Skilled Dialogue Strategies For Responding To Cultural Diversity In Early Childhood:

Skilled Dialogue Isaura Barrera, Robert M. Corso, Dianne Macpherson, 2003 Provides a field tested model for respectful reciprocal and responsive interaction honoring cultural beliefs and values Includes detailed vignettes reproducible forms tips on using translators and guidelines for distinguishing and differentiating between behaviors from other cultures

Skilled Dialogue Isaura Barrera, Lucinda Kramer, 2017-08-29 Ever needed to communicate or even collaborate with someone who just didn't agree with you or see things as you did Think there's only two options their way to your way Barrera and Kramer propose a third option inclusive of both ways They present an approach that goes beyond both and to arrive at a third option Skilled Dialogue a field tested series of strategies that can transform contradictory interactions into complementary ones Readers will learn how to build mutually complementary relationships that honor difference access and mine the strengths of differences explore multiple ways of creating mutually satisfying options without the need for compromise apply the six Skilled Dialogue strategies in ways that generate respect i.e. honor identity reciprocity i.e. honor voice and responsiveness i.e. honor connection Case examples and sample scenarios allow readers to practice what they've learned and provide them with models for their own interactions An invaluable resource for all who interact across differences whether professionally or personally this book will help readers to resolve interactional challenges in ways that allow differences to enhance outcomes rather than detract from them

Dual-Language Learners Angèle Sancho Passe, 2012-10-12 Growing research shows that many children from immigrant and refugee families are not doing well in school due in part to linguistic and cultural disadvantages Teaching dual language learners requires cultural sensitivity an understanding of language acquisition and intentional teaching strategies Combining research and techniques this resource helps early childhood educators support dual language learners as they develop the skills necessary for school readiness and success Angèle Sancho Passe an early childhood education consultant and writer is trilingual and has worked with many programs serving dual language learners She is the author of Is Everybody Ready for Kindergarten

Bridging Cultures in Early Care and Education Marlene Zepeda, Janet Gonzalez-Mena, Carrie Rothstein-Fisch, Elise Trumbull, 2012-11-12 Bridging Cultures in Early Care and Education A Training Module is a resource designed to help pre-service and in-service early childhood educators including infant/toddler caregivers understand the role of culture in their programs It is also intended for professionals who work with children and their families in a variety of other roles such as social workers special educators and early interventionists and for use in college courses focused on early childhood education and child development The module explains and illustrates how early childhood educators can use the organizing concepts of individualism and collectivism as a means of understanding cultural conflict and difference These concepts have been shown to be highly useful in improving home/school understanding across cultures Based on real-life examples of cultural dilemmas in early care and education settings participants engage the concepts of individualism and collectivism to solve a variety of scenarios in a dynamic and engaging manner Chapter 1 introduces the Bridging Cultures for Early Care and Education approach provides a brief history and explains the training module It presents the conceptual framework of individualism and collectivism which is at the heart of the training Chapter 2 provides the information needed for a two hour workshop including a script and notes to the facilitator The script is not meant to be read word for word Rather it is offered as a guide based on a pilot tested approach Appendices at the end of the book contain transparency masters for the overheads referenced in the script and masters for suggested handouts Chapter 3 offers ideas for augmenting the basic two hour training by expanding it over a longer time period It also identifies additional diversity resources that can complement the Bridging Cultures training Appendices providing additional information data and bibliographic resources are included This module originated as part of the Bridging Cultures Project at WestEd a nonprofit research development and service agency working with education and other communities to promote excellence achieve equity and improve learning for children youth and adults The 3rd Alternative Stephen R.
