MARIA MONTESSORI

Banesh Hoffmann, Jacques Barzun

The Montessori Method Dover Value Editions:

The Tyranny of Testing Banesh Hoffmann, Jacques Barzun, 2003-08-01 Hoffmann's complete and well documented account of the failings and dangers of mechanical testing illustrates the inherent flaws in aptitude and achievement tests. It demonstrates the inadequacies of multiple choice testing in which candidates simply choose answers and need not justify their replies, revealing the tests inclination to reward superficiality rather than subtlety and creativity. Aimed at teachers and others involved in education, this polemic exposes the corporate testing giants whose dubious claims to scientific accuracy shield them from public scrutiny.

Today Aaron Bradbury, Ruth Swailes, 2025-07-12 If you work in the early years you have probably heard of Montessori and Bronfenbrenner but have you heard of Bavolek Fisher or Page? Contemporary theorists and theories of early childhood learning have much to teach us. It is often forgotten that this learning is still evolving and that new voices are joining the discussion every year. With new chapters on Maslow, Bowlby, Piaget and Vygotsky, this second edition introduces you to some contemporary theorists and explores their work alongside more well known thinkers. It demonstrates how these theories relate to everyday practice in the early years and that discussion of them can support ongoing professional learning.

Normal Instructor, 1912 Education, Childhood and Anarchism Catherine Burke, Ken Jones, 2014-02-18 As one of Britain's most original thinkers and writers, Colin Ward wrote extensively about positive and practical examples from the past and present of the anarchist spirit or the social principle in everyday life. This volume is the first scholarly work dedicated to examining the significance of his distinctive and highly relevant contributions to the areas of education, children and the environment. In each chapter, international contributors from academic and activist backgrounds offer cross-disciplinary and critical perspectives on Ward's work and its relevance to contemporary debates. The book is divided into four key areas: The Sand Box of the City, Adventures in Education, Reflections on Practice, Mobilisations. This book will appeal to academics and professionals interested in the condition of childhood and youth today. It will prove useful for postgraduates and professionals undertaking further professional development and is relevant to anyone studying, researching or working in fields relating to children, education and the environment, not just in the UK but beyond.
