Nadia Says; "Get Creative, Parent!" Nadia, 2012-10-17 The book draws attention to the role of the adult in parenting and the cycle of mismanaged experiences displaying a repetitive pattern of adult behaviour generation after generation It states that unless the adult is willing to open heart and mind the journey of parenting will continue to assume the repetitive pattern of the same old tired errors As there is no formal training for parenting the book appeals to the adult s common sense work at changes through self reflection and management of emotions to build a healthy happy relationship with his or her child The book serves the dual purpose of providing a guide not solutions on varied common topics affecting adult lives with young children and at the sametime creating awareness for the adult stepping into parenthood or for those working with children It suggests that adults develop a sense of humour before attempting to manage a child's issue. It's time for self-reflection. Get in touch and understand the parent's nature as a child first. In the end, the book guides those willing to open heart and mind to approach their child with an open-to-suggestions attitude.

Family History, Historical Consciousness and Citizenship Tanya Evans, 2021-12-16 Family history is one of the most widely practiced forms of public history around the globe, especially in settler-migrant nations like Australia and Canada. It empowers millions of researchers linking the past to the present in powerful ways, transforming individuals' understandings of themselves and the world. This book examines the practice, meanings, and impact of undertaking family history research for individuals and society more broadly. In this ground-breaking new book, Tanya Evans shows how family history fosters inter-generational and cross-cultural religious and ethnic knowledge, how it shapes historical empathy and consciousness, and combats social exclusion, producing active citizens. Evans draws on her extensive research on family history, including survey data, oral history interviews, and focus groups undertaken with family historians in Australia, England, and Canada, collected since 2016. Family History: Historical Consciousness and Citizenship reveals that family historians collect and analyse varied historical sources, including oral testimony, archival documents, pictures, and objects of material culture. This book reveals how people are thinking historically, outside academia, what historical skills they are using to produce historical knowledge, what knowledge is being produced, and what impact that can have on them, their communities, and scholars. The result is a necessary revival of the current perceptions of family history.
