The Anthropological Imagination McGraw Hill Paperbacks:

The Anthropological Imagination Muriel Dimen, 1977      Demons in the Consulting Room Adrienne Harris, Margery Kalb, Susan Klebanoff, 2016-08-05

Demons in the Consulting Room Echoes of Genocide Slavery and Extreme Trauma in Psychoanalytic Practice is the second of two volumes addressing the overwhelming often unmetabolizable feelings related to mourning both on an individual and mass scale. Authors in this volume explore the potency of ghosts, ghostliness, and the darker, often grotesque aspects of these phenomena. While ghosts can be spectral presences that we feel protective of, demons haunt in a particularly virulent way, distorting experience, our sense of reality, and our character. Bringing together a collection of clinical and theoretical papers, Demons in the Consulting Room reveals how the most extreme types of trauma can continue to have effects across generations and how these effects manifest in the consulting room. Essays in this volume consider traumas that have affected multiple generations of people, such as the Holocaust, experiences in the gulags, and the experience of slavery. Authors here consider the clinical challenges of working with the demonic force in severe childhood abuse and the effects of serious and prolonged physical injury and illness. Inevitably, there is in such difficult clinical work the combined effects of hauntings in the analysts and in patients, and often in the surrounding culture. In this book, distinguished psychoanalysts explore the myriad forms of ghosts and the demonic which interfere and disrupt the endlessly difficult psychic work of mourning. It will be of interest to psychotherapists and psychoanalysts as well as social workers, family therapists, psychologists, and psychiatrists. Demons in the Consulting Room will appeal to those specializing in bereavement and trauma and on a broader level to sociologists and historians interested in understanding means of coping with loss and grief on both an individual and larger scale basis.

Women in Families Monica McGoldrick, Carol M. Anderson, Froma Walsh, 1989

This comprehensive book ideal as a basic text in family therapy and women's studies addresses the question of how women experience family life from a variety of perspectives. It covers gender issues in family therapy, theory, practice, and training; women in context; ethnicity and life cycle issues; marriage; motherhood; sisterhood; women alone; lesbian couples; and such special issues as work, addiction, and mental illness.

Sexuality, Intimacy, Power Muriel Dimen, 2023-11-28

This book offers Dimen's classic take on psychosexuality, drawing on relational theory, feminism, and postmodernism, with a new foreword by Virginia Goldner and Velleda Ceccoli honouring the late Muriel Dimen and introducing a new audience to her profound legacy. For Dimen, the shift from dualism to multiplicity that has reshaped a range of disciplines can also be brought to bear on our thinking about sexuality. She urges us to return to the open-mindedness hiding between the lines and buried in the footnotes of Freud's writings and to replace the determinism into which his thought has hardened with more fluid notions of contingency, paradox, and thirdness. By unveiling the colloquy among psychoanalysis, social theory, and feminism, Dimen challenges clinicians and academicians alike to rethink ideas about gender, eroticism, and perversion. She explores, among other topics, the relations between lust and libido, the limitations of Darwinian thought in theorizing homosexuality, the body as projective test and the intimate tangle of love and hate between women Generous clinical examples illustrate the ways in which a radical re visioning of psychosexuality benefits therapists and patients alike A brilliant example of contemporary psychoanalytic theory at its destabilizing best Sexuality Intimacy Power covers both clinical insights and theoretical rethinking that is invaluable for psychoanalysts psychotherapists and students of women s gender and queer studies

Books in Print ,1991      Contemporary Marketing and Consumer Behavior John F. Sherry,1995-05-02 This exploration of marketing and consumer behaviour comprises original articles both theoretical and empirical and serves as a sourcebook for those interested in consumption and managerial consequences Issues discussed include elements of the marketing mix advertising and promotion relationship management managerial intervention and stakeholder response organization behaviour economic development class and gender linked consumer behaviour and the production of consumption They are examined using anthropological perspectives and methods ranging from materialistic to semiotic

