Slouching Towards Bethlehem Nina Coltart, 2020-10-31 In 1982 Nina Coltart gave a paper to the English Speaking Conference of Psychoanalysts called Slouching towards Bethlehem or Thinking the Unthinkable in Psychoanalysis which created a stir and brought her to the attention of the psychoanalytic community Ten years later she produced her first book this book which contained her seminal paper alongside so many others of note Full of eloquent meaningful and provocative clinical stories including The Treatment of a Transvestite What Does It Mean Love Is Not Enough The Analysis of an Elderly Patient and The Silent Patient Nina Coltart exposes the full truth of the therapeutic process where the analyst may occasionally stray from orthodox practice but how such lapses can sometimes provide unforeseen breakthroughs in treatment This volume introduced Coltart s characteristic style of journeying through important issues in analytic practice She elaborates on the use of intuition the special attention required by an analyst the value of silence and of humour and the importance of psychosomatic processes the way the body speaks through psychosomatic symptoms All vitally relevant today and positively groundbreaking at the time Joan Didion: The 1960s & 70s (LOA #325) Joan Didion, 2019-11-12 Library of America launches a definitive collected edition of one of the most original and electric writers of our time with a volume gathering her five iconic books of the 1960s 70s Joan Didion s influence on postwar American letters is undeniable Whether writing fiction memoir or trailblazing journalism her gifts for narrative and dialogue and her intimate but detached authorial persona have won her legions of readers and admirers Now Library of America launches its multi volume edition of Didion's collected writings prepared in consultation with the author that brings together her fiction and nonfiction for the first time Collected in this first volume are Didion's five iconic books from the 1960s and 1970s Run River Slouching Towards Bethlehem Play It As It Lays A Book of Common Prayer and The White Album Whether writing about countercultural San Francisco the Las Vegas wedding industry Lucille Miller Charles Manson or the shopping mall Didion achieves a wonderful negative sublimity without condemning her subjects or condescending to her readers Chiefly about California these books display Didion's genius for finding exactly the right language and tone to capture America's broken twilight landscape at a moment of headlong conflict and change The Critical Response to Joan Didion Sharon Felton, 1994 Joan Didion is a major contemporary American novelist and journalist whose works have popular appeal and are widely studied from a variety of literary perspectives as well as for philosophical psychological and political insights into the times and topics with which they deal This volume collects an extensive range of critical commentary both reviews and scholarly examinations including newly commissioned essays covering the entire canon four works of fiction and five of nonfiction published between 1963 and 1992 Individually the selections explore diverse critical approaches to Didion's canon collectively they establish a critical map that will serve as a guide to future scholarship A substantive introduction assesses the canon and the critical reaction to it Other features include a brief chronology of Didion's accomplishments a bibliography and contributors and subject indexes

Merriam-Webster's Dictionary of Allusions Elizabeth Webber, Mike Feinsilber, 1999 A guide to references commonly used in speech and writing Explains more than 900 allusions Entries include examples from today's leading media A must for serious readers language lovers and ESL students American Women Writing Fiction Mickey Pearlman, 2014-10-17 American literature is no longer the refuge of the solitary hero Like the society it mirrors it is now a far richer many faceted explication of a complicated and diverse society racially culturally and ethnically interwoven and at the same time fractured and fractious Ten women writing fiction in America today Toni Cade Bambara Joan Didion Louise Erdrich Gail Godwin Mary Gordon Alison Lurie Joyce Carol Oates Jayne Anne Phillips Susan Fromberg Schaeffer and Mary Lee Settle represent that geographic ethnic and racial diversity that is distinctively American Their differing perspectives on literature and the American experience have produced Erdrich's stolid North Dakota plainswomen Didion's sun baked dreamers and screamers the urban ethnics Irish Jewish and black of Gordon Schaeffer and Bambara Oates's small town often violent neurotics Lurie's intellectual sophisticates and the southern survivors and victims male and female of Phillips Settle and Godwin The ten original essays in this collection focus on the traditional themes of identity memory family and enclosure that pervade the fiction of these writers The fictional women who emerge here as these critics show are often caught in the interwoven strands of memory perceive literal and emotional space as entrapping find identity elusive and frustrating and experience the interweaving of silence solitude and family in complex patterns Each essay in this collection is followed by bibliographies of works by and about the writer in question that will be invaluable resources for scholars and general readers alike Here is a readable critical discussion of ten important contemporary novelists who have broadened the pages of American literature to reflect more clearly the people we are

