The Architecture And Dynamics Of Developing Mind Ssrc Monograph No 234 Vol 58 Nos 5 6:

The Architecture and Dynamics of Developing Mind Andreas Demetriou, Anastasia Efklides, Maria Platsidou, 1993 This Monograph presents a theory of cognitive development The theory argues that the mind develops across three fronts The first refers to a general processing system that defines the general potentials of mind to develop cognitive strategies and skills The second refers to a hypercognitive system that governs self understanding and self regulation The third involves a set of specialized structural systems that are responsible for the representation and processing of different reality domains

Architecture and Dynamics of Developing Mind Andreas Demetriou, Anastasia Efklides, Maria Platsidou, 2004-07-16 This Monograph presents a theory of cognitive development The theory argues that the mind develops across three fronts The first refers to a general processing system that defines the general potentials of mind to develop cognitive strategies and skills The second refers to a hypercognitive system that governs self understanding and self regulation The third involves a set of specialized structural systems that are responsible for the representation and processing of different reality domains

The Architecture of the Mind Peter Carruthers, 2006-09-28 Providing a comprehensive development and defense of one of the guiding assumptions of evolutionary psychology that the human mind is composed of a large number of semi independent modules this book is a useful reading for those with an interest in the nature and organisation of the mind

The Developing Mind, Second Edition Daniel J. Siegel, 2015-02-04 Daniel J Siegel goes beyond the nature and nurture divisions that traditionally have constrained much of our thinking about development exploring the role of interpersonal relationships in forging key connections in the brain He presents a groundbreaking new way of thinking about the emergence of the human mind and the process by which each of us becomes a feeling thinking remembering individual Illuminating how and why neurobiology matters New to This Edition Incorporates significant scientific and technical advances Expanded discussions of cutting edge topics including neuroplasticity epigenetics mindfulness and the neural correlates of consciousness Useful pedagogical features pull out diagrams and a glossary Epilogue on domains of integration specific pathways to well being and therapeutic change

The Development of the Mediated Mind Joan M. Lucariello, 2004 This is a festschrift for Katherine Nelson an NYU professor who was a pioneer in infant perception and memory The mediated mind is a term coined by Dr Nelson and it refers to how cognitive development is mediated by the sociocultural context including language and social interaction The book should be of interest to cognitive development researchers and readers interested in new perspectives on the relation between mind and culture development
