American Sea Power and the Obsolescence of Capital Ship Theory R.B. Watts, 2015-11-16 Since the beginning of the 20th century, the United States has sought to achieve Admiral Alfred Thayer Mahan's vision of command of the sea using large battle fleets of capital ships. This strategy has been generally successful; no force can oppose the U.S. Navy on the open seas. Yet capital ship theory has become increasingly irrelevant. Globally irregular warfare dominates the spectrum of conflict, especially in the aftermath of 9/11. Fleet engagements are a thing of the past, and even small scale missions that rely on capital ships are challenged by irregular warfare. In a pattern evident since World War II, the U.S. Navy has attempted to adapt its capital ship theory to irregular conflicts with mixed results, before returning to traditional operations with little or no strategic debate. This book discusses the challenges of irregular warfare in the 21st century and the need for U.S. naval power to develop a new strategic paradigm.

The Marine Corps Gazette, 1972 The Nation, 1972 The Jews of Capitol Hill Kurt F. Stone, 2010-12-29 Since 1841, 200 Jewish men and women have served in the United States Congress. Their ranks have included Democrats and Republicans, Whigs and Socialists, radicals and reactionaries, a microcosm of the political diversity of the United States. Their influence in Congress has been significant, yet they have been largely overlooked in the history books. In The Jews of Capitol Hill: A Compendium of Jewish Congressional Members, Kurt F. Stone profiles all of the Jews who have served in the House or the Senate. This volume features entries on every Jewish member of Congress from David Levy Yulee, who in 1841 was elected to the 27th Congress as a Delegate from the Territory of Florida, to the Jewish senators and representatives of the 111th Congress. Arranged in chronological order, the members range from Bella Abzug to Edward Zorinsky and feature such historical figures as Barry Goldwater, Jacob Javits, Herbert Lehman, and Abraham Ribicoff, along with those still serving in Congress such as Barney Frank, Dianne Feinstein, Joseph Lieberman, and Al Franken. Each entry identifies the member's political party and years of service, provides a biographical sketch, and includes references for further study. This is the most comprehensive and extensive resource on the legacy of Jewish representation and influence in the United States Congress.

The New York Times Book Review, 1973 Leaving Port Captain Charles Gallagher USNR (Ret.), 2020-09-26 In 1961, Charles Gallagher graduated from the Naval Academy at the age of 20.
