Craftivism Betsy Greer, 2014-04-21 Craftivism is a worldwide movement that operates at the intersection where craft and activism meet. Craftivism the book is full of inspiration for crafters who want to create works that add to the greater good. With interviews and profiles of craftivists who are changing the world with their art and through examples that range from community embroidery projects stitching in prisons revolutionary ceramics AIDS activism yarn bombing and crafts that facilitate personal growth. Craftivism provides imaginative examples of how crafters can be creative and altruistic at the same time. Artists profiled in the book are from the United States Canada the United Kingdom Australia and Asia and their crafts include knitting crocheting sewing textiles pottery and ceramics. There's the Brooklyn writer who creates large scale site specific knitted installations the British woman who runs sewing and quilting workshops for community building and therapy the Indonesian book maker and organizer of a DIY craft center and the Oxford England cultural theorist and dress designer. A wonderful sense of optimism and possibility pervades the book the inspiring notion that being crafty can really make the world a better place. She also runs the blog craftivism.com and believes that creativity and positive activism can save not only the soul but also the world. The Art and Craft of Handmade Paper Vance Studley, 1977

The Art of Craft Timothy Anglin Burgard, Fine Arts Museums of San Francisco, M.H. De Young Memorial Museum, 1999. The evolution of the contemporary crafts movement is one of the outstanding art developments of the latter half of the twentieth century. THE ART OF CRAFT celebrates the very best of this genre with sections on glass ceramic porcelain wood furniture fibre and metal art. The objects are drawn from the Saxe Collection, certainly one of the premier collections of contemporary crafts in the world and the book features works by many major artists including Robert Arneson Dale Chihuly Viola Frey Sam Maloof William Morris Manuel Neri Peter Voulkos and Beatrice Wood. String, Felt, Thread Elissa Auther, 2010. String Felt Thread presents an unconventional history of the American art world chronicling the advance of thread rope string felt and fabric from the low world of craft to the high world of art in the 1960s and 1970s and the emergence today of a craft counterculture. In this full color illustrated volume Elissa Auther discusses the work of American artists using fiber considering provocative questions of material process and intention that bridge the art/craft divide. Drawn to the aesthetic possibilities and symbolic power of fiber the artists whose work is explored here Eva Hesse Robert Morris Claire Zeisler Miriam Schapiro Faith Ringgold and others experimented with materials that previously had been dismissed for their associations with the merely decorative with arts and crafts and with women's work. In analyzing this shift and these exceptional artists' works Auther engages far reaching debates in the art world. What accounts for the distinction between art and craft? Who assigns value to these categories and who polices the boundaries distinguishing them? String Felt Thread not only illuminates the centrality of fiber to contemporary artistic practice but also uncovers the social dynamics including the roles of race and gender that determine how art has historically been defined and valued The Art of Craft Timothy Anglin Burgard,1999 Inventing the Truth Russell Baker,1998 For anyone beguiled by memoirs or embarking on writing one this is filled with rich sometimes outrageous accounts from 9 acclaimed authors and it includes commentary on the writing process The Art Crafts for Beginners ,1932 The Art Crafts for Beginners Frank Goodwin Sanford,1913
