoir Artful Truths offers a concise guide to the fundamental philosophical questions that arise when writing a literary work about your own life Bringing a philosopher's perspective to a general audience Helena de Bres addresses what a memoir is how the genre relates to fiction memoirists responsibilities to their readers and subjects and the question of why to write a memoir at all Along the way she delves into a wide range of philosophical issues including the nature of the self the limits of knowledge the idea of truth the obligations of friendship the relationship between morality and art and the question of what makes a life meaningful Written in a clear and conversational style it offers a resource for those who write teach and study memoirs as well as those who love to read them With a combination of literary and philosophical knowledge de Bres takes the many challenges directed at memoirists seriously while ultimately standing in defense of a genre that for all its perplexities and maybe partly because of them continually proves to be both beloved and valuable Small Worlds Elliott West, Paula Petrik, 1992 Thirteen essays treat children from the pre Civil War generation to 1950 as active influential participants in society The essays are organized into four topics cultural and regional variation toys and play family life and the ways evolving memories of childhood shape how adults think of themselves A Comics Studies Reader Jeet Heer, Kent Worcester, 2011-09-23 Contributions by Thomas Andrae Martin Barker Bart Beaty John Benson David Carrier Hillary Chute Peter Coogan Annalisa Di Liddo Ariel Dorfman Thierry Groensteen Robert C Harvey Charles Hatfield M Thomas Inge Gene Kannenberg Jr David Kasakove Adam L Kern David Kunzle Pascal Lefvre John A Lent W J T Mitchell Amy Kiste Nyberg Fusami Ogi Robert S Petersen Anne Rubenstein Roger Sabin Gilbert Seldes Art Spiegelman Fredric Wertham and Joseph Witek A Comics Studies Reader offers the best of the new comics scholarship in nearly thirty essays on a wide variety of such comics forms as gag cartoons editorial cartoons comic strips comic books manga and graphic novels The anthology covers the pioneering work of Rodolphe Töpffer the Disney comics of Carl Barks and the graphic novels of Art Spiegelman and Chris Ware as well as Peanuts romance comics and superheroes It explores the stylistic achievements of manga the international anti comics campaign and power and class in Mexican comic books and English illustrated stories A Comics Studies Reader introduces readers to the major debates and points of reference that continue to shape the field It will interest anyone who wants to delve deeper into the world of comics and is ideal for classroom use Writing the Lost Generation Craig Monk, 2010-11 Members of the Lost Generation American writers and artists who lived in Paris during the 1920s continue to occupy an important place in our literary history Rebellious against increased commercialism and the ebb of cosmopolitan society in early twentieth century America they rejected the culture of what Ernest Hemingway called a place of broad lawns and narrow minds Much of what we know about these iconic literary figures comes from their own published letters and essays revealing how adroitly they developed their own reputations by controlling the reception of their work Surprisingly the literary world has paid less attention to their autobiographies In Writing the Lost Generation Craig Monk unlocks a series of neglected texts while reinvigorating our reading of more familiar ones Well known autobiographies by Malcolm Cowley Ernest Hemingway and Gertrude Stein are joined here by works from a variety of lesser known but still important expatriate American writers including Sylvia Beach

Alfred Kreyenborg Samuel Putnam and Harold Stearns By bringing together the self reflective works of the Lost Generation and probing the ways the writers portrayed themselves Monk provides an exciting and comprehensive overview of modernist expatriates from the United States Maya Angelou Linda Wagner-Martin,2015-11-19 A comprehensive biographical and critical reading of the works of American poet and memoirist Maya Angelou 1928 2014 Linda Wagner Martin covers all six of Angelou s autobiographies as well as her essay and poetry collections while also exploring Angelou s life as an African American in the United States her career as stage and film performer her thoughtful participation in the Civil Rights actions of the 1960s and her travels abroad in Egypt Africa and Europe In her discussion of Angelou s methods of writing her stunning autobiography which began with the 1970 publication of I Know Why the Caged Bird Sings Wagner Martin writes about the influences of the Harlem Writers Group led by James Baldwin Paule Marshall and John O Killens as well as Angelou s significant friendships with Malcolm X Martin Luther King Jr and other leaders from both international and African American United States cultures Crucial concepts throughout include the role of oral traditions of song and dance of the spiritualism of art based on religious belief of Angelou s voiced rhythms and her polished use of dialogue to convey more abstract meaning Wagner Martin shows that viewing herself as a global citizen Angelou never lost her spirit of adventure and discovery as well as her ability to overcome Encyclopedia of Life Writing Margaretta Jolly,2013-12-04 First published in 2001 This is the first substantial reference work in English on the various forms that constitute life writing As this term suggests the Encyclopedia explores not only autobiography and biography proper but also letters diaries memoirs family histories case histories and other ways in which individual lives have been recorded and structured It includes entries on genres and subgenres national and regional traditions from around the world and important auto biographical writers as well as articles on related areas such as oral history anthropology testimonies and the representation of life stories in non verbal art forms Celebrity Memoir Hannah Yelin,2020-11-10 In this timely analysis of the economics of access that surround contemporary female celebrity Hannah Yelin reveals a culture that requires women to be constantly baring all in physical exposure and psychic confessions As famous women tell their story in their own words constellations of ghostwriters intermediaries and market forces undermine assertions of authorship and access to the real woman behind the public image Yelin s account of the presence of the ghostwriter offers a fascinating microcosm of the wider celebrity machine with insights pertinent to all celebrity mediation Yelin surveys life writing genres including fiction photo diary comic strip and art anthology as well as more traditional autobiographical forms covering a wide range of media platforms and celebrity contexts including reality TV YouTube pop stardom and porn glamour modelling Despite this diversity Yelin reveals seemingly inescapable conventions as well as spaces for resistance Celebrity Memoir from Ghostwriting to Gender Politics offers new insights on the curtailment of women s voices with ramifications for literary studies of memoir feminist media studies celebrity studies and work on the politics of production in the creative industries Contested Selves Katja