Feminist Nightmares: Women At Odds Susan Ostrov Weisser,1994-10-01 Though all women are women no woman is only a woman wrote Elizabeth Spelman in The Inessential Woman Gone are the days when feminism translated simply into the advocacy of equality for women Women s interests are not always aligned race class and sexuality complicate the equation In recent years feminist ideologies have become increasingly diverse Today one feminist s most ardent political opponent may well be another feminist As feminism grows increasingly diverse the time has come to ask a painful and frequently avoided question what does it mean for women to oppress women This pathbreaking provocative anthology addresses this troublesome dilemma from various feminist perspectives offering an interdisciplinary collection of writings that widens our understanding of oppression to take into account women who are at odds The book examines the social political and psychological ramifications of this phenomenon as evidenced in a range of texts from women s antislavery writing to women s anti abortion writing from mother daughter incest stories to maternal surrogacy narratives from the Bible to the popular romance nove from Jane Austen to Alice Walker The value of the volume is perhaps best summed up by an early response to the idea This is a book that should never be written feminists should concentrate on how men oppress women Ironically it is precisely because the subject triggers such responses the authors argue that a volume such as Feminist Nightmares has become a necessity

Sacral Revolutions Gottfried Heuer,2013-12-16 Sacral Revolutions is a unique project reflecting the contribution that Andrew Samuels has made to the general field of psychoanalysis and Jungian analysis in both clinical and academic contexts Gottfried Heuer has brought together an international array of authors friends and colleagues of Samuels to honour his 60th Birthday As a result the collection provides a creative and cutting edge overview of a fragmented field The chapters demonstrate the profound sense of social responsibility of these analysts and academics whose concerns include the mysteries and hidden meanings in social and political life This open and engaging volume includes a previously unpublished interview with C G Jung adding to its usefulness as an essential companion for academics analysts therapists and students

An Ethnographic Approach to Peacebuilding Gearoid Millar, 2014-04-24 This book aims to outline and promote an ethnographic approach to evaluating international peacebuilding interventions in transitional states While the evaluation of peacebuilding and transitional justice efforts has been a growing concern in recent years too often evaluations assess projects based on locally irrelevant measures reinforce the status quo distribution of power in transitional situations and uncritically accept the implicit conceptions of the funders planners and administrators of such projects This book argues that evaluating the effects of peacebuilding interventions demands an understanding of the local and culturally variable context of intervention Throughout the book the author draws on real world examples from extensive fieldwork in Sierra Leone to argue that local experiences should be considered the primary measure of a peacebuilding project s success An ethnographic approach recognizes diversity in conceptions of peace justice development and reconciliation and takes local approaches and local critiques of the international agenda seriously It can help to empower local actors hold the international peacebuilding industry accountable to its supposed beneficiaries and challenge the Western centric ideas of what peace entails and how peacebuilding is achieved This book will be of much interest to students and scholars of peacebuilding peace and conflict studies transitional justice African politics ethnography International Relations and security studies as well as practitioners working in the field

An Intersubjective Mentalization-Based Primer Johann Steinberger, 2025-10-02 This book explores how Affect Resonance Training ART as developed by the Viennese psychotherapist Johann Steinberger offers students and trainees in psychosocial professions the opportunity to develop competence in empathy allowing them to better understand themselves and others Based on concepts of empathy resonance and mentalization this innovative mode of teaching offers effective tools and training for empathetic understanding This book presents clear instructions for its application in the classroom summarizing several years of intensive institutional practice The book also outlines the program s rich theoretical background and documents its empirical effectiveness With clear instruction on the use of ART and clinical insights on how increased empathy is effective in therapeutic settings this book is essential reading for psychoanalysts psychotherapists and others across the psychosocial professions

Reading with Muriel Dimen/Writing with Muriel Dimen Stephen Hartman, 2023-05-16 Reading with Muriel Dimen Writing with Muriel Dimen Experiments in Theorizing a Field is a collection of reading and writing experiments inspired by the late feminist psychoanalyst Muriel Dimen Each of the six projects that comprise this volume explores a stylistic and thematic manner of reading and responding to Dimen s work challenging the field to write outside the standardized edition and covering a remarkable breadth of essential analytic topics such as sex gender money love and hate and boundary violations As an homage to Dimen s quest to engage the personal and the political in the author s craft and in collaboration with Dimen s endeavour to foster revolution across the psychosocial landscape that renders psychoanalysis its field the authors offer readers a wild analysis of reading and writing Providing a clear introduction to and exploration of Muriel Dimen s groundbreaking work this book will prove essential for scholars of psychoanalysis cultural studies and gender studies as well as anyone seeking to understand Dimen s influence on psychoanalytic practice today

