Candid breathless arrogant ambitious here in his own words is Clement Greenberg a young man of limitless intellectual appetite on his way to becoming the twentieth century's greatest art critic Clement Greenberg was and remains America's most perceptive prescient and influential art critic More alive than any of his contemporaries to the genius of art in his time it was Greenberg who in the 1940s and 50s charted and celebrated the rise of Abstract Expressionism The authority of his aesthetic judgment and the force and clarity of his arguments went far to establish those artists whose work he championed Pollock de Kooning Hans Hofmann David Smith Before all that however he was a young man burning to become an intellectual to make what he called Important Discoveries about art and life His confidant during these early years was Harold Lazarus a classmate at Syracuse University and a future professor of English From 1928 when both were nineteen until 1943 when they went their separate ways the two exchanged honest funny deeply personal letters collected by his widow Janice Van Horne

Harold Rosenberg Debra Bricker Balken, 2021-10-06 Despite being one of the foremost American intellectuals of the mid twentieth century Harold Rosenberg 1906 1978 was utterly incapable of fitting in and he liked it that way Signature cane in one hand and a cigarette in the other he cut a distinctive figure on the New York City culture scene with his radiant dark eyes and black bushy brows A gangly giant at six foot four he would tower over others as he forcefully expounded on his latest obsession in an oddly high pitched nasal voice And people would listen captivated by his ideas With Harold Rosenberg A Critic's Life Debra Bricker Balken offers the first ever complete biography of this great and eccentric man Although he is now known mainly for his role as an art critic at the New Yorker from 1962 to 1978 Balken weaves together a complete tapestry of Rosenberg's life and literary production cast against the dynamic intellectual and social ferment of his time She explores his role in some of the most contentious cultural debates of the Cold War period including those over the commodification of art and the erosion of individuality in favor of celebrity demonstrated in his famous essay The Herd of Independent Minds An outspoken socialist and advocate for the political agency of art he formed deep alliances with figures such as Hannah Arendt Saul Bellow Paul Goodman Mary McCarthy Jean Paul Sartre Willem de Kooning and Jackson Pollock all of whom Balken portrays with vivid accounts from Rosenberg's life Thoroughly researched and captivantly written this book tells in full Rosenberg's brilliant fiercely independent life and the five decades in which he played a leading role in US cultural intellectual and political history
