The Denver Artists Guild Stan Cuba, 2015-05-15 In 1928 the newly organized Denver Artists Guild held its inaugural exhibition in downtown Denver Little did the participants realize that their initial effort would survive the Great Depression and World War II and then outlive all of the group's fifty-two charter members The guild's founders worked in many media and pursued a variety of styles In addition to the oils and watercolors one would expect were masterful pastels by Elsie Haddon Haynes photographs by Laura Gilpin sculpture by Gladys Caldwell Fisher and Arnold Ronnebeck ceramics by Anne Van Briggles Ritter and Paul St Gaudens and collages by Pansy Stockton Styles included realism impressionism regionalism surrealism and abstraction Murals by Allen True Vance Kirkland John E Thompson Louise Ronnebeck and others graced public and private buildings secular and religious in Colorado and throughout the United States The guild's artists didn't just contribute to the fine and decorative arts of Colorado they enhanced the national reputation of the state Then in 1948 the Denver Artists Guild became the stage for a great public debate pitting traditional against modern The twenty-year-old guild split apart as modernists bolted to form their own group the Fifteen Colorado Artists It was a seminal moment some of the guild's artists became great modernists while others remained great traditionalists Enhanced by period photographs and reproductions of the founding members' works The Denver Artists Guild chronicles a vibrant yet overlooked chapter of Colorado's cultural history The book includes a walking tour of guild members' paintings and sculptures viewable in Denver and elsewhere in Colorado by Leah Naess and author Stan Cuba In honor of the book's release the Byers Evans House Gallery will showcase a collection of founding guild members' works starting June 26 2015 The exhibit also titled The Denver Artists Guild Its Founding Members contains paintings from artists such as the famed Paschal Quackenbush Louise Ronnebeck Albert Byron Olson Elisabeth Spalding Waldo Love and Vance Kirkland The show will be on display through September 26 2015 School Arts Magazine ,1911 The Guild 8 ,1993 The Printing Art ,1922 Reference Services in the Humanities Judy Reynolds, 1994-11-11 This helpful book provides practical insight into the work and environment of reference services in the humanities Librarian's mental maps of humanities reference materials must include an awareness of the metaphoric not too precise nature of many patrons' queries Reference Services in the Humanities discusses the structure of literature in the humanities and how it matches or challenges mental images of the field Chapters are infused with the issues of language names and meaning within a metaphoric genre The book serves as a guide to humanist s use of metaphoric language and also as a bibliography of sources Reference Services in the Humanities contains specific references for finding materials in areas that are not traditional mainstream arts This sample of disciplines provides case studies depicting each field s particular idiosyncrasies Chapters examine the challenge of referral reference and common problems encountered in searching for answers to patrons questions The book contains a theoretical framework for interacting with patrons and addresses options for humanities reference in an electronic age This book brings together librarians and researchers who provide and manage reference services to a wide array of disciplines within the humanities Authors come from all types of libraries and represent a broad spectrum of patrons from the young student curious about the movies to practicing musicians and craftspersons This diversity provides an informative grounding for practitioners and library school students and faculty who wish to become effective reference librarians in the future Reference Services in the Humanities is divided into four sections which address research questions and challenges in selected disciplines descriptions from the field political issues in the humanities and theories and ideas for the future Specific topics explored include access to special collections censorship library resources for theater artists history research vocabulary control labeling of minorities craft information sources and much more

"Architecture, Design and Craft in Toronto 1900-1940 " Alla Myzelev, 2017-07-05 Toronto the largest and one of the most multicultural cities in Canada boasts an equally interesting and diverse architectural heritage Architecture Design and Craft in Toronto 1900 1940 tells a story of the significant changes in domestic life in the first 40 years of the twentieth century Adopting a multidisciplinary approach to studies of residential spaces the author examines how questions of modernity and modern living influenced not only architectural designs but also interior furnishings modes of transportation and ways to spend leisure time The book discusses several case studies some of which are known both locally and internationally for example Casa Loma while others such as Guild of All Arts or Sherwood have been virtually unstudied by historians of visual culture The overall goal of the book is to put Toronto on the map of scholars of urban design and architecture and to uncover previously unknown histories of design craft and domesticity in Toronto This study will be of interest not only to the academic community namely architects designers craftspeople and scholars of these disciplines along with social historians but also the general public interested in local history and or visual culture
