Mnemopoetics Valérie Bada, 2008 From its very beginning African American drama has borne witness to the creative power of the slaves to maintain their human dignity as well as to fashion a complex culture of survival If the memory of slavery has always been at the heart of the African American theatrical tradition it is the way in which it is processed and inscribed that has developed and is still changing Through the close reading and socio historical analysis of eight plays from 1939 to 1996 the author seeks to unravel the fluctuating patterns in the shaping of the theatrical memory of slavery long after its abolition To do so she defines the concept and practice of mnemopoetics as the making of memory through imagination as well as the critical approaches that decipher and interpret cultural productions of memory As a constellation of processes akin to the fluidity of memory mnemopoetics blends creative representation and critical exploration to suggest that the cultural creation of memory necessarily entails a self reflexive involvement with its own interpretation If slavery embodies the deep foundational memory of America African American drama represents the open communal space where it becomes possible to convert the irretrievable nature of a vicarious past into the redeeming function of a collective memory

A Free Man of Color John Guare, 2011-10-18 The Tony Award winning playwright spins a tale of adultery racism and the Louisiana Purchase with daring and dizzying skill Ben Brantley The New York Times The author of classics American plays such as Six Degrees of Separation and The House of Blue Leaves Tony and Obie Award winning playwright John Guare is celebrated for his theatrically playful intellectually dazzling imagination His play A Free Man of Color evolves from a bustling farce into something deeper and darker but similarly exhilarating USA Today A Free Man of Color is set in boisterous New Orleans prior to the historic Louisiana Purchase Before law and order took hold and class racial and political lines were drawn New Orleans was a carnival of beautiful women flowing wine and pleasure for the taking At the center of this Dionysian world is Jacques Cornet a mixed race gentleman who commands men seduces women and preens like a peacock But it is 1801 and the map of New Orleans is about to be redrawn The Louisiana Purchase brings American rule and racial segregation to the chaotic colorful world of Jacques Cornet and all that he represents turning the tables on freedom and liberty When Mankind was Young Frederick Britten Austin, 1927 The Saturday Evening Post, 1925 All New, All

Different? Allan W. Austin, Patrick L. Hamilton, 2019-11-05 Taking a multifaceted approach to attitudes toward race through popular culture and the American superhero All New All Different explores a topic that until now has only received more discrete examination Considering Marvel DC and lesser known texts and heroes this illuminating work charts eighty years of evolution in the portrayal of race in comics as well as in film and on television Beginning with World War II the authors trace the vexed depictions in early superhero stories considering both Asian villains and nonwhite sidekicks While the emergence of Black Panther Black Lightning Luke Cage Storm and other heroes in the 1960s and 1970s reflected a cultural revolution the book reveals how nonwhite superheroes nonetheless remained grounded in outdated assumptions Multiculturalism encouraged further diversity with 1980s superteams the minority run company Milestone s new characters in the 1990s and the arrival of Ms Marvel a Pakistani American heroine and a new Latinx Spider Man in the 2000s Concluding with contemporary efforts to make both a profit and a positive impact on society All New All Different enriches our understanding of the complex issues of racial representation in American popular culture The Caribbean Slave Kenneth F.
