Telex Iran Gilles Peress, 1980      Telex Iran Gilles Peress, Ghulām Ḥusayn Sā'īdī, 1997 Telex Iran is an extraordinarily personal document of a public event The photographs Gilles Peress took over a five week period during the 1979 80 seizure of the American embassy in Tehran form neither a study nor an analysis Peress didn't plan to go to Iran the instant imagery the caricatures of fanatics on his TV got to him He felt the need to understand for himself the apparent madness about which the Western media could only generalize      The A to Z of Iran John H. Lorentz, 2010-04-14 Iran is a country with a deep and complex history Over several thousand years Iran has been the source of numerous creative contributions to the spiritual and literary world and the site of many remarkable manifestations of material culture The special place that Iran has come to hold in contemporary historical events most recently as a center stage actor in the unfolding and interconnected drama of worldwide nuclear arms proliferation and terrorism is all the more reason to explore the characters and personality of Iran and Iranians The A to Z of Iran is designed to give the reader a quick and understandable overview of specific events movements people political and social groups places and trends Through its extensive chronology introduction bibliography appendixes and more than double the number of cross referenced dictionary entries as in the previous edition the work allows for considerable exploration of a number of historical and contemporary topics and issues In particular the modern period defined as 1800 present is covered extensively      Iran-US Claims Tribunal Reports: Volume 39 Lee M. Caplan, 2020-11-05 The Iran US Claims Tribunal concerned principally with the claims of US nationals against Iran is the most important international claims tribunal to have sat in over half a century Its jurisprudence is bound to make a uniquely important contribution to international law and in particular the law relating to aliens treaty law and international arbitral procedure Volume 39 also contains the decisions of the Tribunal's appointing authority in four recent arbitrator challenges and for the first time includes the pleadings submitted by the parties and the challenged arbitrator The series is the only complete and fully indexed report of the decisions of this unique Tribunal These reports are essential for all practitioners in the field of international claims academics in private and public international law and comparative lawyers as well as all Governments and law libraries      Afterimages Liam Kennedy, 2016-03 Liam Kennedy here takes as his focus the ways in which selected photographers have sought to frame the activities and effects of American foreign policy often with a critical perspective and how their work engages the dynamics of power and knowledge that attend the American worldview What is at issue in this book is understanding relations between the geopolitical conditions of visibility and the particulars of the image Conditions of visibility for Kennedy are the ideologies that determine certain ways of seeing that support actions and representations which establish in visibilities and which police the relationship between seeing and believing the American worldview The individual photographers whose work Kennedy so insightfully dissects are those who have pushed the boundaries of photographic practice and who reflect critically on the contexts and scenery of war Larry Burrows and Philip

Jones Griffiths in Vietnam Gilles Peress covering the Iranian Revolution Susan Meiselas in El Salvador and Nicaragua Ron Haviv and Gary Knight in the Balkans Ashley Gilbertson and Chris Hondros in Iraq and Tim Hetherington and Lynsey Addario in Afghanistan These individuals expanded the conception and technical repertoire of photojournalism receiving critical acclaim provoking public and professional controversy and often incurring great personal cost to themselves Afterimages presents us with a revisionary understanding of the art of conflict photography The images are often searing they sometimes demonize and dehumanize the enemy but also humanize friend or victim a focus on the human roots the range of feeling in such imagery from horror to pity Iran-U.S. Claims Tribunal Reports: Volume 14 J. Body Horror John Taylor, 1998 Asks why anyone would want to look at shocking photographs The text questions what happens when the press uses gruesome images to represent accidents and disasters murder and execution grief and death It examines how the press pictures the dead and injured bodies of foreigners with particular reference to the special conditions of photographing the horror of wars in the Gulf Bosnia and Rwanda It argues that hard hitting documentary photography contributes to public knowledge and helps to define the freedom of the press     The Bankers' Almanac and Year Book ,1991     The Cruel Radiance Susie Linfield,2011-05-27 In The Cruel Radiance Susie Linfield challenges the idea that photographs of political violence exploit their subjects and pander to the voyeuristic tendencies of their viewers Instead she argues passionately that looking at such images and learning to see the people in them is an ethically and politically necessary act that connects us to our modern history of violence and probes the human capacity for cruelty Grappling with critics from Walter Benjamin and Bertolt Brecht to Susan Sontag and the postmoderns and analyzing photographs from such events as the Holocaust China s Cultural Revolution and recent terrorist acts Linfield explores the complex connection between photojournalism and the rise of human rights ideals In the book s concluding section she examines the indispensable work of Robert Capa James Nachtwey and Gilles Peress and asks how photography should respond to the increasingly nihilistic trajectory of modern warfare A bracing and unsettling book The Cruel Radiance convincingly demonstrates that if we hope to alleviate political violence we must first truly understand it and to do that we must begin to look     Understanding Photojournalism Jennifer Good,Paul Lowe,2020-09-23 Understanding Photojournalism explores the interface between theory and practice at the heart of photojournalism mapping out the critical questions that photojournalists and picture editors consider in their daily practice and placing these in context Outlining the history and theory of photojournalism this textbook explains its historical and contemporary development who creates selects and circulates images and the ethics aesthetics and politics of the practice Carefully chosen international case studies represent a cross section of key photographers practices and periods within photojournalism enabling students to understand the central questions and critical concepts Illustrated with a range of photographs and case material including interviews with contemporary photojournalists this book is essential reading for students taking university and college courses on photography within a wide range of disciplines and includes an annotated guide to further reading and a glossary of terms to further expand your studies     Encyclopedia of Twentieth-Century Photography, 3-Volume Set Lynne Warren,2005-11-15 The Encyclopedia of Twentieth Century Photography explores the vast international scope of twentieth century photography and explains that history with a wide ranging interdisciplinary manner This unique approach covers the aesthetic history of photography as an evolving art and documentary form while also recognizing it as a developing technology and cultural force This Encyclopedia presents the important developments movements photographers photographic institutions and theoretical aspects of the field along with information about equipment techniques and practical applications of photography To bring this history alive for the reader the set is illustrated in black and white throughout and each volume contains a color plate section A useful glossary of terms is also included      Contemporary Photography in France Olga Smith, 2022-10-19 This compelling publication traces the broad arc of photography's development in France from the 1970s to the present day A decade by decade account reveals unexpected points of convergence between practices that are not usually considered in a comparative perspective These include photographic practices in contemporary art documentary photojournalism and fashion Author Olga Smith sets these practices in dialogue with French philosophy the writings of Roland Barthes Jean Baudrillard and Jacques Rancière to produce an innovative study of the intersections between the photographic image text practice and theory This analysis is guided by an understanding of photography as deeply engaged with historical cultural and intellectual events that defined French national experience in the contemporary period Landscape provides a particular focus to study issues of key significance including national identification colonial past legacies of modernization and environmental breakdown      World List of Universities / Liste Mondiale des Universités F.