Political Cultures in Asia and Europe Jean Blondel,Takashi Inoguchi,2006-09-27 Drawing on data from the largest cross national survey on political culture for the last half a century this is an original and comprehensive study of the attitudes to political and social life among the citizens of eighteen countries in Europe and Asia

Teaching About Dialect Variations and Language in Secondary English Classrooms Michelle D. Devereaux,2014-10-17 Standardized tests demand Standard English but secondary students grades 6 12 come to school speaking a variety of dialects and languages thus creating a conflict between students language of nurture and the expectations of school The purpose of this text is twofold to explain and illustrate how language varieties function in the classroom and in students lives and to detail linguistically informed instructional strategies Through anecdotes from the classroom lesson plans and accessible narrative it introduces theory and clearly builds the bridge to daily classroom practices that respect students language varieties and use those varieties as strengths upon which secondary English teachers can build The book explains how to teach about language variations and ideologies in the classroom uses typically taught texts as models for exploring how power society and identity interact with language literature and students lives connects the Common Core State Standards to the concepts presented and offers strategies to teach the sense and structure of Standard English and other language variations so that all students may add Standard English to their linguistic toolboxes

Imagining Difference Leslie Robertson,2005 Imagining Difference is an ethnography about historical and contemporary ideas of human difference expressed by residents of Fernie BC a coal mining town transforming into an international ski resort Focusing on diverse experiences of people from the European diaspora Robertson analyzes expressions of difference from the multiple locations of age ethnicity gender class and religion Her starting point is a popular local legend about an indigenous curse cast on the valley and its residents in the nineteenth century Successive interpretations of the story reveal a complicated landscape of memory and silence mapping out official and contested histories social and scientific theories as well as the edicts of political discourse Cursing becomes a metaphor for discursive power resonating in political popular and cultural contexts transmitting ideas of difference across generations and geographies Stories are powerful imaginative resources in the contexts of colonialism war immigration labour strife natural disaster treaty making and globalization This study suggests that while criteria may shift ideas of race and foreignness expressions of regionalism and class and religious identity remain fixed in the social imagination The author draws from folklore media imagery historical records and interviews field notes and verbatim accounts provide readers with a sense of the ethnographic process While situated historically and socially in Fernie BC this work will appeal to those in anthropology women s studies Native studies and history as well as to regional readers and anyone interested in life in resource towns in North America

Emigrating Beyond Earth Cameron M Smith,Evan T. Davies,2012-06-09 Emigrating Beyond Earth puts space colonization into the context of human evolution Rather than focusing on the technologies and strategies needed to colonize space the authors examine the human and societal reasons for space colonization They make space colonization seems like a natural step by demonstrating that if will continue the human species 4 million year old legacy of adaptation to difficult new environments The authors present many examples from the history of human expansion into new environments including two amazing tales of human colonization the prehistoric settlement of the upper Arctic around 5 000 years ago and the colonization of the Pacific islands around 3 000 years ago which show that space exploration is no more about rockets and robots that Arctic exploration was about boating

Engaging Anthropological Theory Mark Moberg,2018-09-03 This updated second edition of Mark Moberg s lively book offers a fresh look at the history of anthropological theory Covering key concepts and theorists Engaging Anthropological Theory examines the historical context of anthropological ideas and the contested nature of anthropology itself Anthropological ideas regarding human diversity have always been rooted in the sociopolitical conditions in which they arose and exploring them in context helps students understand how and why they evolved and how theory relates to life and society Illustrated throughout this engaging text moves away from the dry recitation of past viewpoints in anthropology and brings the subject matter to life      Cultural Transformations and Ethnicity in Modern Ecuador Norman Earl Whitten (Jr.),1981