Her Hour Come Round at Last Gillian Preston, Peter L. Rudnytsky, 2018-03-22 This title is a celebration of the life of Nina Coltart who had a career in medicine and psychoanalysis and was author of bestselling titles in psychotherapy The Baby and the Bathwater and How to Survive as a Psychotherapist The book contains a large number of contributions by specialists in the field including Michael Brearley Susan Budd and Anthony Molino The book offers a long overdue tribute to Nina Coltart 1927 1997 who was a leading figure in the Independent Group of the British Psychoanalytical Society and indeed one of the greatest psychoanalysts of the twentieth century In addition to providing a comprehensive assessment of Coltart's life and work by patients supervisees friends family members and readers the editors have compiled all of her hitherto unpublished or uncollected writings making this book a capstone of her legacy to psychoanalysis

Slouching Towards Bethlehem-- Nina Coltart, 1992 Deeply admired for her direct honest moving and illuminating work Nina Coltart is a highly regarded member of the British psychoanalytic community In her talks and essays she explores the parameters of the psychoanalytic relationship against a background of broader issues in morality and culture Offering her insights to a North American audience for the first time this volume is an outgrowth of her vast experience as a psychoanalyst teacher and consultant Filled with clinical vignettes that bring her writings to life the book cogently addresses such disparate topics as diagnosis the superego and silence as well as the importance of spirituality The title essay which opens the book is justly famous a close analysis of an apparently hopeless elderly patient Coltart's dramatic intervention and the remarkable results of the case In this and all of her work Coltart displays an astounding ability to grasp and convey important facets of every analyst's work the complexity and paradox of analysis the importance of intuition and not knowing along with theoretical clarity the necessity for flexibility and patience and the essential capacity to allow one's self to be used by the patient As such Slouching Towards Bethlehem is inspiring reading for student and veteran analysts alike

The Last Love Song Tracy Daugherty, 2015-08-25 In The Last Love Song Tracy Daugherty the critically acclaimed author of Hiding Man a New Yorker and New York Times Notable book and Just One Catch and subject of the hit documentary The Center Will Not Hold on Netflix delves deep into the life of distinguished American author and journalist Joan Didion in this the first printed biography published about her life Joan Didion lived a life in the public and private eye with her late husband writer John Gregory Dunne whom she met while the two were working in New York City when Didion was at Vogue and Dunne was writing for Time They became wildly successful writing partners when they moved to Los Angeles and co wrote screenplays and adaptations together Didion is well known for her literary journalistic style in both fiction and non fiction Some of her most notable work includes Slouching Towards Bethlehem Run River and The Year of Magical Thinking a National Book Award winner and shortlisted for the Pulitzer Prize It dealt with the grief surrounding

Didion after the loss of her husband and daughter Daugherty takes readers on a journey back through time following a young Didion in Sacramento through to her adult life as a writer interviewing those who know and knew her personally while maintaining a respectful distance from the reclusive literary great The Last Love Song reads like fiction lifelong fans and readers learning about Didion for the first time will be enthralled with this impressive tribute Love and Hate David Mann, 2013-11-12 Love and hate seem to be the dominant emotions that make the world go round and are a central theme in psychotherapy Love and Hate seeks to answer some important questions about these all consuming passions Many patients seeking psychotherapy feel unlovable or full of rage and hate What is it that interferes with the capacity to experience love This book explores the origins of love and hate from infancy and how they develop through the life cycle It brings together contemporary views about clinical practice on how psychotherapists and analysts work with and think about love and hate in the transference and countertransference and explores how different schools of thought deal with the subject David Mann together with an impressive array of international contributors represent a broad spectrum of psychoanalytic perspectives including Kleinian Jungian Independent Group and Lacanian psychotherapists psychoanalysts and analytical psychologists With emphasis on clinical illustration throughout the writers show how different psychoanalytic schools think about and clinically work with the experience and passions of love and hate It will be invaluable to practitioners and students of psychotherapy psychoanalysis analytical psychology and counselling
