Slum And Squatter Settlements In Sub Saharan Africa Toward A Planning Strategy:

Slum and Squatter Settlements in Sub-Saharan Africa R. A. Obudho, Constance C. Mhlanga, 1988-04-27 Characterized by the rapid growth of spontaneous squatter settlements the urbanization process in Africa differs substantially from that of more developed countries This book provides fresh insights into the goals and nature of development of the urban sector of Africa It brings together urban geographers planners economists anthropologists political scientists historians and sociologists to examine the interaction between the modern and traditional forces shaping development The contributors suggest valuable new methods for both understanding and formulating development strategies Africa's Legacies of Urbanization Stefan Goodwin, 2006-03-03 The ability to function safely healthily and productively in urban places is a continuing challenge for people everywhere This challenge is exacerbated when the resources available to people in urban places happen to be severely limited or their ability to make decisions consistent with their welfare severely constrained Nevertheless Africans have manifested great inventiveness and resourcefulness both in contributing to and in adapting to urbanization Africa's Legacies of Urbanization is the culmination of several decades of research travel and teaching Goodwin provides an interdisciplinary and up to date look at African cities and the urbanization process This thought provoking and engaging work tackles the vastness of the mother continent by dividing it into geographic regions western central southern eastern and northeastern Beginning with an overview of the urban experience in Africa Goodwin then studies the histories of urbanization in the various regions of the continent Thoroughly researched and accessibly written this comprehensive work will appeal to scholars of African studies urban studies anthropology and cultural ecology Housing Finance Strategies of Informal Settlement Dwellers Christiane Rudic, 2016 Access to housing and to housing finance remains a challenge in African cities This study examines the housing finance strategies of informal settlement dwellers in Dar es Salaam Tanzania and identifies a range of factors that enable or constrain actors to make investments in housing Based on ethnographic qualitative and quantitative research this study provides detailed insights into individual housing biographies and explains why some actors invest in housing while others do not It finally challenges widely accepted development concepts like the provision of housing microfinance land regularisation infrastructure upgrading and eviction and argues for a deeper understanding of everyday lives in order to improve housing conditions Christiane Rudic studied Geography with particular focus on urban development and housing at Bayreuth University Dissertation Series Contributions to African Research Beitrage zur Afrikaforschung Vol 68 Subject Sociology African Studies Urban Development The Oxford Handbook of the Modern Slum Alan Mayne, 2023 The Oxford Handbook of the Modern Slum explores the history of the modern slum connecting nineteenth century iterations through multiple pathways to its contemporary existence With chapters by 28 scholars this handbook brings an array of important and original perspectives and methodologies to bear on slums real and imagined across the globe Drawing upon anthropology archaeology architecture geography history politics sociology and urban planning the book delves into households and communities whose existence has been hidden by stereotypes
