discrepant events. Hands on explorations or demonstrations in which the outcomes are not what students expect. Challenge students' preconceived ideas and urge them to critically examine the empirical evidence, draw logical inferences and skeptically review their initial explanations with their peers. It is the perfect dual purpose activity book for science teachers who aim to motivate their students while expanding their own scientific understanding.

IT and the Development of Digital Skills and Competences in Education Ordóñez de Pablos, Patricia, Lytras, Miltiadis D., Zhang, Xi, 2020-10-16 Digital technologies are transforming economies and societies around the world. As such markets demand new types of skills and competences that students must learn in order to be successful. IT and emerging technologies can be integrated into educational institutions to improve teaching methods and academic results as well as digital literacy. IT and the Development of Digital Skills and Competences in Education compiles critical research into one comprehensive reference source that explores the new demands of labor markets in the digital economy, how educational institutions can respond to these new opportunities and threats, the development of new teaching and learning methods and the development of digital skills and competences. Through new theories, research findings and case studies, the book seeks to incite new perspectives to understandings of the challenges and opportunities of the utilization of IT in the education sector around the world. Due to innovative topics that include digital competence, disruptive technologies and digital transformation, this book is an ideal reference for academicians, directors of schools, vice chancellors, education and IT experts, CEOs, policymakers in the field of education and IT researchers and students.

Spirit Tech Wesley J. Wildman, Kate J. Stockly, 2025-08-22 Featuring a Foreword by Mikey Siegel, founder of Consciousness Hacking. Technology can now control the spiritual experience. This is a journey through the high tech aids for psychological growth that are changing our world while exploring the safety, authenticity and ethics of this new world. We already rely on technology to manage our health, sleep, relationships and finances, so it's no surprise that we're turning to technological aids for the spiritual journey. From apps that help us pray or meditate to cybernauts seeking the fast track to nirvana through magnetic brain stimulation, we are on the brink of the most transformative revolution in the practice of religion: an era in which we harness the power of spirit tech to deepen our experience of the divine. Spirit tech products are rapidly improving in sophistication and power, and ordinary people need a trustworthy guide. Through their own research and insiders' access to the top innovators and early adopters, Wesley J. Wildman and Kate J. Stockly take you deep inside an evolving world. Find out how increasingly popular wearables work on your brain, promising a shortcut to transformative meditative states. Meet the inventor of the God Helmet who developed a tool to increase psychic skills and overcome fear, sadness and anger. Visit churches that use ayahuasca as their sacrament and explore the booming industry of psychedelic tourism. Journey to a mansion in the heart of Silicon Valley where a group of scientists and entrepreneurs are working feverishly to bring brain-based spirit tech applications to the masses. Discover a research team who achieved brain-to-brain communication between individuals thousands of miles apart, harnessing neurofeedback techniques to sync and share emotions among group members Spirit Tech offers readers a compelling glimpse into the future and is the definitive guide to the fascinating world of new innovations for personal transformation spiritual growth and pushing the boundaries of human nature      HC 703 - Government Horizon Scanning Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons. Select Committee on Science and Technology, Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Science and Technology Committee, Andrew Miller, 2014-05-04 The Government launched its new horizon scanning programme last July stating that in a tight economic climate it is more important than ever to have the best possible understanding of the world around us and how that world is changing However as it stands the new programme is little more than an echo chamber for Government views The new bodies that have been created consist entirely of Civil Servants effectively excluding the vast pool of expertise that exists outside of government The new programme does not even have a dedicated web presence to keep interested parties informed The programme's failings are partially attributed to a lack of ministerial oversight The Government also needs to recognise the potential role to be played in the new programme by the Government Office for Science GO Science specifically the Foresight Unit The relative lack of impact that the Foresight Unit has historically had on policy is largely a result of its non central location in government GO Science is located in the Department of Business Innovation and Skills BIS In contrast the new horizon scanning programme is located in the Cabinet Office In choosing to situate the new horizon scanning programme in the Cabinet Office the Government has recognised the importance of location and has thereby acknowledged the strength of this argument GO Science should be relocated from BIS to the Cabinet Office where it can play a more central role in the new programme and more effectively fulfill its role of ensuring that the best scientific evidence is utilised across government      New Formulas for America's Workforce ,2003

Schuh,2016-10-20 This book documents those first links that students make between content they learn in their classrooms and their prior experiences Through six late elementary school case studies these knowledge construction links are brought to life The links of the students are often rich in describing who these individuals are where they are in their learning process and what is meaningful to them Many times these links point to what has been learned both in and out of school and the contexts when and where that learning took place The mind as rhizome metaphor was used to guide the development and interpretation of the studies while the lens of Peircian semiotics provides an interpretation for these initial links The resulting grounded theory is presented through a rich and extensive presentation of excerpts from classroom observations student interviews and a student writing activity and describes the varying types of student links how the links were prompted the relationships between what the students were learning and what they already knew and specific types of in school links The narrative includes how these links were supported or inhibited in the classroom drawing on the roles of the teachers in the classrooms and what constituted authority sources of information in those classrooms Before exploring the students linking as a process of ongoing semiosis and how this process is part of a dynamic system a study of the relationship between student knowledge links and achievement is shared This rich narrative will be of interest to scholars and practitioners alike and includes an extensive appendix documenting the research methods
