Arsenic and Old Lace Joseph Kesselring, 1942 An easy going drama critic discovers that his kind and gentle aunts have a bizarre habit of poisoning gentlemen callers and burying them in the cellar Chinese of Africa Stefan Asemota, 2025-01-17 As the plane took off I was leaving more than just my father I was leaving behind the last bit of hope I had When the grief of losing a loved one hijacks his life Stefan finds himself on a raw unfiltered journey home with a father he barely knew armed with nothing but questions and a desperate need to understand The Chinese of Africa is a personal and sociopolitical memoir that explores Stefan's transformative journey through grief cultural identity and a critical examination of Nigeria's socioeconomic structure Following the loss of his Swiss mother Stefan accompanies his Nigerian father on a poignant return to his native land seeking to bridge the emotional distance between them and understand the complex challenges facing contemporary Nigeria His mother's death becomes the emotional catalyst propelling his journey of reconnection both with his father and his father's homeland Grief is portrayed not as a debilitating force but as a transformative experience that opens pathways to deeper understanding He uses this personal pain to explore the African parenting culture that has traditionally made it difficult for sons to connect with their fathers The Chinese of Africa is not just a travel memoir or a personal grief narrative but a sophisticated sociopolitical exploration of a man who shows the problems affecting his nation and his continent and how historical forces like slavery and colonisation continue to shape African societies Stefan doesn't just describe problems affecting the Nigerian culture he tries to understand their roots and imagine workable solutions He explains how complicated social rules make it hard for fathers and sons to truly understand each other Growing up between two cultures gives him a unique view of Nigeria's challenges and leveraging his personal stories and careful observation he shows how family dynamics reflect larger social issues Through his grief hallucinations poems thoughts personal experiences and systemic analysis Stefan offers a unique perspective about himself his family his mother his nation and Nigeria's complex societal landscape He shows how personal stories can reveal larger truths about culture identity and growth This book will hook you from the very first page to the last with its breathtaking genre defying exploration that shatters expectations It is perfect for readers who crave memoirs from authors like Chris Whitaker Alison Espach and Leigh Bardugo The Car Worker, 1911 Burnham Peter Van Wyk, 2003 A world traveled writer recounts the amazing adventures of an American who mentored Robert Baden Powell and inspired the Boy Scouts Burnham is bigger than the Chief Scout In Search of Brightest Africa Jeannette Eileen Jones, 2011-11-01 In the decades between the Berlin

Conference that partitioned Africa and the opening of the African Hall at the American Museum of Natural History Americans in several fields and from many backgrounds argued that Africa had something to teach them Jeannette Eileen Jones traces the history of the idea of Africa with an eye to recovering the emergence of a belief in Brightest Africa a tradition that runs through American cultural and intellectual history with equal force to its Dark Continent counterpart Jones skillfully weaves disparate strands of turn of the century society and culture to expose a vivid trend of cultural engagement that involved both critique and activism Filmmakers spoke out against the depiction of savage Africa in the mass media while also initiating a countertradition of ethnographic documentaries Early environmentalists celebrated Africa as a pristine continent while lamenting that its unsullied landscape was vanishing New Negro political thinkers also wanted to save Africa but saw its fragility in terms of imperiled human promise Jones illuminates both the optimism about Africa underlying these concerns and the racist and colonial interests these agents often nevertheless served The book contributes to a growing literature on the ongoing role of global exchange in shaping the African American experience as well as debates about the cultural place of Africa in American thought
