The Missionary Myth An Agnostic View Of Contemporary Missionaries:

The Missionary Myth Richard Exley, Helen Exley, 1973 Edinburgh 2010 David A. Kerr, Kenneth R. Ross, 2009 The Centenary of the World Missionary Conference held in Edinburgh 1910 is a suggestive moment for many people seeking direction for Christian mission in the 21st century Several different constituencies within World Christianity are holding significant events around 2010 Since 2005 an international group has worked collaboratively to develop an intercontinental and multid denominational project now known as Edinburgh 2010 and based at New College University of Edinburgh This initiative brings together representatives of twenty different global Christian bodies representing all major Christian denominations and confessions and many different strands of mission and church life to prepare for the Centenary Daryl Balia International Director Edinburgh 2010 The Church Mission Society Brian Stanley, Kevin Ward, 2019-07-12 The Church Mission Society now renamed the Church Mission Society has been for most of its 200 year history the largest and most influential of the British Protestant missionary agencies Its bicentenary in 1999 is being marked by the publication of this collection of historical and theological essays by an international team of scholars including Lamin Sanneh Kenneth Cragg and Geoffrey A Oddie The volume contains re assessments of the classic centenary history of the CMS by Eugene Stock and of the strategic vision of Henry Venn one of the two architects of the Three Self theory of the indigenous church There are chapters on the close links between the CMS and the Basel Mission women missionaries and regional studies of Samuel Crowther and the Niger mission Iran the Middle East New Zealand India and Kikuyu Christianity The volume makes a major contribution to the growing body of literature on the indigenization of missionary traditions and will be of interest to historians of the missionary movement and non western Christianity as well as theologians concerned with religious pluralism dialogue and Christian mission Catalog of the Melville J. Herskovits Library of African Studies, Northwestern University Library (Evanston, Illinois) and Africana in Selected Libraries Melville J. Herskovits Library of African Studies, 1972 Christianity in Tropical Africa Patrick E. Ofori, 1977 Fundamentalisms Christopher H. Partridge, 2001 Any account of the modern world that ignores the impact of the forces of fundamentalism will be significantly deficient Whether one considers debates within faith communities concerning the correct interpretation of sacred writings or opposition to Western secular values or religiously inspired political activism or indeed some forms of international terrorism fundamentalism seems to be a perennial and ubiquitous religious tendency Written from sociological ethnographical anthropological missiological and theological perspectives these essays provide a source of reliable information and thoughtful reflection on contemporary manifestations of fundamentalism and fundamentalist like trends The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 1974 Current Sociology, 1976 Missiology, 1989 An international review International African Bibliography, 1973-1978 James Douglas Pearson, 1982
