The Teeth are Smiling Ellie Vasta, Stephen Castles, 1996-01-01 This collection looks behind the smiles of multicultural policy to discover a society still affected by racial tension

Borderwork in Multicultural Australia John O'Carroll, 2020-07-31 Refugees Border protection Ethnic gangs Terrorism History wars Pauline Hanson Australia's faith in multiculturalism has been shaken by fierce attacks from its enemies and a sense of crisis among its friends Multiculturalism has become a political tool to win votes and generate community anxiety What is left of the multicultural ideal Bob Hodge and John O'Carroll take the pulse of multicultural Australia in the wake of September 11 They investigate the hot spots of multiculturalism showing how they cluster around fiercely defended boundaries and borders both literal and symbolic They tackle the issues of racism past and present and show how injustice impacts on many communities in Australia including Aboriginals as well as more recent migrant groups The authors argue that despite appearances multiculturalism is alive and well in Australia and a commitment to tolerance and diversity characterises daily life In fact Australia's multiculturalism is the best kind of borderwork against terrorism racism and injustice A timely original and optimistic discussion of Australia's multicultural past and our possible futures Graeme Turner Director Centre for Critical and Cultural Studies University of Queensland This clearly written book shines a welcome light on the fog of critique of Australian multiculturalism from both the Right and the Left Jock Collins Professor of Economics University of Technology Sydney

Psychology and Indigenous Australians Keith McConnochie, Wendy Nolan, Rob Ranzijn, 2009-10-02 Relations between psychology and the Indigenous peoples of Australia have historically been uneasy and fraught since psychology has been seen in the past as an agent of colonisation However in recent years there have been a number of major initiatives largely driven by Indigenous psychologists to improve the relationship and to work towards effective partnership between psychologists and Indigenous Australians to help overcome Indigenous disadvantage and work towards social justice This book contains edited proceedings of the inaugural Psychology and Indigenous Australians conference held in 2007 There are many exciting papers which illustrate the emergence of a new form of Australian psychology one that can respond effectively to the needs of Indigenous Australians and people from other cultural groups who live in an increasingly multi cultural Australia

'For those who've come across the seas...' Andrew Jakubowicz, Christina Ho, 2014-02-15 Locating Asian Australian Cultures Tseen Khoo, 2013-10-18 Locating Asian

Australian Cultures is a timely and challenging interdisciplinary compilation that sets a contemporary benchmark for Asian Australian studies and its future directions In the dynamic field of diasporic Asian studies Asian Australian Studies is an emerging and contentious area While cognisant of issues and critical developments in North America Europe and Asia Asian Australian studies forges its own specific engagements with questions of identity racialization and nationalisms in a world of globalized cultures and movements This book deliberately engages with international perspectives on Asian Australian studies that offer contingent connections and address crucial questions for fields that are rapidly de nationalizing The volume focuses on Asian Australian cultural production and identity presenting work that interrogates notions of belonging and citizenship representational politics and disciplinarity in the academy The broad ranging essays examine the politics of Asian Australian art and literature as well as the area s significant interventions in disciplinary formations nationally and internationally Other essays discuss the Vietnamese War memorial in Cabramatta notions of the sacrificial Asian in contemporary films and Chinatown sites in Australia This book will be essential reading not only for researchers in Asian Australian studies but also for those with an interest in Asian diaspora and Australian studies Governing Asian

International Mobility in Australia Xianlin Song,Greg McCarthy,2019-08-12 This book examines the governance of Asian student and academic mobility which has transformed the higher education landscape While campuses are experiencing an unprecedented level of diversity knowledge creation remains explicitly Eurocentric and dominated by the Global North The authors advocate for a new educational paradigm that takes into account the transcultural flow of knowledge on campus as a public good capitalises on Asian students and academics multilingual competencies and offers them equal access to creating quality orientated education The book argues that international higher education must be grounded in both a plurality of knowledges and the ethics of cognitive justice and that the governing policies should facilitate the higher education sector to build a platform of internationalising affect and effect on campus Changing Police Culture Janet B. L. Chan,1997-03-17

In this case study of police racism and police reform in Australia the author provides a critical assessment of police initiative in response to the problem of police minorities relations Culture, Identity, Commodity Tseen Khoo,Kam Louie,2005-10-05 Established and emerging scholars offer timely discussions of diasporic Chinese studies drawing on transnational postcolonial globalisation and racialisation theories The collection examines what is at stake in the consideration of diasporic literatures and the connections and fissures emerging in these new critical terrains Coming Out Jewish Jon

Stratton,2003-09-02 Coming Out Jewish explores the idea of Jewishness as a problem of racial ethnic identity in the modern and post modern world It is a path breaking book that firmly places the Jewish experience on the Cultural Studies agenda

Sexualised Citizenship Shirlita Africa Espinosa,2017-08-12 This book considers the intersections of race gender and class in multicultural Australia through the lens of migration to the country Focusing on Philippines born migration it presents the profile and history of this minority group through an examination of their print material culture over the last 40 years Particularly it examines the growth of the production of Filipino cultural identity and the politics of community building in relation to the sexualisation of their acquired citizenship Given the promotion of Australia as a modern multicultural Western nation in the Asia Pacific region the book questions the bases on which this claim stands using the example of Filipino settlement in Australia Considering the social contradictions that continue to shape multicultural politics in Australia it examines how the community makes sense of its migration through print material culture The book analyses the community s responses to their minoritisation to understand how Filipino Australian migration the affective and economic appropriation of women s labour is instructive of the social reality of millions in the global diaspora today Based on archival and ethnographic research this text straddles the interdisciplinary fields of gender and cultural studies and is a key read for all scholars of Asian and Australian area studies

