Imperialism Ian E Rock,2017-05-25 Ian E Rock demonstrates that the Letter to the Romans may be seen as an attempt by a subordinate group to redress actual and potential issues of confrontation with the Empire and to offer hope even in the face of death Paul demonstrates that it is God s peace and not Rome s peace that is important that loyalty to the exalted Jesus as Lord and to the kingdom of God not Jupiter and Rome leads to salvation that grace flows from Jesus as Christ and Lord and not from the benefactions of theEmperor If the resurrection of Jesus the crucified criminal of the Roman Empire demonstrates God s power over the universe and death the very instrument of Roman control then the Christ believer is encouraged to face suffering and death in the hope of salvation through this power Paul s theology emerges from and is inextricably bound to the politics of his day the Scriptures of his people and to the critical fact that the God who is One and Lord of all is still in charge of the world The Things We Do with Words Aletta J. Roots of Identity Linda King, 1994 Despite over 50 years of literacy training by the Mexican government the National Census records an illiteracy rate of over 70 percent in most Indian communities This book attempts to discover why so many Indians are illiterate today despite an indigenous literary tradition that dates back to the pre Conquest period The author sees language as the main factor explaining the high illiteracy rate in the Indian regions Although alphabets have been created for most of Mexico's indigenous languages there is no longer a literate tradition in the languages themselves and writing is intrinsically associated with the official and dominant language Spanish Indians continue to reproduce their group identity through the maintenance of linguistic and cultural boundaries How these boundaries have been built over time and how they continue to be maintained throughout the 20th century form the substance of this book

Reading the Prostitute Lorna Ryan, 2018-12-20 First published in 1997, this study aims to forge new connections between debates on prostitution, media processes, and everyday life in its exploration of depictions of female prostitution in British and Irish broadsheet newspapers between 1987 and 1991.
