The Multi Racial School A Professional Perspective:

The Multi-racial School Julia MACNEAL (and ROGERS (Margaret)),1971 Radicalism, Anti-Racism and Representation Alastair Bonnett,2023-02-14 First published in 1993 Radicalism Anti Racism and Representation is a study set within a wider political context for the discussion of racial representation and anti racism The second half of the book is devoted to interview based exploration of the ambiguities and political characteristics of race equality consciousness amongst public educators It is shown that there is no one anti racism Different ideals and assumptions have been arrived at within different historical and geographical contexts It is suggested that this intellectual plurality provides a resource for those wishing to rethink anti racism in the light of its contemporary malaise The study also explores and explains the development of self critical reflexive anti racist and radical consciousness amongst educators The book provides the first sociological study of anti racism Indeed it is the first to provide a substantive critique of anti racism from outside the New Right It is also the first to look at this phenomenon geographically and to compare anti racism in multiracial and white areas This book will be of interest to students of human geography sociology history ethnic studies and race studies The Routledge International Companion to Multicultural Education James A. Banks,2009-09-10 This volume is the first authoritative reference work to provide a truly comprehensive international description and analysis of multicultural education around the world It is organized around key concepts and uses case studies from various nations in different parts of the world to exemplify and illustrate the concepts Case studies are from many nations including the United States the United Kingdom Canada Australia France Germany Spain Norway Bulgaria Russia South Africa Japan China India New Zealand Malaysia Singapore Indonesia Brazil and Mexico Two chapters focus on regions Latin America and the French speaking nations in Africa The book is divided into ten sections covering theory and research pertaining to curriculum reform immigration and citizenship language religion and the education of ethnic and cultural minority groups among other topics With forty newly commissioned pieces written by a prestigious group of internationally renowned scholars The Routledge International Companion to Multicultural Education provides the definitive statement on the state of multicultural education and on its possibilities for the future Working with Multiracial Students Kendra R. Wallace,2006-09-01 Working with Mixed Heritage Students offers a collection of writings that bridges the social science and educational literature related to mixed heritage identity development and schooling in diverse contexts As such it is the first book of its kind to provide a direct focus on multiracial ethnic identity and formal education in the United States based on the scholarship of educational researchers The two common threads linking the chapters are the flexible yet situated nature of ethnic and racial identities among mixed heritage students and the importance of theorizing social contexts when interpreting and representing identity community and belonging In addition to exploring general themes of identity development Working with Mixed Heritage Students addresses theoretical and methodological issues in conducting research on topics related to mixed heritage students as well as implications for teacher preparation and educational practice Ultimately the authors brought together in this volume share a focus on recently mixed heritage students of first or second or third generation multiracial and multiethnic descent This diversity of perspectives on such a complex topic creates a tension within the book one that naturally emerges through interdisciplinary collaboration But it is hoped that this tension is just one of many that will lead to further reflection dialogue and action by researchers and educators working with like populations

Teacher Education in and for a Multicultural Society Robin J. Burns, 1980 International Perspectives on Racial and Ethnic Mixedness and Mixing Rosalind Edwards, Suki Ali, Chamion Caballero, Miri Song, 2012-06-14 People from a mixed or inter racial and ethnic background and people partnering and parenting across different racial and ethnic backgrounds are of increasing political public and intellectual interest internationally Contributors to this interdisciplinary collection interrogate notions of mixedness and mixing and challenge stereotypical assumptions They advance debates in the field through illuminating the complexity of specific historical trajectories administrative practices and lived experience Recurrent themes woven throughout the chapters include boundaries and categorisation in terms of administration and government and also of lived experience the explicit and implicit politics of mixedness and mixing in terms of nation state interests agenda and policies as well as on the ground social relations the ways that mixedness and mixing shift in meaning and implications across time and place shaped by different national regional and or local contexts This volume shows that who is and is not mixed is contested and understandings of mixedness and mixing however conceived need to be situated in the larger complex of ideas about race and its classification International Perspectives on Racial and Ethnic Mixedness and Mixing is an invaluable book for students and scholars of race and ethnicity
