Lemme Tell You a Story Allen J. Roy, 2012-10 Father Roy was born in Hamburg Louisiana in August 1929 He is the oldest of four sons and the only one who answered the call to become a Roman Catholic Priest Father Roy and his family moved a few times and finally settled in New Roads Louisiana where he attended school and then he entered the Archdiocesan Seminary system Now retired from active ministry after fifty eight years his residence is the St John Vianney Villa retirement community for priests in Marrero Louisiana in the Archdiocese of New Orleans After fifty eight years of active ministry no one would blame

Father Roy for just taking it easy but that does not seem to be Father Roy's way. He is as active today as when he was pastor of Holy Spirit Catholic Parish. From teaching scripture classes to ministering to the elderly to visiting friends and family to harvesting his little garden to the list goes on and on. Father Roy is anything but idle. Beginning with a mother tongue of Acadian French, Father Roy encountered and learned various languages in his study formation ministry and now retirement. One of those languages was the language of music and its many dialects. His appreciation of those many forms of music and language has been and is a constant presence and enhancement to Father Roy's spirituality and prayer life. God gives everyone an abundance of gifts. It is our job to recognize those gifts and use them for the benefit of all of God's people.

Creating a Psychoanalytic Mind Fred Busch, 2013-10-23 Bringing a fresh contemporary Freudian view to a number of current issues in psychoanalysis this book is about a psychoanalytic method that has been evolved by Fred Busch over the past 40 years called Creating a Psychoanalytic Mind It is based on the essential curative process basic to most psychoanalytic theories the need for a shift in the patient's relationship with their own mind Busch shows that with the development of a psychoanalytic mind the patient can acquire the capacity to shift the inevitability of action to the possibility of reflection Creating a Psychoanalytic Mind is derived from an increasing clarification of how the mind works that has led to certain paradigm changes in the psychoanalytic method While the methods of understanding the human condition have evolved since Freud the means of bringing this understanding to patients in a way that is meaningful have not always followed Throughout Fred Busch illustrates that while the analyst's expertise is crucial to the process the analyst's stance rather than mainly being an expert in the content of the patient's mind is primarily one of helping the patient to find his own mind Creating a Psychoanalytic Mind will appeal to psychoanalysts and psychotherapists interested in learning a theory and technique where psychoanalytic meaning and meaningfulness are integrated It will enable professionals to work differently and more successfully with their patients Tell Us a Story! Educational Publishing Corporation,1944