Herges, Elisabeth Krimmer, 2021 Investigates the field of German life writing from Rahel Levin Varnhagen around 1800 to Carmen Sylva a century later from Doblin Becher women's WWII diaries German Jewish memoirs and East German women's interview literature to the autofiction of Lena Gorelik

Who's Who? Maggie Nolan, Carrie Dawson, 2004 Brings together for the first time essays that consider a range of high profile cases of literary hoaxing identity crisis or imposture in Australian literature Critics explore the history of hoaxing and imposture and consider the cultural and political issues at stake Nolan at Australian Catholic University

Mirror Talk Susanna Egan, 1999 A study of directions in autobiography Traditional autobiography tends to originate in crisis but develops a resolution whereas contemporary autobiography deals with unresolved crisis The author examines works by a range of writers including Primo Levi Ernest Hemingway and Mary Meigs

(Per)mutations of Qohelet Jennifer L. Koosed, 2006-07-01 Per mutations of Qohelet explores the question Who is Qohelet Rather than peering behind or through the text to answer this question in terms of authorship Koosed analyzes the identity that is created through the words on the page The text is not a transparent medium connecting reader with author instead it is an opaque body it has weight substance skin Koosed begins with an analysis of the ways in which words construct identities and the reasons why words can affect us so profoundly relying primarily on the work of Judith Butler and Elaine Scarry She then explores autobiography and how the genre of autobiography as reconfigured by Roland Barthes and Jacques Derrida relates to Qohelet These two chapters then set the framework for what follows an analysis of the various bodily organs and sensations contained within the book of Qohelet The body is embedded in the text through the naming of body parts eye hand heart And this same body is encoded in form structure and syntax so that the text becomes a body with organs systems and even a life of its own The book is a body and the book speaks of bodies It speaks of the body's organs and senses it concerns itself with the pleasures and pains of the body the gendered body the dying body Finally the ritual body is highlighted in the final passage of this enigmatic book

Dynamic Form Cara L. Lewis, 2020-07-15 Dynamic Form traces how intermedial experiments shape modernist texts from 1900 to 1950 Considering literature alongside painting sculpture photography and film Cara Lewis examines how these arts inflect narrative movement contribute to plot events and configure poetry and memoir As forms and formal theories cross from one artistic realm to another and back again modernism shows its obsession with form and even at times becomes a formalism itself but as Lewis writes that form is far more dynamic than we have given it credit for Form fulfills such various functions that we cannot characterize it as a mere container for content or matter nor can we consign it to ignominy opposite historicism or political commitment As a structure or scheme that enables action form in modernism can be plastic protean or even fragile and works by Henry James Virginia Woolf Mina Loy Evelyn Waugh and Gertrude Stein demonstrate the range of form's operations Revising three major formal paradigms spatial form pure form and formlessness and recasting the history of modernist form this book proposes an understanding of form as a verbal category as a kind of doing Dynamic Form thus opens new possibilities for conversation between modernist studies and formalist studies and simultaneously promotes a capacious rethinking of the convergence between literary modernism and creative work in other media      Abolitionists Remember Julie Roy Jeffrey, 2012-02-01 In Abolitionists Remember Julie Roy Jeffrey illuminates a second little noted antislavery struggle as abolitionists in the postwar period attempted to counter the nation's growing inclination to forget why the war was fought what slavery was really like and why the abolitionist cause was so important In the rush to mend fences after the Civil War the memory of the past faded and turned romantic slaves became quaint owners kindly and the war itself a noble struggle for the Union Jeffrey examines the autobiographical writings of former abolitionists such as Laura Haviland Frederick Douglass Parker Pillsbury and Samuel J May revealing that they wrote not only to counter the popular image of themselves as fanatics but also to remind readers of the harsh reality of slavery and to advocate equal rights for African Americans in an era of growing racism Jim Crow and the Ku Klux Klan These abolitionists who went to great lengths to get their accounts published challenged every important point of the reconciliation narrative trying to salvage the nobility of their work for emancipation and African Americans and defending their own participation in the great events of their day