From White Australia to Woomera James Jupp,2007-04-02

Immigration specialist James Jupp surveys changes in immigration policy since 1972

Ethnicity and Globalization

Stephen Castles,2000-07-14 This book written by one of the leading authorities on migration traces the growth of global migration since 1945 showing how it has produced fundamental economic social and cultural changes in most parts of the world Using techniques of comparative analysis the book shows the gap between global migration and policy As the postwar demand for labour outstripped supply flows of ethnic migration were encouraged throughout the developed Western countries The rooting of new ethnicities in different soils was neither planned or managed effectively The book shows how the economic demand for work has been supplemented by the demand from asylum seekers to recognize injustice and oppression The book also examines the emergence of multicultural societies and the impact of this on traditional concepts of citizenship culture and identity

Negotiating Racialised Identities Carol Reid,2003 Drawing on a comparative socio historical overview of racialisation in the Australian and Canadian contexts and interviews with staff students and administrators in the AREP and NORTEP the author reveals how the tensions and contradictions of Indigenous teacher education can be productive

Honneth and Everyday Intercultural (Mis)Recognition Bona Anna,2018-02-21 This book conducts a critical investigation into everyday intercultural recognition and misrecognition in the domain of paid work utilising social philosopher Axel Honneth s recognition theory as its theoretical foundation In so doing it also reveals the sophistication and productivity of Honneth s recognition model for multiculturalism scholarship Honneth and Everyday Intercultural Mis Recognition is concerned with the redress of intercultural related injustice and more widely the effective integration of ethically and culturally diverse societies Bona Anna analyses the everyday experiences of cross cultural misrecognition in a distinctive ethno cultural group including social norms that have been marginalised in the contexts of employment In this endeavour she deploys key constructs from Honneth s theory to argue for individual and social integration to be conceptualised as a process of inclusion through stables forms of recognition rather than as a process of inclusion through forms of group representation and participation This book will appeal to students and academics of multiculturalism interested in learning more about the usefulness of Honneth's recognition theory in intercultural inquiry including the ways in which it can circumvent some of the impasses of classical multiculturalism Haunted Nations Sneja Gunew, 2013-04-15 Postcolonialism has attracted a large amount of interest in cultural theory but the adjacent area of multiculturalism has not been scrutinised to quite the same extent In this innovative new book Sneja Gunew sets out to interrogate the ways in which the transnational discourse of multiculturalism may be related to the politics of race and indigeneity grounding her discussion in a variety of national settings and a variety of literary autobiographical and theoretical texts Using examples from marginal sites the settler societies of Australia and Canada to cast light on the globally dominant discourses of the US and the UK Gunew analyses the political ambiguities and the pitfalls involved in a discourse of multiculturalism haunted by the opposing spectres of anarchy and assimilation Native to the Nation Allaine Cerwonka, 2004 In a world increasingly marked by migration and dislocation the question of displacement and of establishing a sense of belonging has become ever more common and ever more urgent But what of those who stay in place How do people who remain in their place of origin or ancestral homeland rearticulate a sense of connection of belonging when ownership of the territory they occupy is contested Focusing on Australia Allaine Cerwonka examines the physical and narrative spatial practices by which people reclaim territory in the wake of postcolonial claims to land by indigenous people and new immigration of foreigners As a multicultural postcolonial nation whose claims to land until recently were premised on the notion of the continent as empty terra nullius Australia offers an especially rich lens for understanding the reterritorialization of the nation state in an era of globalization To this end Native to the Nation provides a multisited ethnography of two communities in Melbourne the Fitzroy Police Station and the East Melbourne Garden Club allowing us to see how bodies are managed and nations physically constructed in everyday confrontations and cultivations Allaine Cerwonka is assistant professor of women's studies and political science at Georgia State University Racism Albert J. Wheeler, 2005 Of all mankind's vices racism is one of the most pervasive and stubborn Success in overcoming racism has been achieved from time to time but victories have been limited thus far because mankind has focused on personal economic gain or power grabs ignoring generosity of the soul This bibliography brings together the literature Asian Nationalism in an Age of Globalization Roy Starrs, 2013-10-23 Topics include Government Intervention and Economic Growth in East Asia Agricultural Nationalism in the Age of Globalization Japan's Dominance and Multi Racial Coalitions in Malaysia Citizenship and Exclusion Veit Bader, 1997-10-06 Citizenship implies exclusion of non members Migrations processes and policies of first admission and incorporation of ethnically and culturally diverse newcomers are among the most hotly contested political issues especially in a world of gross inequalities This comparative and interdisciplinary collection sees distinguished moral and political philosophers historians sociologists anthropologists and political scientists from America Australia and Europe criticize existing institutions and increasingly restrictive policies and look for alternatives more in line with principles and constitutions of liberal democratic welfare states
